KILLED BY THE TRAIN

David Moran, Sr., One of Morrison Co.'s Oldest Settlers, the Victim

A fatal accident occurred Monday afternoon at 3:18 o'clock when passenger No. 50, Henry Cunningham engineer, and Fred Blum, conductor, the train coming from the north, crashed into a rig in which David Moran of Belle Prairie was returning home after a business trip to this city, on the Fourth street crossing, near the "Y" in the northeastern part of the city, and buried the old gentleman some forty or fifty feet through the air to almost instant death.

Witnesses of the accident state that the horse had crossed the track and the rig was right on the track when the engineer blew the whistle for the old man to clear the track. Curious as it may seem, when the horse heard the screaming of the train's whistle, it balked, refusing to budge a step ahead, and the old man, being somewhat deaf, probably did not hear the whistle, and therefore did not know of his direful peril. As there is a sharp curve in the line at this point, and there are some houses in the bend, obscuring the engineer's view of the crossing, he could not see whether the track was clear at the crossing until his train commenced taking the curve, and at the speed passenger trains generally are run at this point, it was next to impossible to stop the train in time to avert the accident without endangering the lives of the passengers on the whole train.

On two or three occasions during the past five months passenger trains have been derailed at or near this crossing from running at too great a speed, which fact ought to have been sufficient for the officials of the road to issue orders that trains should be run at a much slower speed at this point.

At night the danger is twice as great, and it is certainly a wonder that there have not been more accidents at this crossing.

When the train stopped and the train's crew hurried out to render their assistance to the fatally injured man, Mr. Moran called for a priest, which were the last words he uttered. He was placed on the train and taken to the depot, where he died shortly after the priest had ministered to him.

David Moran was nearly 88 years of age and was one of Morrison county's earliest settlers, having resided in the county some fifty years. He was born in Quebec, Canada, July 1830, and came to Minnesota in 1848, and settled in this county nine years later. In 1860 he was married and the couple made their home on a farm in Belle Prairie town. When Mrs. Moran died, his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Guertin and family went to live with Mr. Moran, and made their home with him ever since.

Mr. Moran was one of the best known residents of the county, univally respected and esteemed, of a hardy constitution and genial nature, and all who knew him expected him to reach 100 years. His children are prominent in the communities where they reside.

The deceased leaves six children, Victor and Dave Moran and Mrs. Ed. Guertin of Belle Prairie, Phil Moran of Ripley, Noah Moran of Bellevue and Mrs. Theodore Branchard of White Earth.

The funeral was held Thursday morning from the Catholic church at Belle Prairie and interment was in the Belle Prairie cemetery.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Giron, Wednesday, Dec. 26th, a twelve-pound son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt of Little Elk, Thursday, Dec. 19th, a fourteen-pound son.

Mrs. Emma Higbee and family of Charlotte, Mich., are in the city visiting friends and relatives.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Sugrue was taken seriously ill the first of the week with pneumonia.

Harry McManis, who is now employed in railroad work at Aberdeen, S. D., is spending the holidays visiting with his parents in this city.

Mrs. Annie Gerwing of Lenora Lake, Sask., Canada, who is visiting relatives in Pierz, was in the city Monday and renewed her subscription to the Herald, the great family journal.

The Swedish Lutheran church of the West side will give an entertainment at the church next Sunday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. An admission fee of 10 cents will be charged. Everybody is invited to attend.

A republican board of county commissioners took at different times $20,000 from the revenue funds, put it in the road and bridge fund, squandered it, and never returned it to the revenue fund. But not a peep from the Transcript. That was among the legacies bequeathed to the democratic board, and the principal cause of the running behind of the county. The county interests could not be safer than in the hands of the present board.

Christmas was a day of general joy to the residents of this city, and was appropriately celebrated. The churches all had special services for the day and were well filled with people, who went to attend the annual celebration of the coming of the Messiah.

Many of the churches had Christmas trees and programs on the nights before Christmas, and the little ones were certainly made happy.

