WHITE BECOMES CHIEF JUSTICE

President Promotes Member of Supreme Bench.

VAN DEVANTER IS SELECTED

Present Judge of Eighth Circuit and Joseph Lamar of Georgia Named to Fill Other Vacancies.

Washington, Dec. 13.—President Taft has sent to the senate these nominations:

To be chief justice of the United States supreme court, Associate Justice Edward Douglass White of Louisiana.

To be associate justices United States supreme court, Judge Willis Van Devanter of Wyoming and Judge Joseph Rucker Lamar of Georgia.

To be judges of the new court of commerce:

Martin A. Knapp, now chairman of the interstate commerce commission, for a term of five years.

Robert W. Archbald of Scranton, Pa., now United States district judge for the Middle district of Pennsylvania, term of four years.

William H. Hunt, now a judge of the court of customs appeals, formerly United States district judge of the district of Montana, term of three years.

John Emmet Carland of South Dakota is to be judge of the new court of commerce for a term of two years. This is a change from the original state, Arthur C. Denison, United States district judge for the Western district of Michigan, having first been selected for this place.

It was explained that the promotion of Judge Denison to the commerce court would have given Michigan three circuit judges, more than the president thought should come from one state. Accordingly, the president decided to name Judge Carland. He was recommended for the nomination by the South Dakota delegation.

Mack Gets Short Term.

Julian W. Mack, now judge in the appellate circuit court of the First Illinois district, term of one year.

To be members of the interstate commerce commission:

B. H. Meyer of Wisconsin and C. C. McChord of Kentucky.

The appointments to the interstate commerce commission are to be made to fill the vacancies caused by the elevation of Mr. Knapp to the commerce court and the forthcoming retirement of former Senator Francis M. Cockrell of Missouri. The commission will elect its new chairman.

The members of the commission who remain are Messrs. Clark, Harlan, Clements, Lane and Prouty.

The commerce court is a court created in the amendment to the interstate commerce act passed in June last by this congress.

The law provides for the appointment of five additional circuit judges by the president, who are to constitute the court, and no two or whom shall be appointed from the same judicial circuit. The judges so appointed are to serve on the commerce court and after being relieved from that service are to be assigned to work on the circuits as circuit judges.

Court Turns Down the Request of the Attorneys for Deitz.

Hayward, Wis., Dec. 13.—The Deitz murder trial will continue as it began in Hayward, the county seat of Sawyer county, in spite of strenuous objections on the part of the attorneys for the defense.

FIRST ATTACK ON PAYNE LAW

Senator Cummins Speaks on Tariff Question.

WOULD CHANGE THE RULES

Advocates Adoption of His Resolution Making It Possible to Amend an Individual Provision of the Tariff Law Without Taking Up Entire Subject. Aldrich, Hale, Lodge and Others Participate in Debate.

Washington, Dec. 14.—Contending that the present tariff law imposes excessive duties and that the country at large demands its amendment Senator Cummins of Iowa delivered a speech in the senate in advocacy of his resolution limiting the power of amendment of bills dealing with the separate schedules of the law.

The speech was the first attack of the session on the Payne-Aldrich law. The Iowa senator disavowed any intention of opening up a general tariff discussion. Still, he found it difficult to avoid a general expression on tariff questions.

"It is well known," he said, "that I consider excessive and inexcusable many of the duties levied by the law of 1909. I know also that many people believe that the law should be amended. During the recent political struggle I did not hear a single utterance by a Republican that did not admit that the law contains duties that ought to be changed and that it is the duty of the congress to act speedily."

Declaring then that under existing parliamentary usage in the house and senate the amendment of a tariff law is out of the question he contended that the first step to be taken was the modification of the rules as to render it possible to amend an individual provision of the tariff law without taking up the entire tariff question.

Changes in Rules Real Issue.

"The real issue," he said, "is whether we shall so amend our rules as to permit the amendment of the law, schedule by schedule."

Mr. Cummins had not proceeded far until he was compelled to submit to interruptions. Senators Aldrich, Hale, Lodge and Carter participated in the debate.

Mr. Aldrich afforded the Iowa senator much gratification by expressing concurrence with the latter.

"I think," said the Rhode Island member, "that we are all agreed that it is desirable to take up the tariff by subjects, not by schedules."

He expressed doubt, however, as to the adequacy of the Cummins amendment to accomplish this result, contending that the adoption of the resolution would have the effect of curtailing the constitutional power of the house to originate tariff legislation.

Mr. Bacon also contended for the right of each house to formulate its own rules.

Mr. Heyburn would not give assent to the proposition that all Republicans are agreed to the policy of piecemeal tariff revision; he advocated the protective policy and declined to be committed to any other plan.
