LITTLE FALLS, MORRISON COUNTY, MINNESOTA.

FRIDAY, AUG. 28, 1908.

FILED FOR PRIMARIES SCHOOL STARTS SEPT. 7

Few Fights for Nomination --Tickets are Nearly Filled

The time for filing on the primary ticket to be voted on in this county closed Wednesday at midnight. The democrats have filed for all offices, except court commissioner and the legislature. The republicans failed to file a candidate for county surveyor.

The only opposition in the primaries will be on the republican ticket. F. W. Lyon and E. P. Adams will contest for the nomination for county attorney, and Andrew Herum of Randall will try to oust Ole Wahl from running for re-election as commissioner in the First district. This of course, is outside of the republican legislative fight for which five have filed, the contestants being Chas. Bouck and I. W. Bouck of Royaltown, Milo Young of Swan River, and L. Brown and E. A. Kling of Little Falls.

The names of those who have filed for county offices are as follows: County Auditor—William A. Butler—democrat. Victor Schlern—republican. County Treasurer—S. P. Casey—democrat. Frank Renick—republican. Register of Deeds—Chas. E. Vasaly—democrat. Andrew Swedback—republican. County Sheriff—Frank Armstrong—democrat. Frank Long—republican. County Attorney—Don M. Cameron—democrat. F. W. Lyon—republican. E. P. Adams—republican. Judge of Probate—E. F. Shaw—democrat. Geo. Gerritz—republican. County Surveyor Andrew J. Fenn—democrat. Court Commissioner—Lud Gaudet—republican. Supt. of Schools—Aug. C. Brandt—democrat. M. E. Barnes—republican. Coroner—Edward Seguin—democrat. Otis J. Brown—democrat. County Commissioners—1st Dist., Charles Sprandel—democrat. 1st Dist., O. L. Wahl—republican. 1st Dist., A. Herum—republican. 2nd Dist., Andrew Johnson—democrat. 2nd Dist., Delphie Rochelean—republican. 2nd Dist., Peter Virmig—democrat. 3rd Dist., Henry Wullner—republican.

LITTLE FALLS VS. RANDALL. Manager Fraser has made arrangements with the Randall baseball team for a game on the local diamond, and the game will be played next Saturday at the usual time. Although a small place, Randall has a fine little team. With Lattimer at the slab, the young southpaw who has been making quite a reputation as a twirler, the Randallites expect to make a very good showing against the Little Falls team. So far they have defeated all teams they have played with, which includes two games with the Record Breakers and a game with the Royaltown baseball team. In the game with the latter team Lattimer struck out twenty players, and allowed but three scattered hits.

Newman probably will do the twirling for the local team, and the rest of the line-up will be much the same as usual. A good game is expected.

WEST HOTEL CHANGES HANDS. A deal was completed Wednesday afternoon by which G. H. Ferguson has sold to J. L. Stoltz of Columbus, Ohio, his interests in the West hotel, and the latter has taken full charge. Mr. Ferguson has left for Bay City, Mich., where he will make his future home.

CLOCK IS ARRESTED. C. H. Clock, the stranger who has made himself well known in this city, and surrounding counties by his failure to return hired livery teams and to pay hotel bills, has been placed under arrest at Thief River Falls for his failure to return a livery team he hired at Detroit, Minn.

1908 is not 1894, in more ways than one. Shall the people rule? Most certainly, but Fuller & Co. are not the people.

G. E. Estey of Buckman suffered a severe stroke of paralysis Tuesday morning, which left his entire right side paralyzed.

The great issue the Transcript is nursing is as great a fake as Fuller himself, and will end in as big a farce as the issue Fuller sprung in the city campaign.

The American Amusement & Lecture Co. will give a moving picture show and illustrated lecture at the local opera house this evening. Admission, adults 25c, children 10c.

Frank T. White of Elk River, brother of H. E. White of this city, has filed for the republican nomination for representative of his district, which office he holds at the present time.

The reason it took so much struggling, so many ambassadors, so much promising, and so much unmitigated preparation, to get lambs to fill up the republican ticket, was because the wise ones know what it means to tackle the democratic ticket, and were naturally reluctant. They didn't like the Fuller brand, either.