Midnight mass was celebrated in the chapel at St. Gabriel's hospital,

J. ST. MARTIN DEAD.

John St. Martin, a well known barber of this city, was found dead Christmas morning at 6 o'clock at the foot of the stairs in his residence, corner Second street and First avenue northeast.

Mr. St. Martin had been brought home about 3 o'clock Christmas morning, by two men, who took him in the hall, handed the key to a daughter, and left after telling St. Martin to go to bed. As soon as the door closed St. Martin fell down. His daughters tried in every way to rouse him, but believing him to be intoxicated, and that he would soon recover, retired. He was in the same place when found, and had been dead several hours.

St. Martin was unfortunately addicted to drink. He had tried many times to quit and would succeed for a time. Of late he had been doing very well. He was a skilled barber and never had any trouble when in proper shape to make a good living. Christmas eve he was in Conrad Koble's confectionery at midnight, perfectly sober, and was sober at 1 o'clock. In the interval between 1 and 2 the old craving came on him, or he was tempted. The men who took him home said they thought him from the restaurant in the Hall block. At first there were rumors of foul play, and the coroner was notified. Dr. Fortier made an autopsy in the afternoon, and found that death was due to causes arising from the man's habits, and that he could not have lived long anyway.

St. Martin was aged about 51 years, a widower, and leaves five daughters, one living in California, the others in this city.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

DIED

Mrs. Morrill Bryant, who underwent an operation for tumorous growths at St. Gabriel's hospital Wednesday of last week, died at 7:25 Monday morning at the hospital, aged 55 years.

The deceased had suffered a long time from this trouble, and although there was little hope for her recovery, she submitted to the operation as a last resort, but owing to the hold the disease had on her, she was unable to survive the shock.

Born in Connecticut in 1852 Mrs. Bryant moved to this state and settled in Minneapolis at an early age, where she was married and lived until about 28 years ago, when she moved to this city and resided here ever since.

Mrs. Bryant was a very christian woman and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. She was also a member of the W. B. C. U.

The deceased is survived by a husband, two daughters, Mrs. Sherman Clark, and Mrs. Ira Rudolph; a brother, Rollin Thorpe; and two sisters, Mrs. Martin Scott, of this city, and Miss Amsi Thorpe of Elk River.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence on Eighth avenue southeast, and later from the M. E. church, Rev. Farrell officiating, and interment was in Oakland cemetery.

The family have the condolence of the community.

Miss Vina Aubin, daughter of Thomas Aubin of this city, residing on First street northeast, died Sunday morning at her home of tuberculosis of the lungs, aged 28 years. The deceased had been suffering from this disease for several months past, and during the past two weeks she failed rapidly to her death. Miss Aubin conducted dress-making parlors at her home and was well known to a large number of people. Although afflicted she never complained but bore her crosses in silence.

The deceased is survived by a father, who has the sympathy of the community in the loss of a loving daughter.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from the French Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Lamotte officiating, and interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Mrs. Ellen Louise Farr passed away Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Mathieson, 301 3rd street northeast, of shakling palsy, from which she had suffered for the past three years. Mrs. Farr was born in Uniontown, Pennsylvania, in the month of July 1833, where she spent her early girlhood. In 1852 she married William P. Farr and moved to Elgin, Minn. Her husband died 30 years later.

The deceased is survived by a son, residing in Winona, and a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Mathieson of this city, with whom she had been making her home, also a sister and two brothers, who are between 70 and 80 years of age.

The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and the remains were shipped at 3 o'clock this morning to Elgin, Minn., where interment will take place.

Hermer LeBlanc, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Leblanc of this city, died at his home on Broadway at 11:30 Sunday morning of typhoid pneumonia. The funeral was held Monday morning from the French Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Lamotte officiating, and interment was in Calvary cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Branchard of White Earth attended the funeral Thursday of the late David Moran, who was killed in a railroad accident.

Santa Claus as usual visited St. Otto's Orphanage. Enough contributions were received by John Wetzel, who had the matter in charge to give the 108 children a fine turkey and chicken dinner and each a package of fruit and goodies. The little folks certainly appreciated it.

