

FLensburg

Dec. 30.—Miss Celia Olson returned to Little Falls Saturday after a visit at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Mrozik from Little Falls visited with relatives here over Christmas.

V. Sundberg from Minneapolis is enjoying the holidays with his uncle, Gust Sundberg of this place.

Miss Lydia Axmark returned to Little Falls Saturday after a brief visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Axmark.

J. H. Johnson and J. A. Rylander drove to Little Falls with grain Tuesday.

Chas. Hoagland of North Culdrum was a business caller here Monday.

The Sunday school Christmas tree program of the Congregational church given here Friday evening was very well attended.

Joe Smuda returned to his home in Little Falls Monday after a visit at the home of Frank Zilka.

Rev. J. Alb. Peterson conducted services in Freedom last Sunday.

O. Martinson was a visitor in our village Saturday.

J. P. Johnson was a Little Falls caller Saturday.

Abel Axmark returned to Minneapolis Sunday, having spent the Christmas holidays with his parents here.

Mrs. John Bergstrom will entertain the Ladies' aid of the Lutheran church at her home here next Sunday afternoon. All are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Johnson entertained a number of friends at dinner Sunday.

T. J. Mathieson of Little Falls was out here buying cattle Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mrozik arrived here last Wednesday to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives here.

Olof Bergstrom was a Little Falls visitor Wednesday.

Miss Anna Rylander returned to Minneapolis Saturday after having spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rylander.

There will be services in the Swedish Congregational church next Sunday, the 4th of January, at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everybody cordially invited.

Married—Ed. Gustafson of South Dakota, and Miss Hilda Grandberg were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Saturday at one o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Grandberg, in West Culdrum, Rev. J. Alb. Peterson performing the ceremony. Only the near relatives of the bride and groom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Gustafson left in the afternoon for a visit with relatives in North Dakota before going to South Dakota, where they will make their home. We wish them a happy and prosperous married life.

BUCKMAN

Ed. Kahl of Beach, N. D., is home on a visit with his parents. He has a claim out there and says the crops were good.

Fred Schmolke of Alberta, Can., is here visiting his brothers and sisters.

Mary Beka, who is employed in St. Paul, is home on a visit with her mother.

Happy New Year to All. Mrs. John Schmolke Jr., transacted business in New Pierz Wednesday.

Doeken Bros. called on their parents in Little Falls Thursday.

John Kunz of St. Paul is here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sitzman.

A. A. Hesch bought 40 acres of land from John Schmolke.

Blazel Bros. are busy hauling maple cord wood to this town at $4.50 per cord.

John A. Brandel returned from St. Paul where he had been the past week on business.

Lena Sand left for New Munich last Wednesday where she will visit among relatives and friends.

Mike Janson took a load of hogs to Pierz Wednesday.

Nick Billig, who is cashier in the Wakkon bank, is here on a visit with his parents.

DON'T DREAD WINTER'S COLD.

Prepare to enjoy its exhilarating frosts by making your blood rich, pure and active to prevent colds, grippe and rheumatism.

Good blood prevents sickness and Scott's Emulsion will energize your blood and create reserve strength to endure changing seasons.

Scott's Emulsion is not an experiment but has served humanity faithfully for forty years; it contains the purest cod liver oil—free from alcohol or stupefying drugs.

Scott's Emulsion is nature's greatest blood-maker and furnishes the elements necessary for body warmth, rich blood and healthy circulation.

Shun alcoholic substitutes and demand the genuine Scott's Emulsion AT ANY DRUG STORE 13-73

John; A. A. Hesch and wife and son Mike; M. E. Hesch, T. A. and M. K. Hesch, Joe Otremba and wife and sons Anton and Joe. The evening was spent playing cards and drinking the good old lager.

Ida Dehler, who is working in Little Falls, is home on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dehler Sr.

Ed. Hortsch, who has a creamery of his own in Luxemburg, is here visiting his parents.

Joe Schmolke drove to Pierz Monday.

Mrs. Hy. Mueller of Rice is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Math Poster.

Mrs. Ed. Dehler of St. Cloud is here visiting her parents.

Aug. Dehler Sr., left for St. Cloud Wednesday where he will visit a week among relatives and friends.

J. A. Dengel transacted business in Royalton Wednesday.

John Poster and Co. are shredding corn for Peter Schreder.

