FLENSBURG

June 7.—Joel Axmark was a caller in Little Falls Saturday. Hjalmer Rocene of Missoula, Mont., arrived here Friday for a visit at the home of his brother, Ernest Rocene. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harmonik and little daughter visited at the home of Mr. Harmonik's sister, Mrs. J. Mrozik, last Sunday. Next Sunday, the 11th, there will be services in the Congregational church here at 10:30 a. m. and 8 o'clock p. m. Rev. E. J. Aander, pastor. All are most cordially invited. Mr. and Mrs. John Bergstrom and children motored to Little Falls Sunday, where they attended church and also visited with friends. Miss Margaret Larson arrived Friday from Minneapolis, for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olof Larson. Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Rylander of Minneapolis arrived Friday evening for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rylander. Mr. Rylander returned Sunday evening and Mrs. Rylander will leave today for Glenwood, for a visit with relatives there, before returning home. Rev. E. J. Aander conducted services in Freedom last Sunday. John G. Bowie is a caller in Little Falls today. Most of the farmers are through planting their corn and potatoes. A pretty home wedding was quietly solemnized Saturday evening at Culdrum, when Miss Anna E. Rylander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rylander, became the bride of Louis O. Larson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Olof Larson. Rev. E. J. Aander, pastor of the Congregational church, read the service at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of only relatives and a few friends. The bride was dressed in a gown of white silk and lace overdraped and carried bridal roses. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a wedding supper was served for the guests. Miss Margaret Larson of Minneapolis and Miss Ethel Larson were bridesmaids and the groom was attended by Elmer Rylander and Hjalmer Rocene of Missoula, Mont. Mr. and Mrs. Larson will make their home here. Many friends unite in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

EAST DARLING

June 6.—A special train bearing boosters from Duluth was here Monday morning for a period of five minutes. A big band played several selections on the station platform but very few people turned out for it. Mrs. N. Emil Nelson came home from Minneapolis Sunday to remain for a week. Mr. and Mrs. S. Orton and daughter of Sauk Rapids came up here Sunday by automobile and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck at the Union station. Philip Heinz came home Sunday from Minneapolis. John Peterson, who works in Minneapolis, was home for a visit over Sunday. John Sova of Royalton was up here last Sunday and spent most of the day with friends at Fish Lake. He's so fond of fishing that he's afraid he will not be able to stick at Royalton. August Blomquist was in East Darling Monday on business. He also investigated a report that the rye there was 10 feet high but he found that it was only about two and one-half feet high. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fredrickson were in Little Falls on business Monday. It is said that the dog catcher will be on the job next week and he will take all dogs which are running at large.

SOUTHWEST DARLING

June 7.—Farmers have been busy planting corn and potatoes this week as the weather has been quite favorable. Everything is growing fine now. The town board met Monday and let a number of jobs for fixing the roads here. John Liljeblad was appointed road overseer in East Darling. We hope that we'll get the roads fixed up now. Herman Mattson called on August Blomquist Sunday. He looked over August's orchard and told him that he would get a big crop of fruit this year. Gust Nelson has a man and wife helping him on the farm this year. John Thelander has some of the finest clover in this vicinity thus far. It is about two feet high and is growing fast.

DARLING

June 7.—Next Wednesday, June 14, the Ladies' Sewing society will meet at the home of Mrs. Emil Peterson at Fish Lake. Arthur Regnell, the road overseer, has started to repair the roads. He had a crew of men and teams grading the road between Skoogberg's and Sanderson's and up to the railroad crossing Tuesday. William Thelander lost a valuable young horse one day last week. George Whipper drove to Little Falls Monday afternoon and Mrs. Whipper and infant son accompanied him home. Mrs. Bert McDonald and children, George and Helen, arrived last Saturday from Little Falls, and are at present visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Freeman. She will soon leave for Henrietta, Okla., where her husband is now employed. Miss Ethel McCarthy, who has been attending high school at Little Falls, returned to her home here last Saturday.