IMPORTANT TO READERS

Subscriptions to Papers Will Not Be Allowed to Get Largely in Arrears

The following is a ruling of the postoffice department, just made, and every subscriber is requested to read it:

The following provisions are published in the United States Official Postal Guide for December, 1907: "A reasonable time will be allowed publishers to secure renewals of subscriptions, but unless subscriptions are really renewed after the term for which they are paid, within the following periods:

Dailies within three months, Tri-weeklies within six months, Semi-weeklies within nine months, Weeklies within one year, Semi-monthlies within three months, Monthlies within four months, Tri-monthlies within six months, Quarters within six months, they shall not be counted in the legitimate list of subscribers, and copies mailed on account thereof shall not be accepted for mailing at the second-class postage rate of one cent a pound, but may be mailed at the transient second-class postage rate of one cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof prepaid by stamps affixed. The right of a publisher to extend credit for subscriptions to his publications is not denied or questioned but his compliance or non-compliance with this regulation will be taken into consideration in determining whether the publication is entitled to transmission at the second-class postage rate."

ERICK ECKMAN IN GAOL

Erick Eckman, who was sent to the state prison at Stillwater from this county in September, 1896, for life for the murder of Dan Kiof of Radall, has been declared insane and taken to the hospital at Rochester. Eckman is 71 years of age.

The murder arose over an altercation near the home of Abraham Johnson, over some land matter. The men had been friendly, Eckman shot Kiof, killing him instantly. The late J. E. Rhodes was prosecutor and the late E. S. Smith for defendant.

Kiof was the first member of the local Woodman camp to die.

A special term of district court is in session today.

The Misses Hattie, Albis, Rose and Edith Richard, who are attending a girls' academy in Crookston, are home for their vacation.

Ernest Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Simmons of this city, is seriously ill in Spokane, Washington, with an attack of diphtheria.

Leon Bolejoli has been granted a pension by the state, for service during the time of the Indian troubles in 1862 and also receives quite a sum as back pension.

Rev. C. A. Billig and Mrs. Billig were recipients of fine presents from the congregation. The popular pastor received a fur-lined overcoat and his worthy helpmate a set of silver knives and forks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maymond entertained their children and families at a 6 o'clock Christmas dinner. Present were G. C. Maymond, C. E. Maymond, Elias F. Brown, and their families and Mrs. Anna M. Dow.

About twenty couples were entertained at the Beckman hotel by Col. S. E. Snow at an informal dance. The party started dancing at 9 o'clock and wound up at 12. A very pleasant time was had. The party was a sort of Christmas gathering.

Mrs. John Young of Bruno, Sask., Canada, arrived in this city the first of the week, called here by the death of her niece, Miss Vina Aubin. Her husband was called to Eau Claire, Wis., by the serious illness of his father, who was on the point of death.

The Bijou theatre, under the new management of Gay & Mertz, gave a grand matinee at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, which was very good and well attended. In the evening another performance was put on, which was equally good. The moving pictures with the exception of a couple rolls, were some of the best that have been shown here for some time, and the entire performance came up to the expectations of the theatre goers.

The remains of the late John Bolster, who died in Pomona, Cal., September 28, arrived in this city Tuesday morning, accompanied by the family and Mat Bolster, a brother of the deceased, who had gone there in October. The remains were taken to Agram yesterday, and the funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of a brother, Frank Bolster, and then from the Catholic church. Burial will be in the Agram Catholic cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Tony Feuger of this city left yesterday to attend the funeral.

We wish to thank customers old and new for their very liberal patronage during the Christmas season, an expression of confidence in our statements and goods which is very gratifying. Our business was larger than ever, and we hope every customer was satisfied.

Trusting for a continuance of your good will and promising as always, to merit it by offering goods at the lowest prices consistent with quality, and wishing you all a fortunate and prosperous New Year, I am,

Yours truly,
Spirits J. Vasily.

BISHOP TROBEC CONFERS SUBDEACONSHIP.

