IT WAS OVERWHELMING

People Endorse Moeglein and Kiewel by Large Majorities

The election Tuesday resulted in the triumphant re-election of Mayor Geo. F. Moeglein and Alderman at Large Geo. M. Kiewel by majorities among the largest ever given candidates in this city. The endorsement was so decisive it cannot be questioned and it is gratifying that a campaign of misrepresentation and abuse has so signally failed. Mayor Moeglein carried every precinct but one—the Third ward—losing that by a small majority. Alderman Kiewel carried every precinct in the city. His majority is 294, and the mayor's plurality is 242, and majority over all 208.

Conrad Robel won a hard fight in the First ward, defeating Alderman Enke by 15. We trust it will be some time before a man's youth is again urged as a disqualification for office. Con will serve his ward well.

In the Third ward John Wilczek put up a winning campaign and landed 89 ahead. He will be a loyal worker for the West side and the city.

City Clerk Cary, Assessor Signor, Constable Ferrell, and Nick Elvig for alderman second ward, had no opposition.

The county commissioners meet next Monday.

Ole Kjelshus was under the weather for a few days.

Earl, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gordon, is ill with typhoid fever.

The "first gun of the fall campaign," must have shot backwards.

The heading mill at Bowls was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. No insurance. Loss, $2300.

The unfair attack on Alderman Germain, who was not a candidate, didn't help the Transcript's candidates. On the contrary.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kopacz are back from a visit to Chicago, Milwaukee and Fond du Lac. Mrs. Kopacz's brother, formerly of this city, is foreman of railroad shops at Fond du Lac.

John Sheedy, son of Denis Sheedy of Swan River, had a leg amputated below the knee at St. Gabriel's hospital Wednesday. Some months ago John injured the member in jumping from a load of hay, near St. Joseph's. He visited Rochester in an effort to save the leg, but the trips were of no benefit and it was necessary to avoid blood poisoning to amputate the leg.

A school teacher, says the Saturday Evening Post, after spending forty-five strenuous moments explaining the mysteries of physiology to the primary class, sounded their intelligent attention by asking the definition of "vertebrae." A small and anxious boy on the rear seat arose and delivered the following: "The vertebrae is a long, wavy bone. My head sets on one end of it and I sit on the other."

The Transcript is a poor loser. The result of the election was such a stunning blow that no wonder it is rattled. To say as it does, that the people of Little Falls are in the grasp of liquor and beer interests, is false. The Transcript is getting away from the facts. The campaign started in the plan of a few schemers to win a victory which would be called partisan, the "opening gun" for the fall campaign. When they learned that the great mass of republicans would not stand for any such foolishness, then Fuller and company tried to take advantage of a sentiment they thought existed, and work a law enforcement and morality high jinks issue on the people. The issue was not a fair one. The great majority of Moeglein's supporters have no material interest whatever in the liquor question. They are just as law abiding and as much in favor of law enforcement as anybody else. But they could not stomach the hypocrisy and false pretenses of Fuller and company, and rightly assumed that nothing good could be expected from pseudo-reformers, self-appointed guardians of the city's honor. That helps to explain the big majorities. The unfair and unjust attacks of the Transcript upon Moeglein and Kiewel; the insinuation that the word of Von Domarus was no good, because of previous business affiliations; the malicious assaults on Germain, who was not a candidate, and on Robel—the dragging of an unfortunate man from his grave—all these made the people anxious to smash a Fuller head wherever they saw it.

The supporters of George Moeglein and Geo. M. Kiewel believe in a larger Little Falls, want to see it progress in everything that makes a better city. They will stand by and encourage Mayor Moeglein in every effort to that end. They love their city just as much as anyone else does. No one has a monopoly of civic patriotism. The people know exactly what they want, and to assert that that aversion has led them to do wrong, is a slander. The whole truth is that they would not stand for the schemes of a few take reformers.

HAVING FIRE DRILLS

One Drill a Week to be Had at the City Schools

Believing that there can not be any too much caution exercised in preparing the children of the public schools in this city for the emergency of fire, Supt. H. E. White has made plans to have a fire drill at least once each week during the remainder of the term. One of these fire drills was held Tuesday at the Central building and the time taken for all the grades and the high school to leave the building was lengthened to two minutes so as to avoid any congestion in the halls, which after all is the most to be feared. A fire drill was given last Friday morning at the Hawthorne, and as only the south door is used at other times of the day, no charge is made for the fire drills, and the children go out the same as for recess in order to avoid any confusion. The north door, however, is always kept unlocked and free, the janitor opening the door each morning and seeing that it is free from ice or any other obstacle. At the Columbia and the Lincoln building all the doors are in use and everything is safe.

