COURT CLOSED FRIDAY

ALL THE CASES ON THE CALENDAR HAD BEEN ACTED ON BY FRIDAY EVENING

The September term of district court adjourned Friday evening and Judge Taylor and Court Stenographer Woodward left Saturday for St. Cloud.

The case of Joseph Wimmer vs. Joseph Wimmer, Jr., Pauline Wimmer and Frank Szcypurek was tried Thursday evening last week and was taken under advisement. The case is an action to recover title to a piece of land which the plaintiff claims was deeded to his son, and that the son deeded it back to him. The last deed was lost before being registered.

The case of the State vs. The Pine Tree Lumber company was tried and a judgment was given for the defendant. This was an action to collect taxes on property which the testimony proved to have passed into the hands of the Pine Tree Lumber company at the time the taxes were due.

The case of Alfred Green vs. Stanislaus Nagorski et al was taken under advisement. This was an action to subject land belonging to Stanislaus Nagorski to a lien for judgment secured by the plaintiff against him.

The case of Edward G. McClagan vs. The First National Bank of Motley, which was an action to clear title to a piece of land that was transferred by Chas. McMillan to his son-in-law, the plaintiff, after a judgment had been obtained against him by the Motley bank, was taken under advisement and was the concluding case on the calendar.
