CHAUTAUQUA GUARANTORS

LIST OF NAMES OF THOSE WHO MADE BOOKING OF CHAUTAUQUA POSSIBLE

In order to get the Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua bureau to book a chautauqua in this city June 11 to 17 it was necessary that fifty business and professional men of the city sign a guaranty, whereby each one of them is liable to the amount of $10.00 in event that the chautauqua should not be a paying proposition.

At least 750 season tickets must be sold for the entertainment at $2.00 each in order to relieve the guarantors from any indemnity. This means that each citizen must do his share of the work. At a meeting of the guarantors committee Tuesday evening, committees were appointed to sell tickets to the business and professional men of the city, and after this is done the residential portion will be covered by a house to house canvass. The committee started work yesterday.

St. Cloud, Minn., May 15.—The primary law is the big issue in the present campaign, Governor Eberhardt declared in his keynote address here tonight. NORTHERNDERS LOSE TO PIERZ

The Northernders were defeated by the Pierz team at that place Sunday afternoon by a score of 10 to 2. The local team played a consistent game but the Pierz players were too heavy sluggers for them. Lagerbauer was in the box for the Northernders and Wermerskirchen for Pierz.

WILL MAKE THEM PAY OR STAY AWAY

Hubert Friesinger, the N. P. yard watchman, states that hereafter no people will be allowed to witness a baseball game at the fair grounds free of charge from the east fence. This fence runs parallel with the railway tracks and but a few feet away.

He stated that a large number of "would-be-fans" gathered on the tie piles near the fence to witness the Staples-Little Falls game last Sunday, and that he drove them away several times but without avail. They did considerable damage by scraping the sand off from the ties. These are re-erected and are covered with sand to preserve them. He states that next time anyone is caught standing on them a warrant will be sworn out for their arrest and they will have to answer to a charge of trespassing and damaging property.

THE STEWART SOCIETY DANCERS WERE GOOD

The Stewart Society Dancers, four in number, gave a dance at the Elks hall Friday evening, Bastien's orchestra furnishing the music. They gave some excellent exhibitions of dancing and taught the maxixe, one-step, hesitation waltz and Argentine tango. The patronage was small. They expect to come here again at some future date.

DRIVE AUTOS TOO FAST

The practice by autoists of speeding upon the streets of the city has of late become quite common. Not only has there been disregard for the law in speeding in the residence portion of the city but on the streets of the business section especially in rounding curves and corners. The same has been the case with motorcycle riders. A number of people have complained of violations lately, especially those living in the residential portions, who have small children. The police have notified a number of the speed artists, and there will likely be less "scorching" hereafter.