Not Many Changes in the Teaching Corps for 1908-09 Term

The local public schools will open September 7th, and it is expected that the first day's attendance will eclipse that of last year, as the state fair will be over before this date, and those who attend the fair will have returned. The school buildings have been thoroughly renovated, and all will be in readiness to commence the school year. There will be only a short session the opening morning for the pupils, in which classes will be arranged and other preliminaries to the regular school work made. All pupils are requested to commence school the opening day. In the afternoon a meeting of the teachers will be held in the high school.

Following is the teaching corps for the school year of Little Falls public schools:

Plenty entertainment, fine exhibits, good speakers, a balloon that will balloon, at the big street fair at Little Falls Sept. 16, 17, 18.

Miss Lena Young of Royaltown was taken to St. Gabriel's hospital Monday, suffering with typhoid fever. She is doing nicely.

You bet the trio like to visit Royaltown. There are some awful good republicans down there who won't stand for Fuller or anybody who bears his brand.

The democratic ticket is one of the strongest ever put in the field. They will meet any issue presented, and they are going to present some that will be very interesting.

The workmen who have been repairing the high school building, both inside and out, during the past several weeks, expect to finish the interior decoration work this week, which puts this building in excellent shape. The double decked fire escapes have also arrived, and will be put up next week.

Fuller announced that he was for Young and I. W. Bouck. That was when they had no opposition. But he has shut up like a clam since others got into the field. Yet so far as he can, it is pretty well known that he and his satellites are knifing the two Little Falls candidates.

There is war, thinly disguised, among the republicans of this county. It reaches into high places and among the elements are thwarted ambitions, false friends, postoffices, tools of U. S. senators, freaks, cheap intriguers, an oily magnate who is in his way as big a faker as ever lived—a sort of Pecksniff and Chadband combined—a newspaper man who hates from his soul the hand he kisses, and a well meaning man, slow to believe in the treachery of alleged friends, but who is biding his time to kick the whole rotten outfit into oblivion. It's a good story, and will be interesting reading to the people of this county.

FATS VS. THE LEANS

The Portly Boys Accept the Base Ball Challenge of the Leans

After slumbering for many moons from the knock-out drops delivered to them in successive doses, by the fats, the leans have got next to some old lady's smelling salts, and have revived enough in nerve and spirit to again hurl a challenge at their thicker opponents.

The game will be played at the local grounds, the proceeds to go to St. Otto's orphanage. The date has not yet been set, but it will probably be in about a week or ten days. The challenges and acceptance with some remarks by the portly gentlemen follows:

A CHALLENGE.
We, the undersigned thin residents of Little Falls, do hereby challenge the fleshy ball players of the city to a game of baseball, date of game to be arranged later. All proceeds of the game to go to St. Otto's orphanage. (Signed)
H. C. Snow, ss
Ralph Nichols, 1b
F. J. Harrigan, 3b
C. W. Wullner, c
W. A. Butler, cf
Earl Wetzel, p
H. Meinung, 2b
J. F. McNally, rf
E. M. LaFond, lf
Wm. Woods, relief
M. V. Wetzel, extra relief
G. W. Massy, thirst quencher

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.
Replying to the so-called "Challenge" signed by a bunch of lean boys, will say:
We were greatly surprised, after a lapse of three years of silence to know that the aforesaid bunch had come to life. Our first impulse was to ask them to get a reputation, but the fact that they are willing to give the proceeds to so worthy an institution as the Orphanage, we are willing to once more put them to sleep. We are also glad to note they have secured a battery from the regular city team, who are playing every day and have some standing in baseball circles, thus making it possible to cut down our score; will say three per cent of what it would be, without this aid.

We except the aforesaid challenge—time and place to be agreed upon later—under the following conditions:
First—The fats will not be held responsible for any ball they bat out of the city limits.
Second—All lean rooters to wear muzzles.
Third—That after the defeat of the leans, they will not challenge the fats again, until they have gained a reputation.
Fourth—The rules of 1876 to prevail, in order that the leans will know the rules well enough to make the game interesting.