At St. John's University on Saturday St. Rev. Bishop James Trobec conferred subdeaconships on the following students of the theological course:

Vincent Herback, for the diocese of Green Bay.
William Klinkhammer, for the diocese of Duluth.
Elias Lemire, for the diocese of Duluth.
John Wilkes, for the diocese of St. Cloud.
David Yrenser, O. S. B., for the St. John's Abbey.

The following is related of the late Richard Mansfield when he appeared in the role of Faust in a Minneapolis theatre: A number of newspapers had saved their money to attend the play, and the night of the performance found them in their accustomed places in the gallery. When that part of the play came where Faust goes down to the infernal regions the trap, into which Faust goes, was too small for Mr. Mansfield and therefore his head stuck out. One of the newsmen, seeing Faust's predicament, exclaimed, "Hullo Gee! Hell is so full it won't hold him!"

Mrs. B. W. Lakin is visiting relatives here.

The Bon Ton club will dance tonight at Elks hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bahr and Miss Ellen Stillwell of Detroit are visiting here.

If you wish to succeed in life, you must be prepared. Little Falls Business College.

M. McNulty and daughters, Olive, Mabel and Florence, of St. Paul, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Hamm.

The Elks as usual, distributed provisions to poor families on Christmas day in this city and Hoyakton.

PIERZ

Dec. 26.—We hope you had a Merry Christmas and we wish you a Happy New Year.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brummer, Jr., of the village of Pierz, Tuesday of last week, a daughter.

Wm. Anderson of Vineland, Mille Lacs county, was a business caller at Pierz last Friday and Saturday. He says that Vineland is going to be one of the best places on the lake. There are many wealthy parties, that own land in and near the place, who are working to make it one of the best summer resorts in the near future.

He says steps are being taken to improve the Rum river that flows out of Mille Lacs lake at Vineland, so that boats can be run to Onamia. That would give Vineland direct communication with every place around the lake and also with the railroad station at Onamia.

Geo. Kiewel passed through Pierz last Friday on his way to Onamia.

Mrs. John Newman went to Madison, Wis., about two months ago. One of her sisters, Mrs. Stelmets, died there and Mrs. Newman was called. She is now visiting with another sister, Mrs. John Simon.

The Pierz creamery is the only one that is running at present in this part of the country and will run all winter. The other creameries in our neighborhood have all shut down we are informed.

The schools in district No. 14 in the village of Pierz were closed last week until after the holidays.

Louis Foucort and H. Schneppenheim have returned from Sullivan lake, where they went about two weeks ago to fish. They had good success and went to the lake again yesterday.

Harry A. Smart of the St. Thomas college of St. Paul, came up to Little Falls last week to visit his father, James Smart, miller in the Gravel Milling company of Pierz, who went there to meet him. They also visited John M. Smart in Little Falls, a brother of Mr. Smart of Pierz, who is employed as tinsmith with Ellebecker & Goulet.

The Pierz dramatic club will play the four act drama, entitled "The Noble Outcast," at Faust's Opera House January 7th, 1908. The club has been rehearsing the play for the last two months, and as we hear from parties that know, the cast is a good one and all have their parts well studied. It will undoubtedly be the best entertainment given in Pierz.

Excellent specialties will be given that of the act. Dr. and Mrs. Kerckhoff will give a few vocal and instrumental selections. Wm. Hall of Little Falls will also give a few special selections between acts. The whole entertainment to close with a grand New Year's dance. Music will be furnished by the Pierz orchestra, Frank Boehm leader. Do not miss this entertainment.

The readers of the Herald will remember that we announced the death of John Bolster at his new home in Pomona, Cal., a few months ago and stated at the time that Mr. Bolster intended to return to Pierz and bring the corpse of her deceased husband with her for burial near his relatives that have passed away before him. Mr. Bolster arrived in Little Falls with the corpse last Tuesday. Thursday the body was taken to Frank Bolster's home in the town of Agram and Friday forenoon at 9 o'clock interment will be made in St. Joseph's cemetery at Pierz. Services will be held in the St. Joseph's Catholic church, conducted by Rev. J. G. Stiegler.

J. McKenna, formerly one of the contractors on the Soo line near Pierz, came down from the lumber camp to spend the holidays in Pierz. John Hoppe left for Sullivan lake last Thursday. He will spend a week or two there fishing and trapping.

