ROYALTON

June 8.—Royalton's high school commencement exercises held Friday evening at the opera house, were exceptionally pleasing to a large audience. Seldom, if ever, have the various appointments of any entertainment given here been so complete and appropriate. The stage setting of ferns and other green foliage made an admirable background for the white gowns of the graduates and the entire program was well chosen and reflects great credit on all who took part in its production. Rev. W. H. North's address was of course the crowning event of the evening and this little burgh feels honored in having listened to so eloquent and able an oration.

Byron Wilson returned from Hamlin Friday night for his summer vacation. I. W. Bouck returned from a business trip to Duluth last Saturday. Miss Richardson, who is a guest of Mrs. A. C. Wilson, spent Sunday with friends at Lake Minnetonka, returning here Monday noon. Miss Svensrud left here Saturday and will spend the summer holidays at her home in Minneapolis.

After the conclusion of the commencement exercises Friday evening, the young people enjoyed a very pleasant dance, which would have continued much longer than it did, had the storm not made it necessary to turn off the electric lights. Rev. W. H. North of Little Falls was the guest of Professor and Mrs. Hoffman during his recent visit in our village.

Miss Lida Batzer is home from the university for the summer vacation. Wm. McDougall spent last week with his parents here, returning to Minneapolis where he will practice dentistry. Dr. Hughes, J. N. Carnes, G. Armstrong and H. Schwartz attended the base ball game at Brainerd Sunday.

A large stable owned by Charles Kuechel of Buckman was destroyed by lightning Saturday night. George Wilson and William Gilmore were Sank Rapids visitors Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Bouck spent Sunday at Sank Rapids and report A. E. Turitin much improved although still confined to his bed. Miss Sefton left for her home at Ellendale, N. D., via St. Paul Sunday. Mrs. C. C. Lisle visited friends at Little Falls Saturday.

Mrs. Davis, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Schwartz returned to her home at Anoka Saturday afternoon. Miss Vernet Lambert came home from Swanville the last of the week and will spend the summer holidays in Royalton.

Mrs. William Roller and children left Saturday for St. Paul where Mr. Roller is in business. Mr. Kinney and Mr. Buckley of Minneapolis, were entertained by Prof. Hoffman during their visit here recently.

A. C. Wilson and son, Byron, left Sunday for White Fish lake, taking their boats, tents and other camping outfit for the summer's use.

P. J. Berke of Little Falls was in the town Wednesday and purchased a draught horse from J. Berry. Fred H. Lakin attended commissioners' meeting at Little Falls this week.

The M. E. Aid society meet with Mrs. Sam Muncy Wednesday afternoon. Royalton postoffice is now occupying the A. E. Joslin building on Center street.

Mrs. R. K. Carnes, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be improving. Dr. Watson has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be out again.

Mrs. MacLean of St. Paul is visiting her brother, R. K. Carnes, this week. Miss Laura Stenger left the first of the week for their home at Morris, where she will remain during the summer.

A party consisting of G. E. Wilson, W. Milberry, Clark and Henry Schwartz motored to St. Cloud Wednesday.

Mrs. Shaffer and children are visiting friends at Foley.

The house recently vacated by Wm. Roller is being thoroughly repaired for the occupancy of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Galley.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bouck will leave Sunday for an extended trip East, via the lakes from Duluth.

Mrs. A. C. Wilson, her guest, Miss Richardson of Buffalo, N. Y., Knight, Isaac and Marion Wilson, left Wednesday noon for White Fish lake where they will camp for the summer.

Miss Helen Haddican is enjoying a visit from her mother this week. Prof. Palmer was in town the first of the week giving musical instructions.

I. W. Bouck left Wednesday noon for Hubert lake, where he may build a cottage for summer use.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulon Bell and daughter, Lorna, left Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Bell's parents at Bemidji.

Miss Grace Connor is visiting several of her school mates in town enroute to her home in North Dakota from Hincley, where she has been attending school the past year.

Harry Gilbert has completed a screened veranda on his house and now is painting his building which will greatly improve their appearance. Letter of recent date from Dr. J. P. Chance, says that International Falls is the "bull's eye" of the northwest—all branches of business and the professions are booming beyond limit and it goes without saying that J. P. is in the swim.

NORTH ELM DALE

June 7.—J. J. Jacobson took cattle to Swanville Monday. Mrs. Anton Jendro is on the sick list.

Theodore Schlag fell down a stairway and bruised his arm quite badly Monday.

Mrs. John Wilczek and son and her mother, Mrs. Janietz of Little Falls, visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wittke Monday evening.

Miss Martha Mattros and Mr. Long of St. Anna received their first two calls Sunday at St. Edward church.

Tom Krugel, Frank Belinski, Linus Johnson and Cornelius Olson went to Pelican lake on a fishing trip Monday. Mr. Mokros, Sr. went to Bowlus Saturday to meet Mrs. Carl Mokro Jr., who just returned from St. Cloud where she has been receiving treatment for her eye which was injured sometime ago.

Married—Edwad, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Nelson, was married to Miss Nauie Thompson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Thompson, last week. They will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm in Upsala.

Southwest Darling

June.—All should assist as much as they can those who have suffered from the recent fires.

Monday morning lightning struck a big pine tree at John Swan's place, it burning up. Luckily there was no other damage.

There were only a few bachelors at the meeting at the Swedish Lutheran church last Sunday, but there were many more of the gentler sex. What is the matter with you bachelor fellows?

The depot agent is the only one at present that has a really fine garden. Adolph Thelander worked for August Blomquist planting late corn.

Walter Peter is working for Rockdale. The men that worked at the gravel pit were all fired Friday, and their places were taken by a new bunch from Minneapolis. We do not know the reason, but presume that the new force is working for less wages.

Andrew Hedin's horse got into a wire fence last week, but escaped with little injury.

Farmers who have teams should help their neighbors who have been so unfortunate the past week. You may be in this same predicament sometime, and these kind acts will be remembered.

June 8.—There was a large attendance and a fine time at the Swedish Lutheran church last night. A horse belonging to Ole Lind had his foot nearly cut off.

Frank Rendahl has bought a livery horse. Misses Emma and Olive Larson of Pike Creek were here selling tickets for a social at school 37 next Friday.

Closing Out Hats at half price on June 15-16-17, Sand Sisters.

BOWLUS

June 7.—The dance in Popelich's hall Monday evening was a most enjoyable affair, a large crowd being present, all the towns in this vicinity being well represented.

Work on the new bank building is being rapidly done. Abbie Armstrong of Little Falls is visiting his uncle, Henry Armstrong, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Popp and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Popelich drove to points in Buckman and Langola in the Popelich car Sunday.

The ball game Sunday between the Bowlus nine and the Swan River Wild Cats resulted in a big victory for Bowlus, the score being 16 to 6. Next Sunday Vawter comes down to get theirs again.

A jolly crowd of fishermen and fisherwomen drove to the Mississippi river Sunday to catch some festive pike. They had rather poor luck which they cannot understand as they had some fine bread and butter for bait.

Next Tuesday, June 11 will occur the marriage of Ed Faya and Frances Kampa of Duelm. After the wedding at Duelm the happy couple will come in autos to Bowlus where they will entertain their friends at a dance in the hall in the evening.

Miss Eleanor Armstrong, who has been visiting relatives in Royalton the past week, returned home Monday.

The base ball boys will give a big dance here the 19th of June. Willie Peterson, who has been working for the Armstrong Implement company here, returned to his home at Osakis last week. Charles Steinekirk is working in his place.