Well, the farmers ought to get done with their fall work this year. Snow don't trouble much so far.

Frank Otremba returned from Sullivan Lake Wednesday where he had been on business.

M. E. Hesch went to Duluth Tuesday on business.

Wm. Schoen left for St. Cloud Monday after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heuring.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Siefert were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Dehler.

Mrs. Joe H. Sand of Sask., Can., is here on a visit with her parents.

Alex. Heuring of St. Joe called on Chas. Heuring and wife the first of the week.

Buckman was visited by one-half an inch of snow Saturday—first we have had since October 15. Some state this Minnesota is.

Nick Mueller, Peter Dehler and T. A. Hesch are digging a well for J. M. Schmolke.

Ignatz Ronellenfisch took two loads of grain to Pierz Saturday.

Well the big days are gone again. Mrs. Joe L. Hesch returned from St. Joe Wednesday where she had been visiting relatives and friends the past week.

Joe Hesch left for the old folks' home Monday where he will visit friends.

Peter Newman was in Minneapolis on business.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. John Kass Saturday were Joe Waker, Joe Hartsch and wife and Wendelin Voight and family. A number of friends called on Mrs. Anton Uble on Tuesday. She had been sick for the past three months, but is reported well again.

All had a good time at the party which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Xavier Hurrell on Sunday.

Frank and Christena Hartsch left for St. Cloud Monday on business.

Ed. Hartsch left for Luxemburg on Monday where he has a creamery.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Sauer left for Collegeville Monday where they will visit a week among relatives and friends.

Augusta Voight left for St. Cloud last Wednesday, where she will be employed.

Katie Dengel, who is working in Little Falls is home on a visit.

John Biallins sold his farm. He will leave next fall.

Thomas Bros. of Foley passed through our village Friday with 35 horses, enroute to Pierz. From there they will ship the horses to White Pine where they will work in the woods the rest of the winter.

Oscar Westholder of New Albany is here on business.

Well boys we'll meet at the gym. Tuesday and Friday.

All had a good time at the party which was held at the John Mischke and wife home Sunday.

Miss Edna McCarthy, who has been staying at her uncle's, Wm. Roff's, going to school, is home through the school vacation.

The surprise party at Dan Miller's home Saturday night was well attended. All report having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller and John Tindel spent Sunday at the home of Geo. Kimball.

Willie Patton left Friday night for Wisconsin to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Stroming of Ausland were visitors at D. Miller's home Sunday.

Quite a few from around here attended the Christmas tree at the Woodman hall at Ft. Ripley and the program was fine.

Mr. Leo Smith of Ripley was over in this vicinity Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller went to Little Falls Tuesday. They took some chickens down to sell, and returned home Wednesday.

WEST BELLEVUE

Dec. 30.—Isaac LaFond and family spent Christmas at Mrs. P. MacDougall's.

Miss Theresa Kusterman visited Miss Stone Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Crabtree spent Christmas at Leslie Muncy's.

G. E. Brookway is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. George Cash, Mike Cash and Miss Mary Cash are visiting relatives in Jewett, Wis.

Mr. Cameron was in Royalton Friday.

Henry Zimmerman was in Little Falls Saturday.

Miss Julia Reidner is spending a few days with her parents.

J. R. Stone is ill.

T. Hayes has the corn shredder.

Mrs. M. Berget was in Little Falls Wednesday.

James MacDougall was a county seat shopper one day last week.

RANDALL

Dec. 30.—Miss Lottie Albright has returned to her home at Fenton, Ia., after a visit here with friends, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lee.

P. L. Melburg, the realty man, is back in his office after a week's illness.

Miss Frances Simones who has been employed in Minneapolis for the past several months returned last week for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Simones.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Berry of Crosby, arrived here Thursday for a several days' visit with Mrs. Berry's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Miller.

Miss Cora Davis left Saturday for Lewiston, Mont., where she has taken up a claim.

Mr. and Mrs. Bingo left Wednesday for Hastings, after a several days' visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Casper Bingo.

Miss Emma Kiley of Holdingford, spent several days here with her aunt, Mrs. Thos. Lambert, returning home Wednesday.

Raymond Covert left Saturday for a visit with friends at Anoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Quimby of Minneapolis arrived here Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Quimby.