T. F. MURPHY ADDRESSES SCHOOL

T. F. Murphy, member of the firm of Eich & Murphy, implement dealer, addressed the students of the high school Tuesday morning on a subject of much interest to the high school, especially to the seniors who will be leaving school life soon and get into the business activities of the cities. He took as his subject, "The young business man and young business woman," and spoke in a very comprehensive way on what was required to succeed in business life, stating that character, honesty, truthfulness, push and stamina were the requisites. Mr. Murphy stated that the character foundation was obtained by each student in the school, and that therefore the student could not afford to neglect his studies. He compared the successful with the unsuccessful young man, and stated that the first named was the one who gave the best of his time in his employer's interest—made his employer's business his business—was not afraid to give too much of his time, and did not ask as to his wages after the first month's work. "The first thing the employer wants of the young business man or woman is whether he or she is prepared to work," said Mr. Murphy, "and this they must be ready to answer right else they will be failures." He especially emphasized that the young business man or woman must have sufficient will power to say "No" when their conscience told them that that was the answer they should give. The address was well given and will undoubtedly prove of much good to the young men and women who are completing their courses of studies at the local high school.

The attempt to create a police issue at the end of the campaign fell flat.

Have you attended to that Herald subscription account of yours? Do it now.

Can Robel make a winning fight against big odds. The city will never regret his election.

Mayor Moeglein has a right to feel satisfied. A more splendid endorsement could hardly be desired.

Miss Maude Adams of Ft. Ripley visited her father, Joseph Adams, who is seriously ill at the local hospital, Tuesday.

Andrew Swanberg, formerly of this city, was re-elected assessor at Cass Lake on the Citizens ticket, getting 111 majority.

The trimmers of the Sand Sisters' millinery and friends were entertained at a St. Patrick's day luncheon given by the Misses Sand at their millinery Tuesday afternoon.

Henry Peterson, recorder for the local A. O. U. W. lodge, received a draft in the sum of $2,000 Thursday morning from the Grand lodge of A. O. U. W. for the widow of the late Sven Kirkobon of this city, who died last February 7th.

Aldermen Robel and Wilczek will represent, for the first time in the city's history, a very important element in the city's population. Both are good American citizens of Polish descent, and this recognition ought to be gratifying to all similarly circumstanced.

The Epworth league of the M. E. church was entertained Tuesday evening by the Misses Edith Enke, Mae Graham and Etta Dotson at a fire St. Patrick's day party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Enke on First street southeast. There was a very large attendance, and the evening was very pleasantly passed with games and social talk, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Guests to the number of thirty-five, including Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gavin, Mr. and Mrs. D. Hallman and F. D. Dotson of Minneapolis, were present at the St. Patrick's day party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rowe, 303 First street northwest, in honor of his 47th birthday anniversary. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cat flowers, "Irish" figs and shamrocks, and the music and dancing was played until midnight, when an excellent supper was served.

WILLIAM NELSON, INSANE, LOCATED.

News has been received here that William Nelson, who was sent to the Fergus Falls insane asylum for the last time on September 30, 1905, having been examined and found to be violently insane, and who later escaped from the institution, has been located just north of Freeport, Stearns county, where he has been terrorizing the children attending school in district number 117 of that county during the past two or three months. Since leaving the institution at Fergus Falls this is the first intimation received of the man's whereabouts. He will be taken back to the Fergus Falls insane asylum.

ARE PREPARING TO RECLAIM MORE DEAD-HEADS.

Work will be started within a few days in the construction of several flat boats to be used by the Brown-Bart Logging company this summer in pulling up dead heads from the Mississippi between the Pine Tree Lumber company mills and the sorting works about two miles further up the river. There is estimated to be in the neighborhood of two million feet of logs in that part of the river. The Brown-Bart Logging company will start the work of raising dead-heads as soon as the ice leaves the river.

BREAKS A LEG.

St. Cloud Times: Mrs. Morton of Detroit, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Eva Gans, in this city, let for her home a few days ago and stopped en route in Staples for a short visit with friends. While in that city Mrs. Morton had the misfortune to fall and break a leg. Miss Anna Gans of this city, a sister, left yesterday for Staples to be with her sister.

New telephone, residence E. Raclne, 44-5.

Joe. Nahan of Sank Rapids was in the city.

Mrs. Wm. Fuller is visiting in the Twin Cities.

And the smoke went up the chimney just the same.

Miss Lucy Warner of St. Cloud is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Brown.

District Deputy J. H. Guerin of the Elks paid an official visit to William Raclne last evening.

Mayor Moeglein has ordered that no one under 18 years of age be permitted to play nickle in the slot machines, dice game, etc. A good order.

H. Phillips, a noted St. Paul baritone, will give a concert next Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. Miss Phillips will assist.

Miss Ella Eugenia Kindred, daughter of Chas. F. Kindred, of Philadelphia, formerly of Brainerd, was recently married to Elisha D. Oakford.

Credit is due to a large number of republicans in this city who did not let partisanship control them, and who refused to be led by a few schemers.

Mrs. Joseph O'tomba of Buckman town, who underwent an operation at the local hospital about three weeks ago, left the hospital Thursday noon, having sufficiently recovered to return home.

