HOGWALLOW NEWS

DUNK BOTTS, Regular Correspondent
(George Bingham)

Bat Smith, who successfully operates the moonshine still on Musket Ridge, has requested us to notify his patrons around Hogwallow that hereafter all barrels must be returned as soon as empty.

Jefferson Potlocks was called to Rye Straw this morning on a pleasure trip. He carried with him a load of wagon wheels and an outlay of blacksmith tools, in order that he would not be delayed if he had a breakdown.

Yam Sims and Sidney Hocks swapped horses at the forks of the road after a two hours' deliberation and general inspection together with a mass of doubtful statements. They traded even, each giving five dollars to boot.

The Hogwallow Improvement society has ordered Jefferson Potlocks to have his hair cut by next Saturday week.

Miss Rosyola Moseley is becoming one of our most talented singers and her fame is spreading far beyond the confines of this voting precinct. She has a very strong voice, and sometimes when she gets to singing the audience has to get up and move back.

The Excelsior Fiddling Band serenaded the Old Miser on Musket Ridge Tuesday night. When he heard them coming he locked the doors and shut his eyes, pretending to be asleep, so that he would not have to pass out a jug to the band.

Cricket Hicks has returned from the Calf Ribs section, where for two days he held down an important and lucrative position at a saw mill. He has not yet decided what work he will engage in the future, but will first take a much needed rest for two or three months.

Raz Barlow was caught drinking out of the cistern bucket at the Dog Hill church last Sunday.

Prof. Sap Spradlen made a flying trip to Tickville last week, where he made a trade for a globe map of the world. He will use this in his argument with the trustees of the Wild Onion school that the world is round. In the past he has been teaching the flat system, using the flat maps of the blueback geography. The globe has been used for several years at Tickville and will have to be remodeled here and there on account of the European war.

A total stranger passed through Hogwallow yesterday taking up some soap advertisements. Several of our leading citizens, including the Postmaster, took exceptions to this suggestion, and ordered the man to move on.

The Mail Carrier left the postoffice this morning bound for Tickville. By pushing on the lines he believes he can make the run in a couple of days.

One of the wheels ran off of Tobe Moseley's wagon while he was coming down Musket Ridge yesterday. It rolled on ahead and when he got home it was leaning against the stable.

A crow has been setting on the haystack pole near the postoffice for several weeks, and it is believed it intends to build in Hogwallow and will not be bothered.

Poke Eazley, who has already commenced to follow the shade around the postoffice, has been badly upset for the past few days on account of the cloudy weather.

A strange lady, selling to the women folks things the men don't know anything about, was through here this week wearing a pair of shoes laced up the back. Though the lady has been gone for two or three days Sidney Hocks cannot understand why shoes should be made with back door entrances.
