

HAPPENINGS OF THE PAST YEAR
(Continued from page 2)

Otto Nieman of Pike Creek.
 June 25.—Joe Dieckrich of Little Falls received an offer from the Detroit team of the American league for a tryout. He accepted and was sent to Ottawa, of the Canadian league, where he was making good but badly sprained an ankle and retired for the season.
 June 27.—The All Stars lost to Verdale, 3 to 0.
 June 27.—The Victors defeated Buckman, 7 to 3.
 June 27.—Fr. Vietor, O. S. B. (John Rassier), said his first mass at Sacred Heart church.
 June 28.—In district court, John Berg of Upsala was sentenced to the state penitentiary at Stillwater for an indeterminate term, after pleading guilty to a charge of incest.
 June 29.—The Redpath-Vawter Chautauqua opened here. It lasted a week and was very successful.
 June 29.—The Franciscan Sisters let the contracts for the construction of a new hospital building. The total amount of the contracts was $61,997.
 June 30.—Ray Butts disposed of the Milo theatre to H. B. Smoots of Kerkhoven.
July
 July 3.—John O'Shea of Minneapolis, formerly of Little Falls, was injured in an auto accident at St. Paul. R. M. Schirmer, head of the Bureau of Engraving, where O'Shea was employed, was killed in the accident.
 July 5.—Paul Mayrand and family of this city figured in an auto accident between this city and Pierz, when their car went over an embankment. All escaped with slight injuries.
 July 5.—Little Falls All Stars trimmed Royalton, 5 to 0.
 July 5.—The Little Falls Gun club held the first shoot of the season.
 July 9.—City Assessor Frank Ellenbecker made returns to the county auditor. The books showed a total personal property valuation of $690,000.
 July 11.—Miss Florence Johnson of Elm Dale committed suicide by shooting herself with a 22-calibre rifle, while in a boat on a lake a short distance from her home. Her body fell into the lake, where it was recovered later.
 July 11.—The All Stars played a tie game of 5 and 5 with Brainerd, the game being called on account of the 6 o'clock law.

 July 11.—The Northenders defeated Ft. Ripley, 3 to 2, on the local grounds.
 July 11.—The Little Falls Auto club made a tour to Brainerd, Mille Laacs lake and Crow Wing lake.
 July 14.—Earl Venners, aged 14 years, had a narrow escape from electrocution when his hands came in contact with live electric wires.
 July 17.—The school board held its annual meeting. Mrs. L. D. Brown was elected to the board.
 July 18.—The All Stars defeated Royalton, 5 to 2.
 July 21.—Work was begun on the construction of a women's exhibit building at the fair grounds.
 July 22.—The West hotel was sold to F. W. Asher of St. Paul by W. N. Daniels.
 July 22.—Judge Parsons of Ferguson Falls gave H. Novitski a judgment for $250 damages against the Henneggin Paper company, for injuries sustained at the paper mill.
 July 23.—Chester Sumner, 8-year-old son of Mrs. T. H. Hyson, was drowned in the Mississippi river, near the Drellock ice house.
 July 24.—John J. Gwosdz of Swan River lost $200 in cash on his way to town to pay off a debt. He never recovered the money.
 July 24.—Chas. Manson, alias W. J. Langdon, forged and successfully passed several checks on local business places. He secured about $40. He was caught later in Nebraska, but escaped again by breaking jail.
 July 25.—John Johnson of Floriston, Cal., a cousin of Eric Johnson of this city and a former resident of Little Falls, was killed by a train.
 July 25.—The All Stars were defeated by Brainerd at that place, 5 to 1.
 July 25.—The Northend and Randall teams played tie game, 5 and 5.
 July 25.—The Victors were defeated by Buckman, 5 to 0.
 July 26.—Mrs. N. H. Jacobson of this city died from cancer, at an age of 52 years. Deceased had resided in Little Falls over 30 years.
 July 26.—The Grand Forks Concrete company was awarded the contract for the construction of the Third street northeast sewer for $1,395.
 July 28.—A three-day session at which 76 rural teachers took examinations, closed.
 July 28.—Iron ore deposits are found on land at Barrows, in which Messrs. C. B. Buckman, Geo. Schroeder and A. Simonet of this city are interested.