Respectfully submitted,
Peter Vasaly,
S. P. Casey,
Jack Greisch,
W. T. Tourtillette,
B. Burton,
Peter Newman,
F. E. Hall,
Dr. E. W. Kallier,
Chas. Sylvester,
W. H. Hall,
W. E. Penfield, sub.
Geo. Emdor, water carrier.

HOW BRAVE WE ARE!
We, the Leans of sporting blood, do hereby swell up like skeeters, with much noise (that is worse than our bite), and challenge the Portly Gentlemen for a game of Bowl.

With our first blat, We'll scare them so they cannot bat. Slim Wetzel's curves, His drops, his sweetest shoots, Will win the game, and fame to boot. Wise owls, Hoot! Hoot!

If the brave Lean Gentlemen will consider their proposition, and instead of offering Earl Wetzel as their slab artist, they will select a true professional, Gerald Massey suggested, and in this way be assured that they will have an equal chance against the slab artists for the Portly Gentlemen, their challenge might be considered.

After having consulted with several of the Portly Gentlemen, we are satisfied that they would not care to accept the challenge issued, with the Leans so handicapped as their "line up" indicates. Awaiting for further puffs of confidence, we will again recline, and increase our strength.

—A PORTLY.

START NEW CONCERN

Zaloudek & Medved to Open Meat Market and Commission House

A commission house and meat market will be opened up by Messrs. A. W. Zaloudek and John Medved in the two vacant store rooms in the brick building on Second street north-east formerly occupied by the Amundson bakery and the Sanitary Meat Market. The rooms are now being remodeled for the convenience of the new tenants, and everything will be put in first-class shape so that the new concern may embark in business on October 1st. Mr. Zaloudek is an experienced man in the meat and commission business, having conducted similar establishments for years in this city with much success. John Medved is an experienced butcher, having been employed during the past seven years by the Little Falls Packing Co. Both have many friends, who will wish them the success which their integrity and good-standing deserves.

It is the plan of the proprietors of this new establishment to deal in fruits and vegetables in large quantities next year.

GREEN PRAIRIE ASSESSOR'S CASE.

The case of L. F. Pray vs. Town of Green Prairie, in which M. Pray sued the town for the sum of $46, claimed to be due him as salary for his work as assessor, came up for trial before Justice Gerritz Wednesday afternoon. Pray claimed he put in 23 days in this work for the town, which, at a salary of $2 per day, made the total due him $46. When he put in a bill for his work, the town board allowed the bill in the sum of $37. This amount Pray refused, and brought suit against the town for the full amount of his bill. He was then offered judgement for $25, which he likewise refused. The contention of the defense was that the complainant, as assessor, put in more days than was necessary. The court gave complainant judgement for $34 for 17 day's work, and in the costs of the case, amounting in all to $38.60.

BURLGARS DYNAMITED SAFE OF WOODWORTH & DAVIS STORE AT PEQUOT.

The general store which is conducted by Woodworth & Davis at Pequot was entered by burglars and the safe dynamited on Monday night. Thanks to the tremendous noise of the explosion, the contents of the safe, amounting to about $200, was left intact, as the burglars lost their nerve and made a hurried get-away, taking with them but $6, which they found in the till.

As there was a number of traps about the town, it is probable that this is some of their work.

HIT HIM WITH A HOE.

The case of Stanek Kopatz vs. Mrs. Jos. Kulas for assault and battery was taken up in Justice Gerritz's court Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Kulas hit the plaintiff with a hoe, in an argument over the ownership of a patch of potatoes. The defendant had planted some tubers on the place which she had rented from plaintiff, but later moved away. She came back, however to dig the potatoes, but Mr. Kopatz objected, claiming there was four months' rent due him and then the trouble began. The matter was settled by the owner of the land paying the costs and keeping the potatoes.

Marriage licenses issued: Henry J. Richard and Lucy Bourassa, Simon Sobiech and Polly Bursy.

Mrs. Francis I. Keenan has been appointed court deputy organizer of the United Order of Foresters, for Little Falls and vicinity, by High Court State organizer L. F. Cole, who was here Tuesday.

