All had a good time at the big party given at the M. Sand home Sunday. The young folks spent the afternoon playing games and after supper the crowd broke up. Then some of them were treated to a five mile hike. Joe Schmolke was a Pierz visitor Monday. Joe Otremba, Joe Hortsch, Carl Heisele and Frank Otremba were fishing up at Sullivan lake and Joe Otremba had an experience somewhat peculiar in the line of fishing. Mr. Otremba had been fishing in his house for one week with good success, but one day while fishing was not as it used to be gathered up his outfit and moved it about ten feet away, got in and got his decoy at work again when a large fish put in his appearance. Mr. Otremba threw his spear and hauled in his prize and threw it out upon the ice. The fish soon saw the hole in the ice vacated recently by Mr. O's fish house and made for it and got through, and again made for the decoy. Mr. O repeated this all day and was counting up how many he had caught and started to collect his day's catch and upon coming out of his house saw no fish around. He then began to investigate and at last found that all day he had been spearing the same fish.
