WHAT HE PREFERRED.

A Cincinnati lawyer, recently remarked that the juryman who toward the end of a very long trial wished to know what the terms "plaintiff" and "defendant" signified is not alone in his ignorance. The lawyer mentioned tells of a man whose coat had been stolen. He had charged a suspicious-looking person with the theft.

"You say that this man stole your coat?" asked the magistrate. "Do I understand that you prefer charges against him?"

"Well, no, your honor," responded the plaintiff. "I prefer the coat, it it's all the same to you."

November Lippincott's.
