

RHEUMATISM MAKES YOU FEEL OLD
PAINS AND ACHES YIELD TO SLOAN'S LINIMENT, THE FAMILY FRIEND

When your joints become stiff, your circulation poor, and your suffering makes you irritable, an application of Sloan's Liniment gives you quick relief—kills pain, starts up a good circulation, relieves congestion. It is easier and cleaner to use than mussy plasters or ointments, acts quickly and does not clog the pores. It does not stain the skin.

You don't need to rub—it penetrates. Certainly fine for rheumatism, stiff neck, sciatica, lame back, toothache, etc.

For sprains, strains, bruises, black and blue spots, Sloan's Liniment reduces the pain and eases the soreness.

Its use is so universal that you'll consider Sloan's Liniment a friend of the whole family. Your druggist sells it in 25c, 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Poke Eazley, who happened to buy a pair of striped pants that corresponded with those worn by the Deputy Constable, was arrested by the Deputy yesterday for trying to impersonate an officer of the law.

The school trustees visited the Wild Onion school Friday afternoon. They were treated royally by the teacher, who wants to teach there another term.

Miss Flutie Belcher announces to the public that she is now prepared to do plain and fancy singing on the shortest notice. No extra charge for Raz Barlow, who accompanies her anywhere on his fiddle.

Fit Smith, who has had more trouble with the law than most any citizen of this section, has made up his mind to do better, and hereafter will not steal a cow, even if he knows he will not be caught up with.

Columbus Allsop and Cricket Hicks were overtaken by a big rain while walking along the Gander creek road the other day. Cricket, though not half as big as Columbus, got just as wet.

The school teacher at Tickville is being prominently mentioned as a candidate for congress. If elected he would use the office only as a stepping-stone to something higher.

Poke Eazley, who tore down the stairway leading to the loft of his home, will have to put it back again, as he did not know his wife was in the loft at the time.

The Wild Onion school house must be repaired, and as the school teacher is the only one that gets any benefits from the building there, he will likely have to pay for the improvements.

The Old Miser, of Musket Ridge, who has had his money buried in one spot for the past several weeks, will move it this coming week. The Hogwallow Improvement Association has offered him inducements to move it to Hogwallow.

The Hogwallow Postmaster is now willing to agree with all that the position of a neutral is a very trying one. In the presidential campaign just closed he declared his neutrality and maintained it until the Rexall straw vote came in, when he appeared to have pretty strong Wilson leanings on up to the time of the early returns on Tuesday night of election day, when he came out for Hughes.

The following morning he again assumed a strong neutral position and his admiration for Wilson gradually grew and he soon became a Wilson follower. He admits that his neutrality got him into many snares, but says he used none of his influence for either candidate and now feels certain of his reappointment as postmaster on account of his long service.

JUDGMENT IN DUCLOS CASE

JUDGE ROESER ORDERS SALE OF BRICKYARDS TO SETTLE CLAIMS

Judge J. A. Roeser of St. Cloud has filed with Clerk of Court Stoll a judgment in the Duclos lien case, which was tried in district court here last spring. The decision is divided and concessions are granted the plaintiffs as well as the defendant. The total amount of the claims was over $10,000 but the judge allowed only about $6,000 of this amount.

The plaintiffs in the case were the Morrison County Lumber company, the Electric Construction company, The First National bank, the Little Falls Iron Works, R. Chambers and W. H. Ryan. The Electric Construction company was the only one of the plaintiffs which did not get a judgment. The claims are all subject to proceedings in bankruptcy against P. O. Duclos, the material furnished by them being for the new P. O. Duclos brickyards on liens against the property of Odilon Duclos.

The judge ordered that the brickyards be sold at a sheriff's sale to settle the claims.
