

ABOUT THE STATE

News of Especial Interest to Minnesota Readers.

ASKS FOR AN INJUNCTION

Minneapolis Representative Starts Court Proceedings, Against the "Seven Senator" Bill.

Charles R. Fowler, during the last session of the legislature a representative from Hennepin county, has filed suit in the Hennepin county district court asking that the secretary of state be permanently enjoined from "in any way recognizing senate file 369 as a valid law."

Senate file 369 is the "seven senator" bill by which it is proposed to limit the representation in the state senate from big counties to seven members.

The suit is brought by Representative Fowler as a taxpayer. It sets out the following reasons for the prayer for the injunction:

First—That the bill was transferred from the house to the senate while a motion was pending in the house and that it is, therefore, illegal.

Second—That the bill, not having been signed by the governor, cannot, therefore, be legally submitted to the voters.

The suit is based upon the allegation that the act is in contravention of that part of the Constitution of the United States which grants free and equal representation. It sets forth that C. R. Fowler, as a taxpayer, and the county of Hennepin are deprived of equal representation and that they are taxed without adequate representation.

IN DOUBT ABOUT MEASURE

Minnesota Republicans in House Are Studying Free List Bill.

Most of the Minnesota Republican members of the house appear to be in an uncertain frame of mind over the Democratic free list bill now pending. Representative Davis is the only one of them who has announced that he will vote for it. Mr. Davis made known his attitude toward the measure in the debate on the Canadian agreement last week.

The other Minnesota Republicans are giving the free list bill careful thought and study. The chances are that Representative Stevens will vote against the bill, although he has not indicated so far just how he will side. Representative Volstead does not believe the bill will benefit the Northern farmer in the slightest degree. However, he may vote for it. Representative Lindbergh is thinking it over. Representative Anderson said that for the present he did not care to say how he would vote.

CENSURE SOLDIERS' HOME

Inmates of Minnesota Institution Make Complaint.

Inmates of the state soldiers' home declare the institution is mismanaged as to health and table. Officers in charge of the home reply these charges are made by dissatisfied old men and that these veterans are given all that is good for them, if not all they demand.

The inmates make the following specific charges: That only two light, crash roller towels are permitted each day to each washroom used by from fifteen to thirty men; that no milk or sugar is put on the dining tables and they are compelled to buy their own; that the visit of the Minneapolis health commissioner last Saturday who gave the management a "white-wash" was a farce and that the officers in charge treat the inmates more like men under restraint than as those who work out in the service of their country.

INSISTS WHITTIER MUST GO

Governor Takes Positive Action Regarding Training School.

Governor Adolph O. Eberhart has written a letter to the state board of control putting the resignation or dismissal of F. A. Whittier, superintendent of the Red Wing training school for boys, squarely up to the board. One of the two alternatives is left for acceptance by the board.

RAILWAY MAIL CLERKS ELECT

Discharged St. Paul Man is Chosen President.

The Brotherhood of Railway Mail Clerks of the Tenth division, with headquarters in St. Paul, showed its teeth to the postoffice department by electing Carl C. Van Dyke, recently dismissed, president of the organization.

The votes of all the men in the division were counted by the executive committee at the West hotel in Minneapolis and when the result was announced Van Dyke was found to have received 681 votes to 363 cast for O. L. Johnson.

The most significant feature of the election was the turning down of all the candidates for office who are active in the Railway Mail association, which is said to be in high favor with the postoffice department as an offset to the activity of the brotherhood. Mr. Johnson is a member of the old association.

F. B. CLARKE DEAD IN WEST

Prominent in St. Paul Business Circles for Many Years.

Word has been received at St. Paul that Francis B. Clarke, formerly president of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle, is dead at Portland, Ore. Mr. Clarke retired from active duty about a year ago because of ill health. He was in St. Paul a couple of months ago, however, apparently in fair health, and the news of his death came as a great shock to St. Paul railroad officials.

Mr. Clarke lived in St. Paul for about thirty-five years and was popular and active in local circles. Mr. Clarke was made president of the Spokane, Portland and Seattle when it was organized about two years ago by the Great Northern and Northern Pacific. He was a close friend of James J. Hill.

DEMOCRATS WILL HOLD BIG MEETING

Notables to Attend Gathering at St. Paul.

St. Paul will be the nerve center of Democracy on June 1.

On that date the eyes of politicians in every state in the Union will be directed toward St. Paul, for Democrats of the Northwest may determine then to whom they will give their support for the next presidential convention.

On that day the recent victories of the Democratic party in state elections and its feat of deposing Republican rule in the house and the elevation of Champ Clark to the speakership will be celebrated in a jubilee, the like of which has never before been seen in this part of the country. The gathering will be a departure in the annals of the national Democratic party.

William Jennings Bryan, Alton B. Parker, Governor Norris of Montana, Governor John Burke of North Dakota, Congressman Hammond and probably Governor Harmon of Ohio will be present. Democrats representing the Dakotas, Iowa, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and probably Wisconsin and Michigan will be present. It is expected that more than 1,000 Democrats will be on hand from the Northwest to celebrate what one Democrat terms "the new birth of national Democracy."

SHOWS HUGE EXPRESS PROFIT

Rate Hearing at St. Paul Brings Out Startling Figures.

Continuing the investigation of the Wells Fargo Express company at St. Paul Attorney General Simpson introduced evidence tending to show that the company enjoys an earning ability equal to that of any other company in the United States.

With a property investment of not more than $5,000,000 and assets of $33,000,000—of which $28,000,000 is invested in stocks and bonds, mortgages, notes, loans and deposits in banks—the company not only is paying 10 per cent dividend but is rapidly accumulating a vast surplus.

While G. W. Hillman, expert accountant for the state, was on the witness stand Mr. Simpson asked: "Assuming that the Wells Fargo company should go out of business as an express company today, withdraw all its agents and continue to live on the money it has invested, what per cent could it annually pay on capital stock?"

"Seven per cent," replied Mr. Hillman.
