By order of Amelia and Nena Anderson, Nellie Larson and Mabel and Inez Halverson; members of the club.

The attack made on the Rail Prairie correspondent in the last week's issue, by Margetta Hamilton was a sad reflection on the dictator. She claimed the report that she resigned from the Woodland Circle club was a false one.

There was a meeting of said club called for April 17, 1908, and all members were notified to meet. Miss Hamilton did not attend as she declared before a member of said club the evening previous, that she did not care or want to belong to said club any longer. So let it be called a false report, pipe dream or whatever they choose. Several members of the Woodland Circle club, claim Miss Hamilton resigned in October 1906. As for those "pipe-dreams" she refers to, they must have originated with herself, as I am sure the Rail Prairie correspondent has had none of them, so could not possibly have published any of them as local news.

Respectively,
Rail Prairie Correspondent.

Further comment on the above matter will have to be considered closed as far as this paper is concerned. Discussions of this kind do not tend to make for "good" in any community.—Ed.