 July 30.—A Harrison, a railway conductor, was held up and robbed at Darling. He was relieved of his watch and $86 in cash.
 July 30.—The law requiring railroads in Minnesota to pay employees semi-monthly, went into effect. L. W. Vasily of Little Falls fathered the bill in the house.
August
 Aug. 1.—Bernt Augustad of Little Falls was drowned in Fish Trap lake, when a launch in which he and three companions were riding, capsized.
 Aug. 1.—The All Stars defeated Sauk Rapids, 9 to 2, on local grounds.
 Aug. 2.—The Victors defeated the Northend, 3 to 2 and Vawter, 3 to 0.
 Aug. 2.—Mrs. Edith Sturgeon, a pioneer resident of Morrison county, passed away here at the age of 54 years.
 Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the county board, a road tractor was purchased at a cost of $3,000.
 Aug. 5.—Orrin McRae and Walter Tatro of Swanville were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the barn in which they were sleeping.
 Aug. 10.—A. Anderson of Lincoln was hit by Train No. 14 and was slightly injured.
 Aug. 11.—Mrs. Belle Flood of Swanville was granted a teachers' pension. She was the first teacher in this county to get a pension. She had taught for 27 years.
 Aug. 12.—Six Sisters were invested with the hold habit and two took the first vows at the local Franciscan convent.
 Aug. 15.—The K. C. lodge of Little Falls held a picnic at Belle Prairie. Over 1200 people attended.
 Aug. 16.—William Hass, a farmer residing near Swanville, was seriously injured when he was attacked by a vicious bull.
 Aug. 16.—Anton Kuleeza, a pioneer resident of Morrison county, passed away at his home in Cudrum, at the age of 66 years.
 Aug. 18.—C. A. Weyerhaeuser of Little Falls won in an action in which he sued him for $23,575 damages for alleged injuries sustained when her milk wagon was hit by his car.
 Aug. 19.—The Victor theatre changed hands. It was sold at a sheriff's sale to the Water Power company, Morrison County Lumber company and the Adams Hardware company. The theatre was leased the same week to Sherman & Watson.