Roosevelt to Fuller—Had already considered you fit member of Ananias club. Buckman and Lindbergh both agree to it, and I knew it was a cinch. Take the head seat.

—Yours, Teddy.

New Prague Times: W. F. Sykora and son, Raymond, left on Tuesday morning for Owatonna for a visit with his sister, Mrs. C. J. O'Brien, and other relatives. He will visit his brother, Frank, at Little Falls, Minn., before returning home. He expects to be absent about two weeks.

INSTITUTE THIS WINTER HEARING ON SEPT. 1ST

Will Probably Be Held Between Jan. 15 and Feb. 1, 1909

Secretary Murphy of the Commercial club has had some correspondence in regard to having a farmers' institute held here this winter. The institute will come, but the date is not yet settled, but will probably be in the latter part of January.

A letter in regard to the matter from Superintendent Wilson, is as follows:

St. Anthony Park, St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 28, '08.

Mr. T. F. Murphy, Little Falls, Minn.

Dear Sir:
I am in receipt of your letter of the 17th as I return from a two weeks' absence from the office. We can promise you an institute at Little Falls during the winter, and will try to make it between the dates you mention, but of this we cannot be sure until we make up the circuits for the different corps. We will do the best we can for you, and you may count on us for an institute, in any event.

Very truly yours,
—A. D. Wilson, Superintendent.

WILL BRING BAND.

St. Cloud Times: City Clerk Barney Vossberg is in receipt of a letter from the St. Joseph order at Little Falls informing him that the whole delegation will visit this city on Sept. 20th in celebration of the Catholic day ceremonies. They will bring with them the Little Falls band.

Miss Cora Signor has taken a position in the Transcript office.

Fuller & Co. will fail this fall as they failed this spring. Same reasons.

Mrs. John Koblicka of Pierz arrived at the local hospital Tuesday for medical treatment.

Harrison & Peterson are having the first floor of their new building, corner of Broadway and Wood street, south-east, laid.

J. M. Hayes of St. Mathias, Crow Wing county, has filed as Public Ownership candidate for representative in this district.

Poor Lyon! He has certainly been a faithful friend to Fuller. But his history will be like that of Staples and LaFond and others that might be mentioned.

A challenge has been issued to the St. Cloud Elks' lodge by the local anti-brothers for a baseball game to be played on the local grounds September 11.

Some of the republican candidates are very sad, and the rest are sad except when they are filling the air with blue streaks. Reason—Fuller is supporting them.

The citizens of Little Falls rebuked the campaign of hypocrisy led by Fuller last spring. A similar campaign is on for this fall, and the result will be the same.

The premium list for the street fair is practically completed. Some excellent prizes are offered in the different divisions. We expect to publish the list next week.

The Fuller brand is pretty plain. Some fellows didn't have the nerve to get into the fight themselves, and of course it doesn't matter to them what happens to the victims.

Mrs. James Love of Agram, who recently underwent an operation at the local hospital, returned home Tuesday afternoon, having sufficiently recovered to be removed from the hospital.

John Kasparek left Tuesday afternoon for Yellowstone National park, after a visit here with his brother, Val. He will visit there a few weeks, after which he will continue to his home in San Francisco.

Rev. W. H. North of East Moline, Ill., who has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Congregational church of this city, writes that he will arrive here either September 1st or 2nd.

If Fuller gets some of the right crowd in, he may get Cousin Thayer's taxes rebated again. That would please the West Side people who have been paying their taxes right along. Better subscribe for the Herald if you are one of the few not getting it. It's going to have lots of good stuff.

It will be really interesting, after things get started to go into county matters since 1894, including the various beautiful road and bridge deals engineered by Fuller's pets, also bit tax rebate deals for Fuller's relatives (in which the complacent Jacobson was on hand), and much more of the same kind. Come on, boys. We're ready.

Fuller called Buckman everything that was bad, then slobbered over him because he had the postoffice within his gift. He published things about C. A. Lindbergh which, if true, would forever condemn the congressman. But Lindbergh had something to say about postoffices. Immediately the fawning and slobbering commenced. Fuller swallowed his vomit. He retracted and disgusted everybody. The people of Morrison county will not accept such an individual as leader on any proposition. They spewed him out long ago.

