To I have to advise that all of the above questions are answered in the negative. Although it is claimed that the meeting is not called according to law, everybody should be there next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock p. m. and cast his vote according to his own belief and knowledge.
 The farmers in Buh are all through planting corn.
 Mrs. John Endres, who was very sick the first of the week, is getting better.
 Do business men need the farmers? Can they afford to antagonize the farmer? These are questions which should be asked before you vote Tuesday.

ADDS BLOODED STOCK TO DAIRY HERD.
 L. Gregerson of Freedom is improving his stock by adding a full-blooded registered bull on his farm which he recently purchased in Wisconsin. The bull arrived Saturday. It is a high-priced animal, and is a direct descendant of the Duchess of Geneva, champion producer at the World's Fair in 1903. Mr. Gregerson is showing the right spirit in improving his stock to such a high degree. The sooner more of the blooded stock is added to the farms of this county, the quicker will be the big returns in the dairy business. The blooded stock pays for itself easily in from one to two years' time.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MAKES NEW LOAN.
 The board of education decided to apply for a twenty-year loan from the state to the amount of $15,000 at 4 per cent interest per annum, at a special meeting of that body at the German American National Bank Monday afternoon. This loan is made to take up a bond for $18,000, held by the Mason & Lewis company, which was given in 1894 in order to construct the present high school building. This bond became due this month, and $8,000 will be paid out from the treasury of the school district, together with the amount to be loaned from the state, to pay it off. The new loan will be made at 1 per cent less interest per year.
 From $62,000 the amount of indebtedness of the Independent District of Little Falls has been gradually cut down so that when the loan has been made from the state and the old bond paid the total indebtedness of the school district will be $48,000.

 Wednesday's Brainerd Dispatch: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Weyerhaeuser and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Muser, of Little Falls, came up this morning in Mr. Weyerhaeuser's automobile and went from here to Vineland. They expect to return to Little Falls. Miss Bates, who gives an eloquent entertainment at First Baptist church tonight, came to Brainerd with them.

MONUMENTS FOR OLD SOLDIERS.
 Monuments for nine veterans of the Civil war, who have been laid at rest in the local, Royaltown and Ft. Ripley cemeteries, were received from the government Monday by Harting & Son, which this firm had applied for according to the rules governing same, that each grave of a Civil war veteran be furnished with a monument to mark his last resting place, free by the U. S. government. They were applied for nearly a year ago. The monuments were set in their places Wednesday and yesterday. This makes 74 monuments that have been secured by this firm to mark the graves of soldiers.
 The monuments were for the following:
 In Oakland cemetery—
 Wm. P. Green, Co. H., 64th N. Y. infantry.
 Wm. H. Robinson, Co. F., 20th Michigan infantry.
