JAMES A. PETERSON.

Minneapolis Attorney Candidate for Governor of Minnesota.

PETERSON OUT FOR GOVERNOR

Minneapolis Man Enters Republican Primary Campaign.
James A. Peterson, well known Minneapolis attorney, announced himself a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in a statement covering the issues he will speak on during the Republican primary campaign. He attacks the growth in state expenses, arraigns Governor A. O. Eberhart for his vetoes of the Nolan and Minette bills and his support of a state public utilities commission, and attacks State Auditor S. G. Iverson, another rival, charging inefficient management of the state land department.
Mr. Peterson campaigned the state in 1912 as a candidate for the United States senate and polled 63,431 votes against Senator Knute Nelson, who received 88,145 votes.

FOUR STATES TO BE VISITED

Minnesota Advertising Car Makes First Stop in Nebraska.
The Minnesota advertising car recently left St. Paul for O'Neill, Neb., where it began with a two days' stand, and will continue to show one and two days in about eighty-five towns. The car will travel about 2,000 miles and visit the states of Nebraska, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin. A free moving picture show of Minnesota agricultural and manufacturing scenes will be given each night in towns where the car stops. Frank M. Eddy of Sauk Center will lecture to the pictures.
"I believe that good results will come from this trip," said Fred D. Sherman, commissioner of immigration. "We are thoroughly advertising the car in the local newspapers and by means of posters distributed by an advance agent, so I feel sure that we will meet good crowds everywhere."

The car is furnished and transported free by the Great Northern Railway company and mantled by the Minnesota state board of immigration.

COURT GRANTS INJUNCTION

Temporary Order in Great Western Rate Case.
The three judges in the federal court at St. Paul granted the request of the Great Western for a temporary injunction restraining the state railroad commission and the state against putting into effect until April 1, 1914, the Cashman schedules as applied to the Great Western, and also that portion of the act which prevents the application of a greater rate on any portion of the road than on any other like portion.

OVEREXERTION KILLS YOUTH

Expires Suddenly After Skating Four Hours.
Hiram Holby, nineteen years of age, a senior at the North high school at Minneapolis, dropped dead from overexertion after four hours spent on the ice at North Commons.
Holby, together with several of his chums, was engaged in a hockey game when the young man staggered to the edge of the rink. He was dead before aid reached him. Coroner Gilbert Seashore pronounced death due to heart failure.

FORMER AUDITOR IS DEAD

Adolph Bierman Succumbs to Paralytic Stroke.