 Aug. 20.—John Lewis, lion trainer with the Patterson Carnival company, was killed by his lions at Northfield. He had appeared here the week previous.
 Aug. 25.—A Dalrymple and John Burkel of Little Falls were injured on a freight train at Staples, when the air brakes on the train were set as the result of a coupling breaking.
 Aug. 25.—Carl Kummert had his hand crushed at the saw mill when he was struck by a log carriage.
 Aug. 26.—John Hinder of Little Falls received a check for $2,250 in settlement of a damage claim against the Ross Ride company of Canada, for injuries sustained.
 Aug. 30.—The 4-year-old son of August Kedroski of Pike Creek had both his legs badly cut by a mower.
 Aug. 30.—Fred Bassett and Edward Johnson of Little Falls were killed in a freight train wreck near Barnesville.
 Aug. 31.—Elmer Noe of Swan River had his right hand shot off with a shotgun, which was accidentally discharged.
September
 Sept. 2.—Gustav Eix of South Little Falls town was hit in the shoulder by a stray bullet. The injury was not serious.
 Sept. 7.—Small game season opened. Hundreds of hunters went out from Little Falls and vicinity.
 Sept. 7.—Peter Anderson of Elm Dale was hit in the stomach by a hayrack pole. His death occurred the following day.
 Sept. 9.—Morrison county was awarded the second prize for its exhibit, in the Central section, at the state fair.
 Sept. 9.—An ordinance was passed by the city council, establishing a chain gang in Little Falls.
 Sept. 9.—O. J. Goodmanson of Little Falls captured six prizes for honey at the state fair.
 Sept. 15.—H. Kaatz, a peddler from Brainerd, was held up and robbed of $28 in cash and about $50 in goods, near Round lake.
 Sept. 16.—Edward Bernhoft of Chipewa Falls, Wis., visited his mother, Mrs. B. Ashburn of Little Falls, whom he had not seen for 28 years. She had mourned him for lost until a short time before he came home for a visit.
 Sept. 17.—Dave Bushaw and James Murphy were caught burglarizing the Cale store at Motley. Bushaw was sentenced to the county jail for three months and Murphy was sent to the St. Cloud reformatory.
 Sept. 19.—The ladies of Swan River gave a picnic for the benefit of the women's exhibit building at the fair grounds. It netted $23.90. The Swan River ladies in all raised over $100 for the building.
 Sept. 22.—Wm. Beattie purchased the Star restaurant from Dana Brown.
 Sept. 27.—The 7-year-old son of M. Laiture of Green Prairie had his cheek punctured by a bullet from a 22-calibre rifle.
 Sept. 22.—John Pointek of Opole was impaled on the tine of a pitchfork while loading hay. The injury did not prove serious.
 Sept. 23.—Mrs. Anne Harvey of Duluth filed notice of suit against the city for $1,250 damages for injuries which she alleged she sustained when she fell on a defective sidewalk. Suit was settled for $150.
 Sept. 24.—Mrs. Gertrude S. Hunter of Minneapolis was in the city in the interest of the suffrage cause. While here, she, together with a number of local women, waited on Congressman Lindbergh and thanked him for his work and asked him for continued support.
 Sept. 25.—The County fair at Little Falls closed. It lasted four days and was very successful.
 Sept. 27.—First snow fell.
 Sept. 23.—Mrs. Emma Eggleston of Nehalem, Ore., was burned to death in a fire which destroyed her home. She was the daughter of Mrs. Arminie Patnaude of Ft. Ripley.
October
 Oct. 2.—Little Falls high school football team won the first game of the season from Brainerd, 39 to 6.
 Oct. 4.—Congressman C. A. Lindbergh announced his candidacy for governor of Minnesota.
 Oct. 6.—Stephen A. Malburn, a pioneer resident of Morrison county died at his home at the age of 55 years.
 Oct. 6.—A choral club was organized at Little Falls, with Miss Maude G. Smalley as director.
 Oct. 6.—C. B. Buckman announced his candidacy for Congressman from this district.
 Oct. 8.—John Meyer of Morrill pleaded guilty before Judge Roeser to grand larceny, for theft at Pierz, and was sentenced to the St. Cloud reformatory for an indeterminate term.
 Oct. 9.—The high school football team beat Alexandria 75 to 0.
 Oct. 10.—Mrs. Margret Adams was rendered destitute by a fire which destroyed her home. She was forced on to the roof by the flames and was rescued by neighbors.
 Oct. 11.—F. R. Ziske of Little Falls made a record catch of fish in the Mississippi near the Big bend. He got over 100 pounds of fish in two hours.
 Oct. 13.—The little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hinote of Little Falls town drank poison and died.
 Oct. 14.—The little daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Hall was injured when she was hit by a car on the railroad crossing at Sixth street northeast.
 Oct. 14.—Truman Lanphere of Swanville town was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of assault on the person of Frank Giese. He was charged with breaking the plaintiff's jaw.
 Oct. 18.—Work was begun at Little Falls on the construction of a toll line from here to Sauk Centre for the Northwestern Telephone Exchange Co.
 Oct. 19.—Robert Olmstead, who broke jail in Little Falls in August, 1914, died at Manistique, Mich., from heart trouble. He had been held on a charge of assault and robbery.
 Oct. 20.—Otto Anderson of Cudrum was killed at Wyoming, this state, where he was employed. He was hit by a train while walking along the track.
 Oct. 20.—Paul Mayrand was badly injured in an auto accident between this city and Pierz. He was pinned under his car when it left the embankment.
 Oct. 22.—The G. A. R. veterans held a camp fire at Swanville. Paul Noe of Little Falls addressed the gathering.

