

PIERZ

June 4.—Last Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock occurred the marriage of Hubert Bares and Miss Frances Stumpf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stumpf of South Agram. Theresia Stumpf, sister of the bride and Agnes Bares, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Fred Stumpf, brother of the bride and John Bares, brother of the groom, were groomsmen. After the ceremony the newlyweds drove out to the farm of the bride's father, where a bountiful wedding dinner was served. They will make their home in St. Cloud. May they live happily together.

Peter Thommes had a serious accident last week with his new Ford car. He was out driving alone when all at once a horse jumped from the bushes onto the road and ran for some distance ahead of him. When they got to a bridge the horse did not want to cross, but stood right on the center of the road. Mr. Thommes instead of watching his car watched the horse and lost control of the car. When he saw that the car was going down over the bridge he jumped out and let the car run, which went over a 7-foot embankment, breaking the windshield, lamps, fenders and some smaller parts. If Mr. Thommes would not have jumped out his fate would be decided as the car turned upside down. Otto Hoffman and Mrs. Adrian Grell were among the county seat callers on Tuesday.

John Hoheisel of Platte was in town Thursday and reported that he had sold his store and saloon business and will start farming.
