Guin returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Crow Wing.

ODD BITS OF NEWS Los Angeles, Cal.—Samuel Pookovewsky has grown tired of the efforts of his American associates to pronounce his name, and has been on the lookout for a chance to change it. The chance came when he became engaged to a Miss Parker. Judge Thomas, on application, allowed the groom to take his wife's name and now he is the proud possessor of the handle of Samuel Parker. Chillicothe, O.—C. W. Cravens and W. B. Cravens are brothers and both are engineers on the B. & O. Their wives are sisters. Both families live in the same house. The other day, six hours apart, both the Mrs. Cravens gave birth to children—one a boy and the other a girl. New York, N. Y.—"Safety First," said Mrs. Arthur Maclean as she put two diamond earrings into her pillow case and went to sleep. The next day there were clean slips on the pillows. Mrs. Maclean was frantic. She besieged the laundry, but the pillow slips had been washed and ironed. Finally one earring was found gleaming in the bottom of the washtub and the other about to enter the drain pipe. They are valued at $2,000. Newcastle, Ind.—Moab Turner, 77, is dead. Thirty years ago he suffered his first stroke of paralysis and made his funeral plans. A walnut chest was turned into a coffin and given to the local undertaker to care for. He will be buried in the walnut casket. Philadelphia, Pa.—A demonstrator in a department store mixed a poison-ous liquid used for cleaning glasses with a nerve medicine which she was demonstrating and over 200 persons are thought to have been poisoned. The demonstrator, however, was the only one to report to a hospital. Cleveland, O.—"Enclosed find 50 cents for a bed sheet which I took from your house when I roomed with you," read a note received by Mrs. M. Holzman. The signer of the note roomed at the Holzman home eight years ago. Sharonville, O.—"Howdy, John!" "Howdy, Jim!" Thus John and James Stewart of Kansas and Tennessee respectively, met here after a lapse of forty-seven years. Both believed the other dead and spent several hours in a room together before they found out their relationship. Pewaukee, Wis.—Here's the latest fish story. Robert Nichols and E. F. Schmutzler went fishing. Arriving at the favorite spot, they found to their horror they had brought a can of green paint instead of a can of bait. But, listen! Nichols is an artist. He painted pictures of a worm on the hooks, and they had a record catch. San Francisco, Cal.—"My, how cute!" was the expression of a society girl who motored down to see the "oldest tree," which celebrated its three thousand and fiftieth birthday recently. A family of five could have picnicked under the tree when the Greeks were building their wooden horse under the walls of Troy, and Pharoah was being engulfed in the Red Sea. Coleman, Wis.—By the death by lockjaw of Miss Emily Ermis, 18, John Ermis, her father, loses the eighteenth member of his immediate family. Miss Ermis' death followed closely that of her 21-year-old brother who was accidentally shot. An older brother was drowned two years ago. Mrs. Ermis died recently, and sixteen children have succumbed. Charlestown, W. Va.—The mystery of the "Old Man of Kelly's Creek," who is alleged to have been one of the most successful bootleggers in the state, is believed by federal officers to have been solved by the arrest of Louis Peters, 22 years old. It is alleged Peters disguised himself as an old man, wearing false hair and a patriarchal set of whiskers to sell his liquor. Otherwise he was a miner. San Francisco, Cal.—While San Francisco acknowledges Atlanta, Georgia's, claim that its women have the smallest and prettiest feet in the world, it asserts that the legs of San Francisco girls are the shapeliest. Physical directors of the public schools say the graceful carriage and shapely forms of the San Francisco girls are due to the hilly streets of the coast city. Bethel, Pa.—Miss Maria Kurr, one of Pennsylvania's most noted characters is dead of tuberculosis. For a quarter of a century she kept the Kurr house at Millersburg, which was famous as a place to eat and stop. She was the confidant of politicians and controlled elections in her own township. She was an expert at mixing drinks, a horsewoman, a hunter and could outplay the men at chess, cards, pool and checkers. She was six feet tall, strikingly handsome and refused steadfastly to marry. Monroe, City, Mo.—Farmers of this community are spending their nights in the marshes catching frogs by which Albert Farquer hopes to be cured of a cancerous growth which threatens his life. The breast of a living frog is placed against the sore, and absorbs the poisons. Farquer is rapidly recovering. The farmers hunt frogs with sacks and electric torches, which they flash into the eyes of the croakers and blind them. SWANVILLE Oct. 20.—Geo. Balmer left Tuesday for Little Falls for a few days' visit. Miss Grace Shipman was a caller at Little Falls Tuesday. Mrs. J. P. Gallus, Miss Grace Chambers and Flossie Buelow were callers at Long Prairie Tuesday. Paul Krause of Long Prairie was a business caller here Monday. R. N. Rhines returned Monday from a few days' visit at Minneapolis. Mrs. C. S. Henderholt and Miss Murphy were callers at Little Falls Saturday, between trains. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon visited relatives at Grey Eagle Saturday. Mrs. Fred Legg and daughter Hattie, returned Saturday from a visit at Millville, N. D. Mr. Harstad of Grey Eagle was a visitor here Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Kretzschmar and children went to Little Falls Saturday for a visit with friends. Mrs. Ben Coen and son Harrison left Sunday evening for Cooperstown, N. D., for a two weeks' visit with her husband, who is employed at that place. Mrs. Sam Davis of Minneapolis and Mrs. Will Millener arrived here Thursday for a visit with Alex Hall and family. Miss Mildred Wilmont of Sauk Centre visited over Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmont. Bittersweet makes a fairly good hedge when carefully trained over a fence or wall. Its orange-colored fruit adds greatly to its attractiveness in autumn.

Jelly Roll Recipe Only Two Eggs Required By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine This Jelly Roll is fast becoming very popular on account of the way it keeps fresh. With proper handling it should keep fresh a whole week, providing it isn't eaten up in the meantime, for it is every bit as good as it looks. 33

One cup sifted flour; scant half teaspoonful salt; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; creamed yolk of 1 lemon; 8 eggs beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 1/2 cup hot milk; glass of jelly; powdered sugar.

Beat the sugar into the eggs; add the lemon rind, then the flour, sifting three times with the salt and baking powder; and, lastly, the milk. Bake in a buttered dripping pan; turn out on a damp cloth, trim off the crisp edges; spread with jelly and turn over and over into a roll while still warm. Dredge the top with powdered sugar.

Hot milk used in the jelly roll enables it to be rolled without danger of cracking. Have the milk scalding hot, also be careful to have the eggs and sugar beaten together until very light and creamy. Bake in a moderate oven.

K C Jelly Roll is illustrated on page thirty-two of the new and handsomely illustrated 64-page K C Cook's Book, which may be secured free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the JAGURS MFG. CO., Chicago, Ill.

WOLF BOUNTIES Rosie Loop of Granite and John Brown of Leigh collected bounties for full grown wolves at the county auditor's office Saturday. Did you notice the high coloring of the Virginia creeper this season? It is a splendid thing for autumn color on a brick or stone wall or when grown over an old tree or stump.
