OUT OF THE GINGER JAR.

The cheaper the shoes the louder the squeak.

The wife of a henpecked husband is usually set in her ways.

The man who persistently sits down is sure to become hard up.

No matter how well mother may feel she is continually on the mend.

Neither a boil nor a cabbage amounts to anything unless it comes to a head.

If young Spendthrift would settle down he might soon be able to settle up.

You can not always gauge the importance of a man by the angle at which he wears his hat.

There is quite a difference between the door-jamb and the jam that mother used to make.

"There is the wreck of time!" exclaimed Jones, as his clock felt from the second-story window.

Most anybody can retail butter, eggs and vegetables, but we have never met a man smart enough to retail a dog.

Sometimes when a woman throws a brick at an old hen in the garden, it is harder on the scenery than it is on the hen.

Some folks have rats in their garrets, some have rats in their cellars, and while not a few young ladies have good-sized rats in their hair.—From April Farm Journal.

JURY ACQUITS NELSON.

Bemidji, Minn., March 24.—"Not guilty," was the announcement made about 8:15 o'clock last night in the district court by the foreman of the jury that for nearly thirty hours had been wrestling with the Nelson murder case when the twelve men filed into court and Judge Stanton asked if they had agreed. The court ordered the accused discharged and dismissed the jury.

The verdict appears to meet public approval as the evidence against Nelson was largely circumstantial while Fuller, the man he killed, was known as a quarrelsome person, especially when drinking.

About 8:15 yesterday afternoon the jury told the court an agreement was impossible, but Judge Stanton declined to discharge them, telling them of the importance of the case and the need for a verdict of some sort. The jury retired and in the evening reported the verdict of acquittal.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

Torgor Peterson narrowly escaped a fatal accident in the local yards Wednesday afternoon, shortly after returning from the northern woods, where he has been employed during the past winter. He had just got out of one of the coaches of a passenger train and was standing in the middle of the track when the engine of the simple train backed up to hook on a couple of cars without Peterson being aware of the approaching engine. A brakeman saw the man's peril and gave the man a sudden push off the track just a few seconds before the engine switched past.

John Chounard has accepted a position as cook in the West hotel.

S. R. Snow departed yesterday for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. T. W. Clark, of St. Cloud.

Jack Gillenbeck was unable to perform his duties at the W. H. Ryan hardware store part of this week on account of illness.

Pat Cahil of Akeley, formerly of this city, sent some real shamrock from Ireland to T. J. Monahan of this city last week.

The Hennepin Paper company on Monday had a large strip of ice cut loose from the main sheet of ice near its dock and engine house just north of the Broadway bridge, so that when the breaking of the ice takes place this spring the ice will not be jammed against their dock and engine house.

Stillwater Item: James Lundy Mills, aged eighty years, of Burtrum, Todd county, and Mary Anne Donnelly, fifty years old, who kept a hotel at Afton, came here and were united in marriage by Judge A. E. Doe of the probate court.

Onamia Pioneer: Val. Herman of Holdingford married over night at this place last Tuesday. It is reported that he was looking the town over with a view to establishing a heading mill at this place. Mr. Herman is a man of large business affairs. He has two sawmills in operation in the vicinity of Wahkon and operates a heading mill at Holding, where he also has two large brick business blocks occupied by a hotel, drug store, saloon, etc. He is county commissioner from his district in Stearns county and is a live, energetic man who would add greatly to the business life of Onamia should he become interested here.

CARLETON COLLEGE CATALOG FOR 1909.

It is a pamphlet of 89 pages, giving such information concerning the college, its faculty, its buildings and its courses of study, as will be useful to prospective students and to parents who may be considering the question of what college their children shall attend.

Carleton college is located at Northfield, Minn.

The first semester of the coming year opens Sept. 15. Students should register Sept. 18 or 14.

Suited the Young Man

THE Young Fellow is the faithful follower of fashion.

He is always the first to notice a change and the first to adopt it.

Our smart Suits are accepted by Young Men as interpreting their ideas of style.

Our Spring Suits for these well young Dressers are of smart fabrics and are cut and tailored with all the style that can be worked into a suit.

It's the smaller details that put style into a Young Man's Suit, and they have received careful attention. Our prices are certainly very reasonable.

$12, 15, 18 up to 22 or $25

Mr. Young Man, if you're after smartness in a Spring Suit—here's where you can get what you're looking for. We'll be pleased to show you any day.

SHOES and OXFORDS FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

NOT just shoes, but the best possible shoes for your money that we can find. It's a pretty hard thing now-a-days to sell an up-to-date good wearing shoe for a little money unless a merchant sacrifices on his regular profits—but if you buy shoes or oxfords here this year you'll get all the wearing quality and style that can be crammed in for a dollar—we're holding the prices down to the limit and that's about as far as any merchant wants to go.

Shoes Like this
1.65, 1.75, 1.95
and $2.50

Oxfords Like This
1.65, 1.75, 1.95 and $2.50

We could buy shoes close to home that look like what we are selling for 1.65, 1.95 and 2.50 but the wearing quality won't be there—we have to get shoes away down east where we know they make just what we want to sell you at these prices—we know they are "right" that's why we go so far for them.

You'll know they're "right" too if you wear them—the proof of the pudding is in the eating. JUST TRY A PAIR this year—then we know you'll come again.
