FINANCING OF BIG COTTON CROP NOW SEEMS ASSURED

$150,000,000 FUND APPARENTLY MADE CERTAIN BY PLAN PERFECTED BY PLANTERS AND NEW YORK BANKERS.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD IS TO DIRECT LOANING

Secretary McAdoo Said to Have Indorsed This Course—New York Financiers to Subscribe $50,000,000 Upon Condition That Country Take Remainder.

New York, Oct. 15.—The raising of a $150,000,000 fund by bankers and representatives of Southern cotton planters to finance the country's cotton crop is virtually assured, it is announced here, and the federal reserve board at Washington will be called upon to manage the fund and direct the loaning of it.

New York bankers at a conference with cotton planters' representatives here during the day, agreed, it is stated, to furnish $50,000,000, if the rest of the country would supply $100,000,000 or more under conditions agreed to at the conference.

Pestus J. Wade, president of the Mercantile National bank of St. Louis, and a member of the St. Louis Clearing House association, issued a statement announcing the plan. Mr. Wade said that "the task put upon the federal reserve board, while onerous, was readily accepted by Secretary McAdoo, who recognized the gravity of the situation."

Mr. Wade attended the conference and later went to Washington to discuss the plan with members of the federal reserve board. Several prominent St. Louis business men, who came to New York with Mr. Wade, accompanied him to Washington.

A Definite Conclusion. Mr. Wade set forth that a definite conclusion was reached between the St. Louis committee and New York bankers. "By the action of the New York bankers," the statement says, "it may be safely assumed that the fund undoubtedly will be raised within the next few days."

The difficulty encountered was to determine how the syndicate could be managed and money loaned at the least possible expense to the borrower, and after many conferences and telephonic communications between Washington and New York it was finally concluded to turn over the entire fund to the federal reserve board at Washington, who would act as managers of the same and direct the loaning of the fund.

The Plan in Brief. "Organize $150,000,000 cotton fund throughout the United States, which fund shall be turned over to and managed by the federal reserve board at Washington and loaned to the national currency association or to the federal reserve banks. All loans to be made payable on or before one year at the option of the borrower, with the right to the federal board to extend any or all such loans made for two periods of six months each, interest on such loans to be at the rate of 6 per cent per annum."

"All loans to be made at not to exceed 6 cents per pound, midding basis, to be secured by approved warehouse receipts for cotton property insured."

Fund Called For As Needed. "The fund to be called for by the federal reserve board in such installments as may be necessary. "New York financial institutions will subscribe $50,000,000 under above conditions toward such fund, provided the balance of the country subscribes not less than $100,000,000."

"The details are to be worked out by a committee to be appointed by the federal reserve board which will unquestionably have the support of every part of the country."

"It is recognized that the caring for the surplus cotton crop is a national problem, one which interests all manufacturing industries commercial establishments, agricultural resource transportation companies and financial interests, and which undoubtedly will receive universal support throughout the nation."

Loyal Boers Stand By Britain. London, Oct. 15.—Recovering from the first shock of the news that organized revolt now menaced British authority in South Africa, London received word that from nearly every section of the union pledges were coming in fast from the Boers to fight the rebellion led by Colonel Maritz. So far the number of men under Colonel Maritz cannot be estimated. It is admitted, however, that the army is a fairly formidable one. The disloyal Boers comprising it are seasoned fighting men.

TO THE VOTERS OF MORRISON COUNTY

For some years I have held the office of County Superintendent of Schools and am again seeking re-election.

I believe in good honest work—Satisfactory results—Satisfied people. All our teachers hold certificates. This was accomplished two years before the state legislature passed a law requiring it.

The number of rural schools drawing special state aid is 95. Last year $11,025 was received from this source, thereby lowering the local tax just that much.

Eighth grade examinations have been standardized. All examination questions are made out and sent regularly twice a year to the different schools. The examination papers are all returned to this office where they are looked over, marked and diplomas issued. During the past year 195 diplomas were issued to the eighth grade graduates of the county.

This has formed a connecting link between the rural and advanced schools. What is more our rural school graduates always make good and are generally found among honor students. Summer schools and institutes have been held regularly in Morrison county, even oftener than our share of state funds would warrant. In this way our teachers have been encouraged and their work strengthened.

Seven years ago, we introduced the study of agriculture in the rural schools. This year we are putting in a system of farm accounts. Sewing has been taught in a number of the schools over four years. In addition the regular school work has been carefully graded and brought to a high standard, every effort being made to make our schools practical and suited to the needs of every day life. Our schools are making splendid progress and are in a good healthy condition.

I would like to go with you personally to your own school and have you see for yourself the advancement it has made.

There is a fine spirit of co-operation among the parents, pupils, and teachers of the county, and this spirit shows itself in a determination to accomplish what is undertaken.

On my record made during the past two years, I am coming before you asking your vote at the election, Tuesday, November 3.

Respectfully, M. E. BARNES.

COLD WEATHER ENDS OPEN AIR CONCERTS

Last Wednesday evening Bastien's band gave the last outdoor concert of the season. All concerts given by the band during the coming winter months will be held in some public building, probably the high school auditorium. The citizen's committee, which has charge of all negotiations with the band, arrived at this conclusion at a meeting held a few days ago.

Weather has been unusually favorable for outdoor concerts this year, and the citizens have been very fortunate in being able to enjoy a concert on the street as late as the second week in October. Although the band has not been organized very long the results have been astonishing, and citizens may well be proud of it. The success of the organization is in no small part due to the ability of William Bastien as a leader.

J. C. Highhous of this city has been notified that his celery won first prize at the state fair, held at Hamline last month.

TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

If the conduct of drivers of automobiles and other vehicles in this city is to be governed by a traffic ordinance, pedestrians should also be required to abide by some similar rules, the former hold.

Local autoists complain about the practice by pedestrians of cutting across street intersections, especially at Broadway and First street, where they cross the street diagonally from both sides. This, the autoists claim, causes the traffic to become congested, and results sometimes in accidents.

It is probable that the city council will hold a special meeting Monday night to act on the traffic ordinance.

Miss Adeline Blake went to Minneapolis for a visit yesterday.
