SWAN RIVER.

July 28.—Alfred Larsen of Bowlus was out here Sunday visiting relatives.

John H. Hanfler attended to business matters at Little Falls Wednesday.

Martin E. Larsen was a county seat visitor Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Hall of Little Falls has been engaged to teach an eight-month term of school in district 9.

John H. Hanfler attended church at North Prairie Sunday.

Mrs. Mike Leado of Minneapolis, who has been visiting relatives here the past week, left for her home Wednesday. She was accompanied by Miss Frances Watzka of Long Prairie, who will visit with her for a few days.

Walter Kanieski, who has been employed at John Hanfler's during haying, left Tuesday for Little Falls.

Mrs. Mike Leado of Minneapolis and Miss Frances B. Watzka of Long Prairie visited at John Hanfler's Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Edna Taylor of Edgerton, Canada, is visiting friends and relatives here this week. Miss Taylor is well known here, having taught school in district 9 for two years, up to a year ago. It is reported that she has accepted a position to teach a term of school at Green Prairie.

The Swan River Cubs defeated the North Prairie Giants in a game of ball Sunday by the tune of 20 to 11. It is reported that a return game will be played in the near future.

Chas. Hanfler drove to Bowlus Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Carl Wittke, Miss Emma Wittke and Mrs. Martin Larsen of Elm Dale visited at the home of John Hanfler Sunday.

The wedding bells will soon be ringing in this vicinity. Watch for further announcement.

SOUTH ELM DALE

July 27.—A number of boys and girls went out to Holdingford to see a ball game between Holding and Bowlus. They yelled very much because at the end, the game stood 21 to 4 in favor of Bowlus. Hurrah! Who is alright? Bowlus! Who is rotten? Holdingford.

Miss Rose Oravetz is slightly recovering from an attack of heart disease.

The Congregational church, at the back corner, was not quite as well attended last Sunday night as usually, though after services the young folks had a high time with the minister.

Mrs. Joseph Leisick gave a party last Saturday night. A jolly crowd attended it and most everyone reported a good time.

Holdingford and Bowlus will have another game at Bowlus next Sunday. Be sure and come.

Miss Eleanor Oravetz and Miss Marie Batha were callers at the Soltis home Sunday afternoon.

A number of girls went bathing in the Two River branch last Friday night. Ha! Ha!

The back corner bunch is crazy about the barn dance, but cannot get it at Bowlus for fear the hall may fall and kill them all.

If anybody is looking for a good time and a jolly bunch go to the back corner any Sunday night and you will certainly have it.

SULLIVAN LAKE

July 17 to 24.—One of C. E. Look's horses wandered away, but was found at Joe Kramers place this week.

The election of school officers on Saturday last, resulted in the election of Raymond Sims clerk for the ensuing year to fill vacancy. Mrs. L. P. Ford was elected treasurer for three years.

Mr. Nohner and daughter of Pierz visited with Peter Adkins and family Saturday and Sunday last. They were blue berrying while here. Also were lake callers on the way home.

Albert Lynn came home Tuesday last, from Dickinson, N. Dak. where he has been in the hospital with a broken limb a month or more. The ankle is still in a cast. A very bad break.

Haying has commenced in earnest. Three people to every blue berry, in this section. No fruit to amount to anything in this section.

Miss Look was badly stung in the eye by hornets while berrying.

Miss Lizzie Waller came up Saturday, to visit with Miss Mazie Look a few days.

The rains did a world of good in this section.

Mrs. Ford just received a picture of the ladies, composing The Ladies Aid Society of Vineland. They are doing a good work. Would that we might do likewise here.

Mrs. Endahl is confined to her bed again.

Swanville News: The marriage of Miss Maud Wilmot to Otto Krueger occurred at Little Falls Tuesday morning. The ceremony was performed by Judge Shaw in the office of the Judge of probate. While this was not entirely unexpected by their many friends it came as a surprise to many at this time. Mr. Krueger has been buying grain at this place for the past year and in that time has made many friends. Miss Wilmot, with her parents moved to this place last spring from Cyrus, and by her genial manner and pleasing ways has become very popular. They left Tuesday afternoon for Morris where they will spend a few days, and will then be at home to their friends in Swanville. The News joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy married life.
