MOTLEY
 Motley Mercury (14): The Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges met Saturday evening at their hall and held joint installation. C. E. Seely acted as installing officer and Mrs. Fred Sears as Grand Marshall. After the installation of officers a short, but excellent program was given, and then everyone sat down to a splendidly prepared oyster supper. After the supper everyone joined in playing games and having a good time.
 Clarence Beggs was the victim of a very serious accident Wednesday afternoon, when his left arm got caught in a wood saw and both bones of the arm were sawed off. Mr. Beggs had taken his gasoline wood saw and gone out to the Wm. Huff farm to saw wood. He lost a great deal of blood and was so weak from its loss that he could not be moved until Thursday afternoon, when he was taken to town and took the afternoon train to Brainerd, where he entered the hospital. The arm was sawed about four inches below the elbow but fortunately the saw did not cut it clear off, the muscles on the inside not being cut, and it is thought that the arm can be saved.
 Mrs. H. E. Merrill and daughter Ruth left Wednesday for Minneapolis, where they will spend a few days before going south to join Mr. Merrill. Mr. Jacobs accompanied them as far as Staples.
