Lameness

Sloan's Liniment is a quick and reliable remedy for lameness in horses and other farm animals.

"Sloan's Liniment surpasses anything on earth for lameness in horses and other horse ailments. I would not sleep without it in my stable."
—MARTIN DOYLE,
422 West 19th St., New York City.

Good for Swelling and Abscess.
Mr. H. M. Gibbs, of Lawrence, Kan., R. F. D., No. 3, writes:—"I had a mare with an abscess on her neck and one 60c bottle of Sloan's Liniment entirely cured her. I kept it all the time for galls and small swellings and for everything about the stock."

SLOAN'S LINIMENT

is a quick and safe remedy for hog cholera.

Governor of Georgia uses Sloan's Liniment for Hog Cholera.

"I heard Gov. Brown (who is quite a farmer) say that he had never lost a hog from cholera and that his remedy always was a tablespoonful of Sloan's Liniment in a gallon of slops, decreasing the dose as the animal improved. Last month Gov. Brown and myself were at the Agricultural College building and in the discussion of the ravages of the disease, Gov. Brown gave the remedy named as 'unfailing.'"

SOUTHWEST DARLING

Nov. 12.—Everybody is busy husking corn these days.

Herman Hanson visited East Darling Sunday. He says this is a poor leap year as only two girls have visited him.

Aaron Engstrom made a flying trip to Little Falls Monday.

Arvid Nelson, who has been working on a farm east of Darling, returned home Sunday.

August Blomquist is building an addition to his poultry house. He says that his chickens are paying him better than his cows.

E. G. Johnson and son, Allen, and Chas. J. Nelson and son, Eddie made a business trip to Little Falls Saturday.

What is Emil Taberman doing these days?
C. Arvidson of Little Falls is doing some masonry work for Frank Rendahl. Frank does not intend that his potatoes will freeze this year as they did last winter.

William Boxell helped A. G. Nelson at plowing.

John Regnell visits Randall twice every week. John don't get too swift, this is still leap year. Wait until 1913.

The saw mill in East Darling is doing business.

The Ladies Sewing society will meet with Mrs. John Benson, section 35, East Darling, on Thursday, Nov. 21, at 1 o'clock sharp. East Darling ladies are requested to come, prepared to sew.

The Good Templars society had a meeting at West Pleasant Grove Monday evening. Refreshments were served and all had a good time.

Some children in district 74 are doing much mischief when going to and from school. Parents should look after them more and see that they get home earlier.

G. F. Koehler of Perham, who has been employed in the Ryan Hardware store, left Monday to take a position in Fargo.