Mrs. Annie Burke and daughter Lucy returned to their home in Minneapolis, Sunday, after a week's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Simones.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Schwanke returned home Tuesday morning from a week's vacation with relatives in the southern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Noggle and family of Royalton spent Christmas day here with Mrs. Noggle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kennedy.

Miss Mary Kestner, left Friday for Minneapolis, at which place she will be employed.

J. P. Hicks spent Sunday with friends in Little Falls, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bastien.

Miss Kate Berris of Lakeville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. N. Simones this week.

CLOUGH

Dec. 30.—Miss Clara Mudge, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Waller, returned back home Friday.

Miss Edna McCarthy, who has been staying at her uncle's, Wm. Roff's, going to school, is home through the school vacation.

The surprise party at Dan Miller's home Saturday night was well attended. All report having had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller and John Tindel spent Sunday at the home of Geo. Kimball.

Willie Patton left Friday night for Wisconsin to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Stroming of Ausland were visitors at D. Miller's home Sunday.

Quite a few from around here attended the Christmas tree at the Woodman hall at Ft. Ripley and the program was fine.

Mr. Leo Smith of Ripley was over in this vicinity Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller went to Little Falls Tuesday. They took some chickens down to sell, and returned home Wednesday.

SOUTHWEST DARLING

Dec. 30.—Mr. and Mrs. David Carlson are here on visit with relatives.

August Blomquist, Herman Hanson, Aaron Engstrom and Chas. J. Nelson were business callers at Little Falls Saturday.

The weather is fine and no snow. Real California weather.

Some thief again stole the wire from the flag pole at school 35, as well as 25 chickens from August Blomquist.

John P. Eystad is home for a month.

The Streetville hotel gave a fine dinner to a number of friends last Sunday.

Look out for a wedding at Pleasant Corner next week. The charivari boys will be around again, but they shouldn't be too early.

There was a fine banquet served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hedin last Saturday. A fine time was passed.

Misses Bertha and Ida Peter and Mrs. Minnie Gage of Page, N. D., are spending the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peter.

Mrs. L. J. Rosnagle sent box of live flowers from Bakersfield, Cal., and greetings to all her friends.

The First National banker has installed a telephone at his Pike Creek farm.

Last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peter celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary, and were presented with many pieces of silverware. There were twelve relatives from Lake Elmo, and a few of the neighbors present. An excellent time was passed.

Thomas McCarty was called home on account of the death of his brother in Ripley town.

EAST DARLING

Dec. 29.—There was a fine program at the Christmas festival at the Swedish Lutheran church. There were about 200 present. The Sunday school teachers were all presented with a purse of money in acknowledgment of their excellent work the past year.

Rev. E. Peterson of Little Falls made a fine address.

There was Christmas festival at the Mission Friends church last Sunday evening, it being attended by about 150 people. A fine program was given. Carl Peterson, Sunday school superintendent, was presented with a fine rocking chair.

Rev. Charles Johnson of Green Prairie made good talks at both of the above Christmas festivals.

The Swedish Lutheran church people are having their stable shingled today.

Carley E. Anderson is building an addition to his stable. Emil Sundberg is helping him do the carpenter work.

Holiday Machine Sale

OUR NEW STANDARD SEWING MACHINE

will be offered at this Holiday sale at a price within the easy reach of everyone:

The best Machine ever produced to sell at $27.00—$2.00 Cash, $1.00 a week.

A Genuine Standard of modern construction. Drop head model with excellent set of high grade attachments and accessories; fine quartered oak case. A machine that will last a life time.

Holiday sale price $27.00

Terms—$2.00 down, $1.00 a week.

Every machine we sell we fully guarantee.

FOLSOM Music House

HAPPY NEW YEAR

The last leaf is torn from the Calendar and we dot down a New Year—1914. The past year has been a year of success. We did the biggest business in our history, it was our banner year. We wish to thank our patrons one and all for helping us to make it such. We will not stop still, satisfied with a glorious past, but will again take a big step forward with the advance ranks in the march of progress.

This Store will continue to lead in Styles, in Good Merchandise, in Low Prices and in Courteousness as well as in Name.

We hope you will stay by us in the future as you have in the past. We wish you all a Happy and Prosperous New Year

Victor Clothing Co.

LITTLE FALLS - - - - - MINNESOTA