 Oct. 22.—Carl Anderson of Minneapolis sustained bad injuries when he fell from the N. P. railroad bridge in the southern part of the city, while painting.
 Oct. 23.—The high school football team beat St. Cloud high, 7 to 6.
 Oct. 23.—The schools of Little Falls observed Flag Day with appropriate exercises. Hon. J. A. O. Proux, state auditor, gave an address.
 Oct. 24.—Four N. P. trains running into Little Falls were discontinued. One was a local operating between this city and Aitkin and the other a night train operating between St. Paul and Winnipeg.
 Oct. 26.—The body of an unidentified man was found near the railroad tracks at Lincoln. He had been killed by a train.
 Oct. 26.—Ted Klock and R. B. Klick of Elm Dale were bound over to the grand jury on charges of grand larceny. They were charged with the theft of cattle from the farm of W. McDermott of Burrtrum.
 Oct. 27.—Mrs. Margaret McGregor, a pioneer resident of Morrison county, passed away at her home in Little Falls, at the age of 81 years.
 Oct. 30.—John M. O'Brien of Deerwood was bound over to the federal grand jury at Duluth on a charge of introducing liquor into Indian territory.

November
 Nov. 3.—Leon and Arthur Wright, of Little Falls, had their feet crushed by sliding steel on a gondola car, while riding from Minneapolis to this city.
 Nov. 4.—Stephen Lepinski of the West side was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $10.65 for keeping his saloon open on Sunday.
 Nov. 4.—Work was begun on the construction of a paper mill at Brainerd for the Northwest Paper company, in which C. A. Weyerhaeuser of Little Falls is interested.
 Nov. 4.—James Smith was fined $150 by Judge Roeser at St. Cloud, for trying to pass a worthless check on a farmer from Wadena.
 Nov. 6.—The high school football team defeated Poley 59 to 0.
 Nov. 8.—The Royal Neighbors of Morrison county held a county convention here.
 Nov. 9.—Pierz was visited by a fire
 (Continued on page 5, Col. 1)

Your Car is Here!

The New Model—
Chevrolet
The Right Car at the Right PRICE

Model 490 Touring, Standard Equipment	$490 Factory
With Electric Lights and Self Starter	$550 Factory
Baby Grand Touring, Electric Lights and Self Starter	$750 Factory
Royal Mail Roadster, Electric Lights and Self Starter	$720 Factory

— DEMONSTRATIONS —
CENTRAL AUTO CO.
 CALDWELL & McDONALD,
 Little Falls, Minn.

ADD YOUR NAME TO OUR LONG LIST OF SATISFIED PATIENTS

Our satisfied patients are sending us their friends and have been since the establishment of this office

WE WANT YOU for whom we have done no work to add your name to that Long List of Satisfied Patients.

NOTE OUR PRICES

Gold Crown, 22k	$4
Bridge Work, per tooth
Porcelain Crowns
Porcelain Fillings	$1.50
Silver Fillings	50c
Set of Teeth, up from	$5.00
Painless Extraction of Teeth	50c

UNION DENTISTS
 VEETIN BLDG. Next to Germ. Amer. Nat. Bank
 Hours: 9 to 6 Lady Attendant Phone 57

No Sale Tickets Dec. 30 1915 - 20 DAYS - Jan. 19 1916 Terms strictly CASH

MID WINTER CLEARANCE SALE

All Broken Lines of Clothing, Furnishings, Men's, Ladies', Boys' and Children's Shoes of Strictly Up-to-date Styles.

We aim to close out all our seasonable and stylish goods so that we may carry always up-to-date merchandise.

25% On all Suits AND 10% to 25% Overcoats ON ALL the Rest

CALL AND SEE OUR OFFERINGS

VAL. E. KASPAREK
 VASALY BLOCK LITTLE FALLS, MINN.

HAPPY New Year

We wish to thank our patrons and the public generally for their generous support of our efforts to add increased fame to the career of "This House of Good Clothes"

That our efforts have been successful is best evidenced by the increase in volume of business we are enabled to show at the commencement of each New Year. Again thanking you and assuring you that we shall always be untiring in our efforts to give you the best service and the best values possible—

We Wish You All a Happy and Prosperous New Year

Victor Clothing Co.
 LITTLE FALLS, MINNESOTA