PREPARING FOR COUNTY EXHIBITS.

The advantages of the county agricultural exhibits at the Minnesota state fair are so readily recognized by the live counties of the state that preparations are already being made for exhibits at the state fair to be held September 6th to 11th.

The activity is especially noticeable in Morrison county which carried off the first prize for the Northern district at the last state fair. During a recent meeting of the Little Falls Commercial club President M. M. Williams appointed W. H. Hall, Geo. Kiewel and T. C. Gordon as a special committee to co-operate with the Royalton Commercial club in preparing the 1909 exhibit.

ST. CLOUD DEPOT WILL BE OF PRESSED BRICK.

The new Northern Pacific depot, which is to be built in St. Cloud this summer, will be of pressed brick with granite trimmings, according to the advices received from St. Paul. The company came to the conclusion that a granite structure would cost too much and the plans and specifications on which the contractors bid called for a pressed brick building.

J. W. Ward of Sauk Centre was in the city Thursday.

Mrs. J. Tardy of Ft. Ripley was in the city several days this week with her little six-year-old daughter, who was receiving medical treatment at a local doctor's office.

St. Cloud Times: A number of people came down from Little Falls yesterday noon and together with some local people gave a farewell party to Rev. and Mrs. A. Siegenthaler who will leave Tuesday for Concordia, Mo., where Rev. Siegenthaler has accepted a congregation. The number who came down from Little Falls was thirteen, who were not daunted by the fact that yesterday was the 18th day of the month. Following are the names of the Little Falls people: Mesdames J. Kiewel, F. Kiewel and G. Kiewel, August Kuesel, L. Woods, A. Pantzke, Robert Muske, H. Hanfer, L. Mahler and R. Summer. In all twenty-eight people were present for whom dinner was served. The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Siegenthaler with a fine silver bread plate with the inscription "May 18th, 1909." In the afternoon the visiting guests visited the Normal school and in the evening supper was served. To the departing guests Rev. Siegenthaler spoke the words: "Blessed be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

ROYALTON

May 19.—Miss Batzer spent several days in Little Falls last week, the guest of Miss Cotter.
E. J. McCollum was quite ill last week, but his many friends will be glad to know that he is much improved and able to be at business part of the time.
A. C. Wilson returned from Minneapolis last Friday in his Stanley steam car.
What might have been a very serious, if not fatal, accident occurred Tuesday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foss, with two children, started from Royalton to return to their home in Morrill. When near the Platt river bridge their horses became frightened at an automobile and turning suddenly around the pole of the wagon was broken and Mrs. Foss was thrown out and quite seriously hurt. The horses dashed down Centre street, but were stopped by I. W. Bouck and Joe Miller without further damage being done.
Mrs. C. R. Rhoda went to Little Falls Thursday noon.
Mrs. Fred Cairns of Bowlus spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Street, last week.
Dr. and Mrs. Chance and son were Little Falls visitors Sunday.
The last meeting of the 500 card club was held Friday evening in Bouck's hall. Mrs. C. R. Rhoda and George Galley won head honors.

Dame Rumor has it that Rev. Thomas Allesen and Miss Theobelle Wing of St. Cloud are to be married early in June. Mr. Allesen had charge of Grace church in Royalton for several years before his ordination, since which he has been rector of a new church at Warroad, Minn. His many friends here unite in congratulations and best wishes for his and Mrs. Allesen's happiness and prosperity.

We are glad to state that Thomas MacDougall, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, is recovering from his long illness and hopes to be about soon.

Eleanor McGonagle is again reported quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schwartz were St. Cloud visitors Sunday.

Rev. H. C. Baskerville will deliver the Memorial Day sermon, Sunday morning, May 20th, at the M. E. church.

Miss Ethel Sparrow entertained the seniors of the high school at her home last Friday evening and a very enjoyable time is reported by all present.

The Women's Study club held their last meeting with Mrs. A. M. Watson Wednesday afternoon.

At the present time there are eight automobiles in this little "burgh" of less than a thousand inhabitants and several others will be here before many days. Does this warrant the howl of "hard times"?

There's danger in the air when Bill goes round the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Murphy were in Minneapolis over Sunday.

St. Agnes Guild was entertained by Freda Wilde last Saturday.

Alkisson, the railroad contractor, shipped three car loads of graders and wagons to Kansas this week.

A man from Bowlus had the misfortune to lose a part of one finger while working in a sawmill.

During the spring several families have moved away from Royalton and it was predicted by some of our conservative citizens that the town was going to "smash." However, as a matter of fact there is not a vacant house at the present time and several people are looking for places to rent.

One party was heard to say that if they could not find a house here before the first of June they would be obliged to move to Sauk Rapids.

A. C. Wilson is having a garage built in the rear of his residence.

Has the Humane society any authority to prevent spavined horses being driven on three legs, or dogs being allowed to follow an auto that is going at the rate of twenty-five miles an hour? Another question suggests itself in the connection. Why is there not some one appointed in every town to report such matters?

C. C. Rosenmeier is passing around cigars this morning. It's a girl.
Mrs. A. C. Bouck left Thursday for Eldora, Iowa, where she will visit a sister, Mrs. Davis.

I. W. Bouck is having a concrete sidewalk made in front of his residence.

Rev. John Blackhurst will deliver the baccalaureate sermon May 30th in the opera house at 8 p. m. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

PINE TREE MILLS COMMENCE RECEIVING BROWN-BURT CO. LOGS.

The logs between this city and Brainerd which were bought of the Brown-Burt Logging company of Minneapolis a couple of years ago by the Pine Tree Lumber company, are now being brought in ahead of the big drive that has been started from Brainerd. These logs, which were water-soaked, had been hauled onto the banks of the river to dry out and can now be floated. The remainder of the logs between these two places which were bought of the Minneapolis logging company will be taken up from the river-bed and floated to the local mill with as little delay as possible.