The Sank Rapids Sentinel-Free Press says a DeLucy Wood is writing a book entitled "Thirty Years of Journalistic Bunting on the Frontier." It should be interesting.

The band was out Wednesday evening serenading Mayor Moeglein, Con Robel, Geo. Kiewel and John Wilczek, who were the successful candidates at the election Tuesday. A short speech was made by each.

INGERSOLL STILL HANGS ON TO POSTOFFICE.

Postmaster General Meyer, who has taken the matter of the changes in the post offices of Princeton and Brainerd, suggested by Congressman J. Adam Bide and C. A. Lindberg, will not be in a hurry to recommend the changes, according to the Washington correspondent of the Minneapolis Journal. Lemuel Brigg was recommended to succeed William Cordner, and A. H. Opsal to succeed N. H. Ingersoll. As the present incumbents have good records and it has been the custom with the postoffice department to keep such in office, the postmaster general does not care to take hasty steps in the matter.

Wanted—Guardians of the home Apply at Transcript office. Old ones have "quit de job."

Dr. S. R. Fortier has moved his office to the rooms formerly occupied by Dr. F. H. Mero, and is now ready for all kinds of dental work.

Wolf bounties have been paid to T. L. Randall, Scandia Valley; Edward Pelkey, Little Falls town, (2); Ang. Janorochka, Granite.

Rev. Father Butala of Birch Lake visited here Wednesday enroute home from Randall, where he held services for the late Nicholas Ehr.

Alderman Kiewel is certainly pretty well endorsed by his fellow citizens. It is the best possible reply to the unjust attacks made on him.

The lots north of the Farrow livery, corner Second street and First avenue northeast, owned by Wm. J. Long of Chicago for about forty years, have been transferred by Mr. Long to his son, Jacob, of Chicago. The lots are in the ravine.

DIED

Mrs. Rosalie Cherrier Robert, who died at her home at St. Peter, Minn., March 12th, aged 85 years, 4 months and 29 days, was a sister of Timothy Cherrier of Little Falls. Mrs. Robert was born at Prairie du Chien, Wis., Oct. 15, 1822, says the St. Peter Free Press. Her father, Oliver, was a soldier at Ft. Crawford, and her mother was the daughter of Colonel Courtis of St. Louis, who fought on the side of the Colonies in the Revolutionary war. Mr. and Mrs. Robert were married in 1840 and moved to St. Paul in 1844. She was among the best known pioneer women of Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Robert occupied the first house in what is now Anoka. Two sons served in the Union army. For many years the deceased had been living with her son in St. Peter, her husband having died in 1884. She leaves five children, 28 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

After an illness of several months, Nicholas Ehr of Randall, aged 85 years, passed away at his home Sunday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, of Hodgkins disease of the glands.

Mr. Ehr was born in Portage, Wis., but came to Randall many years ago, since which time he has been a prominent resident of that village, both socially and in business. For four years up to last December, when he resigned on account of ill health, Mr. Ehr was depot agent for the N. P. at that point, and conducted a store in connection. He was also telegraph operator for two years previous to taking up the duties of depot agent.

The deceased is survived by a wife and two small children, who have the sympathy of the community in their great bereavement.

The funeral was held Wednesday from the St. James Catholic church at Randall, Rev. Father Butala officiating, and inurnment was in Randall.

The two-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Blechinger of Pike Creek died Monday, and the funeral was held from the German Catholic church, inurnment taking place in the Catholic cemetery.

SCHMOLKE SECURING SETTLERS.

John Schmolke, of Buckman, has within the past few weeks been instrumental in securing a number of new settlers for this portion of the county, says the Royalton Banner. He informs us that the quality of the soil in this vicinity is superior to that of Iowa and the price asked for it is much less. Landseekers cannot help buying after they have seen the lands of southern Morrison county as they possess all the qualities that have done so much to make Iowa and Illinois famous.
Mr. Schmolke is a great believer in publicity and annually spends a great deal of money in advertising. He is doing a great work in settling the eastern portion of the county with thrifty farmers who will add materially to the wealth of the community. Let the good work go on.

The team of the F. W. Blake store became frightened Tuesday morning, while it was tied in front of the store, by the automobile of the Little Falls Pambing & Cycle company, as the latter was run past the place, and started to run away. The team had not proceeded very far, however, before the wagon struck a telephone post, stopping the team and breaking the reach and injuring other parts of the wagon slightly. The horses escaped injury.

BRAINERD TO BUY WATERWORKS SYSTEM.

At a regular meeting of the Brainerd city council last Monday evening it was unanimously voted to submit to the electors of the city the question of authorizing the city council to issue bonds on the city to the amount of $150,000 for the purchasing or acquiring of the present waterworks system now in existence in that place and improving it or to construct water works, and to give the city the power to operate the water works. The city at present operates its own electric plant, but does not own the water power to operate it with. The electors of Brainerd will vote on the question on April 28, 1908.