SOME OF THE LID LAWS

Statutes Which Would Be Painfully Interesting If Enforced

St. Paul believes that it is under a lid, but if lid means enforcement of all the laws on the statute book the lid that is on St. Paul is only a little lid and full of holes at that. If the St. Paul Christian Endeavor Union acts on the suggestion made at a recent meeting and undertakes to have all the laws enforced, there will be surprises ahead for many people who have lived contentedly for years without knowing that they were doing things which their representatives said should not be done, and have not been doing things which their representatives decreed should be done, says the Pioneer Press. The statutes are full of provisions either not enforced at all or only partly enforced.

Interest at present centers mainly on the Sunday laws. The Sunday law is in section 4981 of the code. It reads:

"All hunting, shooting, fishing, playing, horse racing, gaming and other public sports, exercises and shows; all noises disturbing the peace of the day; all trades, manufacturers and mechanical employments except works of necessity performed in an orderly manner so as not to interfere with the repose and religious liberty of the community; all public selling and offering for sale of property, and all other labor except works of necessity and charity are prohibited on the Sabbath day: Provided, that meals too be served upon the premises or elsewhere by caterers, prepared tobacco in places other than where intoxicating liquors are kept for sale, fruits, confectionery, newspapers, drugs, medicines and surgical appliances may be sold in a quiet and orderly manner. In works of necessity or charity is included whatever is needed during the day for good order, health or comfort of the community; but keeping open a barber shop or shaving and hair cutting shall not be deemed works of necessity or charity, and nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the selling of uncooked meats, groceries, clothing, boots or shoes.

An incidental feature of the law is that tobacco may be sold on Sunday, but the list of exemptions from the lid says nothing about soft water, unless soda water is classed as confectionery.

The chapter of the code which has attracted most attention in connection with the recent lid agitation is that relating to the liquor traffic. It is in this chapter that contains the section which has made the lid effective in this state through the now famous St. Cloud decision, which has made the attorney general a bogie man to municipal officers.

The section preceding the one that bites, makes it the duty of every sheriff, constable, marshal, and policeman, to arrest summarily any person found violating any provision of the chapter. It is made the duty of the county attorney to prosecute the cases arising in his county. The duty of the mayor is to make complaint of violations, and the chief of police and all policemen are ordered to enforce the state law. "Anything in the ordinances or by-laws of such municipality to the contrary notwithstanding."

The neglect section reads: "Section 1663—Any county commissioner, member of a municipal council, sheriff or other officer who willfully refuses or neglects to perform any official duty imposed by this chapter, shall be guilty of malfeasance in office and shall be removed therefrom and be disqualified from holding the same for and during the term for which he was elected or appointed, and shall forfeit not less than $100 nor more than $500, which amount may be recovered in any action against him personally or on his official bond."

The chapter that deals with the sale of intoxicating liquors, in addition to prescribing the persons to whom the sale is prohibited, prescribes certain times, as Sunday, election day, and other days after 11 o'clock. In connection with the list of people who must not be served in a public drinking house it is interesting to notice that all students or pupils in any educational institution must not be sold liquor. This seems to mean that if a person is a student, even though he is not a minor, he can not legally drink in a saloon.

When a man reaches his majority he comes out from under the operation of more laws forbidding certain actions, than he at the time realizes. Minors cannot play pool, billiards, nor cards in saloon or connecting room, nor in any other place where any drinks, other than water, are disposed of. This was put in the books in 1901.

If he is a pupil he must not smoke, and of course he must not drink. Minors are not allowed in "dance houses," nor can they buy firearms nor be presented with same.

The regulations against gambling are very strict in the state laws. In section 4964 gambling with cards and dice is prohibited. This also includes "any gambling device whatever." Section 1647 says that slot machines and dice are not allowed in public drinking places. An interpretation of this would be that no barkeeper and customer can throw the bones for drinks or cigars. Betting on prize fights is specifically prohibited. Prize fights in themselves are also prohibited, and anyone who aids them, even though it is the intention to hold them in another state, is liable to punishment.

