

5 Days Only
Starts Monday
DEC. 27th

INVENTORY SALE

5 DAYS ONLY

5 Days Only
Ends Friday
DEC. 31st

Before we take Inventory we must unload Five Thousand Dollars worth of goods and we'll undertake to do this in five days, starting next Monday morning Dec. 27th. We will have a full force of clerks on hand to wait on you. The past season has been the best the St. Paul Store has seen in Little Falls. We have many lines of goods, broken lots that have to be disposed of. Now we urge you to come Monday at nine o'clock. We will make general clean-up prices and values will be forgotten. We want to impress in upon our patrons to be here when this sale opens. Most everything in the store will come to you at great reductions.

Twenty, Thirty and Forty per cent.

Below the Regular Prices, and Remember for FIVE DAYS ONLY

Many Odd Lots Will Be On The Tables At PRICES That WILL ASTONISH You
∴ EVERY DEPARTMENT WILL BE REPRESENTED ∴

A GREAT SLASH IN PRICES ON ALL OUR FALL SUITS and COATS

To show you something wonderful we have 30 women's coats, 1914 and 1915 styles. We make three lots.
Lot No. 1 $2.00 each Lot No. 2 $3.00 each Lot No. 3 $3.50 each
It's worth your time to come and see these—if you don't buy any, it's a good reason you don't need any.

On Thursday and Friday, the Last Days of 1915, Come to Our Rummage Sale

In Our Millinery Department
We have all told 30 Hats and Caps left, prices were from $2.00 to $5.00. The lot will last but a short time. All at 48c EACH

One Thousand yards of light and dark colored Outing Flannels
The Regular Price is 12½c. Bargains like these you never saw before. PRICE 7½c

This sale includes nearly everything in the store so come prepared—bring your purse. It means much to you. No goods on approval. No goods to be returned. No goods charged. No trading stamps during this sale.

1000 yards Colored Dress Flannel-ettes worth 12½c a yard.
Will be at this sale 7½c
The few prices we give here will give you an idea of what this sale means to a thrifty housekeeper.

Shoes and Oxfords Of course this is not oxford time but it will be ere long. It will pay you well to buy now. One counter of women's shoes and oxfords in numerous styles. Formerly $3.00 and $4.00 a pair. Your choice $1.48 per pair

Every item in the store, with a few exceptions, will be reduced in price. Come and see what we will do with Ladies' Suits and Skirts. Different lots will be closed out, so you better be here every morning at nine o'clock during this sale and don't lose sight of the fact that we carry the most complete line of High Class Merchandise in Little Falls.

Women's Silk and Serge Dresses, Gingham Dresses, Wrappers, Kimonos,
In Fact Nothing is Reserved

3 Fur Astrakan Coats $15.00 each
Price was $40.00. We don't invoice these.

50 dozen Children's Heavy Ribbed Stockings PRICE 10c
You buy these many places at 25c a pair.

Thursday and Friday, the last days of 1915-Rummage Sale—you better be here

Don't Fail To Be Here THURSDAY and FRIDAY.

The St. Paul Store

Something NEW Every Day

FAWNDALE

Dec. 16.—John Lyshik, Jr., had the misfortune of dislocating his right shoulder, while out joy riding on his bicycle, Sunday evening.
Miss Marjorie Eshelman left the home of her grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, Monday for Staples, where she will reside with her aunt, Mrs. Daily, until after New Years.
News has been received here that Carl Traubant of St. Cloud has been stricken with infantile paralysis. He was taken down Sept. 15, and has not been able to be up since, but hopes are being entertained for his complete recovery. Mr. Traubant is not very well known in this vicinity, but as his wife was formerly Miss Jessie Dingman of Swan River, she has our sympathy and well wishes.
The Fawndale Glea club held its regular meeting at the home of Nels Melby last Saturday evening, when the following program was rendered:
Reading—"Christmas Revels"..... George Larson
Recitation..... Alpha Swanson
Reading—"Story of Piccola".....
Recitation..... Lucille Yagar
Recitation—"Setting My Traps"..... Charles Anderson
Talk on Modern Inventions..... Edwin Swanson
After the program a social hour was enjoyed by all. Light refreshments were served.
A Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year is wished all the readers of this paper.
Miss Hilder Peterson has returned from Chicago and will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Peterson, of East Swanville.
Miss Lillian Redin left for her home at Grove City Friday, where she will spend the holidays.
Miss Clara Bosell returned to her home from Little Falls, where she will stay until after New Years.
Steven Pirowecz accidentally cut his knee the other day, while he was butchering hogs.
Frank Ferguson and niece, Miss Polly and Anton Jendro of Bowlus were Sunday visitors at the J. Lyshik home in Swan River.