On Motion of County Attorney, Gollnik Preliminary Examination Postponed

Mrs. Mathila Gollnik who is charged with the murder of her husband, appeared last Friday afternoon in Justice Gaudet's court for her preliminary hearing. County Attorney Don M. Cameron, representing the state, asked that the hearing be postponed to September 1st, thus giving time for the state to secure certain witnesses. Attorneys F. W. Lyon and Donat Trettel, for the defense, made no objection, and the case will come up for hearing at 10:00 a. m. on September 1st.

FIRST LAYER OF CRUSHED ROCK NOW LAID IN FIRST STREET PAVING.

The First street paving is progressing in a highly satisfactory manner. Already the first layer of crushed rock has been laid, and the steam-roller is rolling it down to the desired level. The grading of the intersection of First street and First avenue southeast and the forty feet south of this intersection on First street is nearly completed. The second and third layers of crushed rock has been ground out by the city crusher and hauled onto a vacant lot just west of the new Joslin building. The steam-roller has been used for the motive power of the stone crusher.

The second layer of crushed rock is being laid onto a part of First street, on which the first layer has been rolled down to the desired level.

LITTLE FALLS HOUSE CHANGES HANDS.

A deal was completed Tuesday afternoon, whereby Peter Kiewel succeeds Lawrence Stoehr as landlord of the Little Falls House. The latter came here Mary 1, 1907 to take charge of the hotel, and has met with considerable success in the operation of the establishment. He will remain in the city for the present but has made no definite plans for the future. Peter Kiewel, the new proprietor, is a thorough business man and is well known in this city and vicinity. He will doubtless do well in his new undertaking. Julius Ehman has been engaged by Mr. Kiewel to take charge of the bar, which is run in connection with the hotel.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Olson, Saturday, August 22nd, a son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lafond, Tuesday, August 25th, a son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shеды of Swan River Thursday, August 13, a son.

The poor lambs who have listened to Fuller & Co. have a sad fate ahead of 'em.

"The street fair will be a hummer this year. Come in and satisfy yourself.

"Since 1894! Well, wasn't that dear Rider sheriff for six years? Did Hank have anything to do with county expenses?

We are afraid Teddy will have to create a separate Ananias club, and install Fuller as the only member. He doesn't belong with anyone else. His kind is unique.

What were the poor Renick, unfortunate Long, and Barnes doing, all the time the awful trio were, according to the Transcript, engaged in bamboozling them!

The Kiewel company will put in a walk on Second street northeast abutting the Little Falls House property. Nick Adams has secured the contract and the work will be started at once.

Henry Lang, who has been pitching for the Breckinridge Wahpeton ball team, visited in the city this week. He was very successful this season. He left Wednesday evening for Minneapolis.

A delegation, sent by Major General Fuller and Aide-de-Camp Rider, tried to inveigle Lyman Ayer to file for surveyor. That sturdy old citizen refused to pull chestnuts out of the fire for such a gang. Besides, Andy Fenn is about as tough a proposition to tackle as there is in the county.

Motley Mercury: L. D. Brown of Little Falls, candidate for nomination as representative on the republican ticket, was in town Thursday calling on old friends and making new ones.

Mr. Brown has been in the drug business in Little Falls for a number of years and is quite well known throughout the county.

Peter H. Miller of New Pierz was in the city Thursday. He has erected a building in this new Soo town and will open up a saloon there on September 1st. He thinks that New Pierz will become a fair sized town, and a good trading point. Mr. Miller is well and favorably known in the vicinity and no doubt will do well.

A good story is told of late of a happening in a town not a thousand miles from here—but not here. It was at a time when drink emporiums were supposed to be closed. A stranger drifted in to imbibe a glass of the amber fluid, and as one of the number who were in the house was making a rather unnecessary amount of noise, the stranger asked, in a whisper, if the lid wasn't on. The barkeeper answered in the affirmative. Well, says the stranger, why don't you fire that noisy fellow out. The barkeeper: Can't do it, that's the mayor.