The sections against children under eighteen using tobacco and those prohibiting the employment of children under fourteen, or under sixteen without a permit, are interesting in their bearing on the schools and welfare of the future citizens.

Not all of these laws are violated in their entirety, although nearly every one knows that thistles do flourish and that barcock is not difficult to find.

A summary of some laws interesting to those who desire to know more about the provisions of the state code follows:

Sec. 4968—Keepers of houses of ill-fame are guilty of felony and the owner of gross misdemeanor.

Sec. 4937—No minors are allowed to play pool or billiards in a room where cigars, tobacco or drinks other than water are disposed of.

Sec. 4938—All persons under eighteen shall not smoke or use tobacco on the streets or public places, nor pupils under twenty-one.

Sec. 4964—Gambling with cards or dice is prohibited.

Sec. 4981—Prohibited on Sunday, all hunting, shooting, fishing, playing, horse racing, gaming and other public sports, exercises and shows except meals, prepared tobacco, fruit, confectionery, newspapers, drugs, medicines, surgical appliances.

Sec. 5163—Misdemeanor to carry animals in crates or in such a manner that they cannot both lie and stand, or which have feet tied.

Sec. 2875—No one shall permit Russian thistles at all wild mustard, wild oats, cocklebur, burdock or tumble mustard to go to seed, any Canadian thistle to go to seed, etc.

Sec. 1582—Sale of liquor forbidden after 11 o'clock.

Sec. 4986—Driving faster than a walk prohibited on bridges where signs against such action are exhibited.

Sec. 4996—Firearms are not to be given or sold to minors.

Sec. 1829—No liquor licenses issued to one within a year has knowingly violated regulations of the traffic; or in regard to gambling houses.

Sec. 6020—Betting on stakeholding on prize fights prohibited.

Sec. 1547—No slot machine nor gambling with money allowed in room where drinks are sold, nor in any connecting room.

Sec. 6020—Every one who takes part in or aids in any way a prize fight or sparring match is guilty of misdemeanor, whether match is held in this state or not.

Sec. 1684—Sale of liquor illegal to any pupil or student of an educational institution.

BREAKS HIS RIGHT ARM.

LONG Prairie Democrat, Jas. Fimon of Clarissa, brother of Frank Fimon of this place, is certainly having his share of bad luck. Only a few weeks ago he had to have his right hand amputated on account of a cancerous growth and he was just getting nicely over this when on Tuesday of this week he had the misfortune to slip and fall and break his arm just above the elbow. The accident happened while he was leading some cattle to water. The place where he waters the cattle is at the foot of a small hill and he was going down this when he slipped and fell on his right arm with the above stated result. Mr. Fimon's many friends will sympathize with him in his misfortune.

With few exceptions, practically every grade in the public schools of this city either gave or took part in a Christmas program last Friday afternoon, and in every case the program was well given, showing that the teachers and pupils had carefully prepared for them. Most of the programs consisted of Christmas songs and selections, but in a few cases plays were given. The Fifth grade of the Central building gave a play entitled, "The Little Red Rover," the beginning and advanced first grades of the Hawthorne building a Mother Goose play, the second grade of the Hawthorne a play entitled, "Christmas in Other Lands," the advanced first grade of the Lincoln building a Fairy play, and the third grade of the Lincoln building another Mother Goose play, which were a credit to the schools.

A large number of parents and friends of the school children attended the exercises of the different rooms.

According to a country editor in a neighboring state the school authorities of a certain town took it into their heads lately that they would have the children's eye-sight examined by an oculist. This was done and the parents of three children whose eyes were found to be in any way affected were communicated with. Accordingly the head master wrote to the father of Willie Thompson: "Dear Sir: I beg to inform you that your son William shows signs of astigmatism which ought to be attended to at once. Yours faithfully, Willie's father instead of taking Willie to some Diamond Sign jeweler, replied: "Dear Sir: I don't quite understand what it is Willie has been up to now but I have walloped him tonight and you can do it tomorrow morning. Yours faithfully, L. T."