BRICKYARDS

Dec. 22.—Merry Christmas.
Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Longfellow and children spent Sunday at their farm, in Rail Prairie.
Mr. and Mrs. Cook of Fort Ripley visited a few days this week at the home of their son, Carl Cook.
George Beauchamp of Minneapolis visited a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. Birch last week.
Miss Clara Larsen returned Saturday from Pillager, to spend her Christmas vacation at her home here.
Edward Birch and sister Lottie, Louis Strom and Sam Olson attended the surprise part on Theodore Torber-son, Saturday evening.
Miss Elizabeth Westberg visited friends in Little Falls Friday and Saturday.
A number of our young folks attended the Christmas program given by the teachers, Misses Berg and Elvig, at their school in Twin Lakes, Wednesday evening.
Miss Della Quine of Culdrum spent the week-end at her home here.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Muncy and daughters, Jeanette and Merle, visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. E. Manbeck.
Miss Mary Kull returned to her home at Green Prairie Sunday, to spend a two weeks' vacation.
Verner Anderson returned home last Friday from a visit with relatives in Iowa.
Word has been received from Mrs. L. C. Savage, who was called to Mason, Iowa, by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Bright, of his estate at his home last Friday.
Friends received the sad news of the death of Mrs. Charles Nordquist of tuberculosis, at her home in Geneva, Ill. She leaves besides her husband, three small children, Everett, Leonard and Arline, to mourn her loss. Mr. and Mrs. Nordquist were former residents of this place.
Members of the Meadow View Sunday school will give a Christmas program at the Assembly hall Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody welcome to attend.
Rev. J. Watson of Little Falls will hold services at the Assembly hall Sunday at 2:45 p. m. Everybody come.

PIERZ

Pierz Journal (16): Frank Langer returned last week to Gleda, Minn., to resume his duties as station agent.
Louis Eller will soon leave for Alberta, Canada, on business. Frank Loidolt will take charge of the harness shop during his absence.
Ben Rose of New Munich, owner of the Herman Block farm, spent a few days here this week, looking after his place.
The village council is making an improvement, which will largely assist in fighting fires. The bell towers are to be enclosed by boarding up from bottom to top, for a place to hang and dry hose after a fire. One length of hose is 50 feet. Placed across a joint in upper end of tower both ends hanging down, 50 feet will be drained of water and a good fire at the bottom will soon dry and get them ready for use.
Nick Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Meyer returned home from Detroit, Mich., last Saturday, where he had been working in a boiler shop for the last eight months.
Hubert Bednar of Canada, now here on a visit, says that where he lives the Germans are treated as well as any Canadian and he has no complaint to make. He says further that property in his neighborhood has not been reduced in price, and that it is as valuable today as it was before the war.
Fred Gravel of Onamia was in Pierz between trains last Monday.
J. J. Hennen of St. Paul was here visiting his father and other relatives the first of the week. He just sold 14,434 acres of land, 20 miles north of Ingoma, Rosebud county, Mont.
John Macho and wife and their son Tony and wife of Philbrook, visited at the Theiser home in Agram last Sunday. They came by auto.
Peter Theisen of Meyer, Mitchell county, Iowa, was here visiting with the Math. Valentine family last week.
Cornelius Bates, who has been visiting with his father, I. J. Bates, for the past week, left Friday evening for Chicago, where he is employed with the Chicago Portrait Co.