CLYDESDALE

The coming draft horse is surely the Clydesdale, as he is in the lead at present. Once more they have proven their excellence over all other draft breeds at the recent International by winning outright the Pairs, Fours and Six Horse Teams. This makes 8 times out of 12 contests at the International that the Clydesdales have won the Six Horse Teams and never have been below second, winning outright 80 per cent of all prizes offered for all draft breeds showing together. This is surely a record to be proud of. At the last show of all draft breeds showing together the Clydesdales triumphed over all breeds except the Yearling Fillies, another great record for the Clydesdales. The Clydesdales will win in any company on account of size, style, finish, strong back, correct feet and ankles, fine flinty bone of the best wearing quality and faultless action. The highest price for a draft sire is also held by the Clydesdale by the world famous Clydesdale Stallion, Baron of Buchlyvie (11263), who sold recently at auction for $47,500. The record price for draft gelding at auction is also held by the Clydesdale by the Clydesdale gelding, Archie, who recently sold at Chicago for $1,000. Therefore the Clydesdale is surely the leading draft horse. So if you breed at all breed from the best as the best is none too good. Adv.-1t.

are usually thin and easily worried, sleep does not refresh and the system gradually weakens from insufficient nourishment.

Scott's Emulsion corrects nervousness by its force of concentrated medical nourishment—it restores the healthy action of body cells, enriches the blood, sharpens the appetite, and feeds the nerve centres by distributing energy and power all over the body.

Don't resort to alcoholic mixtures or drug concoctions that stimulate and stupefy.

Get a bottle of Scott's Emulsion for your nerves—nothing equals or compares with it, but insist on Scott's.
