ST. PETER MONUMENT.
 St. Peter, Minn., Nov. 27.—As this is the last day for receiving contributions for the state fund that is being raised to erect a monument to the late Governor Johnson at the state capital, the host of local admirers of the late executive in the city where he lived are going to turn their attention to raising the fund for the local monument that it is proposed to erect here, where the late governor was buried.
 Nearly $800 has already been raised for this fund. It is proposed to raise about $5,000 for the local monument. Nearly all of the school districts in Nicollet county have contributed and it was expected that many citizens of this and adjoining counties will come forward and aid in the local monument enterprise.

 —Ripey B. Brower.
 The above was the statement made to the Times reporter by Ripley B. Brower who is being prominently mentioned as a candidate for the republican nomination for the office of governor of Minnesota. Future than that Mr. Brower would say nothing. But there was something significant about it nevertheless, little as is communicated in the words employed by Mr. Brower. Nor would Mr. Brower deny that he had his eyes on the gubernatorial chair but he just kept up a calm, cute little wink—and then he smiled.—St. Cloud Times.

A PRESENT OF $78.00.
 Seventy of the friends of Martin A. Borgstrom of Lincoln have made him a present of $78.00. The amounts run from 25 cents to $5, which shows the goodness of heart of the people in that territory. Those in charge of the collection were Therman Olson, Earl Edeburn and Emma Anderson.
 Mille Lacs Lake Breeze: Right on the heels of the Greater Population edition of the Little Falls Herald comes the 18-page special edition of the Elk River Star News. Both are worthy efforts and great boosters for their respective sections.
 Col. and Mrs. S. R. Snow gave a dinner party to a number of their friends at Hotel Buckman Monday afternoon at 12:30, and although not planned for until the deal was made for the transfer of the lease of the hostelry to R. L. Palmer of Sauk Centre, it lacked nothing to make it an enjoyable affair.
 This was of the nature of a farewell party, as it was the last dinner to be given by Col. and Mrs. Snow as landlord and landlady of Hotel Buckman.
