SOUTHWEST DARLING

June 14.—The weather is warm now and everything is growing fine. We have had a little rain almost every day.

The new arrival at the home — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buttery of Warwick, N. D., was a daughter, not a son, as was first reported.

Otto Carlson of Twin Lakes visited with August Blomquist Sunday. Considerable repair work has been done on the roads in Pike Creek lately. The bridge has also been repaired.

Very few from here went to the Randall picnic Wednesday, on account of the rain.

The last of the corn and potato planting will be finished this week and the farmers will also have in all their barley then.

The town board will meet at the home of Herman Lemnitz, town clerk, on June 26.

Yankee street is quite badly in need of repairs.

What Farmers Who Have Silos Say About Them

Almost nine out of ten farmers who have silos, say they would not be without them and wonder how they ever got along without them so long.

The tenth farmer who has a silo and perhaps doesn't like it is the one who gets a poor silo or doesn't get it up right.

There is hardly any question about the absolute necessity for a silo on any farm where live stock is raised. The big question is to get the right silo for your farm and get it up right.

We will be glad to help you work out your silo problem, help you get the right silo for your farm and get the most silo value for your money.

Remember we deal in silos just as we deal in lumber and stand back of everything we sell you.
