

PIERZ

July 23.—Matt Meyer is the owner of a new 5-passenger Maxwell touring car. About fifty cars passed through here Sunday on their way to Sullivan lake, to cool off. Barley and rye cutting is in full swing. Edward Kapsner of Buckman was a visitor here Sunday. Charles Kapsner and his three sisters, who are nuns in a St. Paul convent, visited at Sullivan lake Monday. August Drows of Hillman, was in town on business Wednesday. The Pierz Farmers' Shipping association was dead for some time, but seems to have awakened last week, as they had quite an advertisement in the Pierz Journal. Reports from North Dakota say that the crop outlook is poor. Wheat is only about 8 inches high and it will be hard work gathering same. Theodore Brisk of Platte is employed by Nick Meyer in Mr. Meyer's butchershop. The hottest days of 1917 so far were Friday and Saturday, July 20 and 21. The farmers' creamery has purchased a boiler and engine of a firm in Oelwein, Iowa, and will have it shipped here in the near future. Henry Gassert was in Little Falls last week to attend the meeting of the county commissioners. Their show was A No. 1, considering the price. Mr. Schamel was a visitor in Platte last Sunday. At the mass meeting which was held in Pierz not so very long ago the following resolution was passed: Be it resolved that we petition our representative, Harold Knutson, to vote for Mr. Bitton's resolution, H. R. 5184, to exempt German-Americans from service abroad. Be it further resolved, that we consider it a menace to American liberty to allow Lord Northcliffe to remain in this country to usurp the power of the press, laying the foundation for the amalgamation of the two countries. We believe America is capable of conducting her own affairs without dictation of London. This was resolved by a gathering at Pierz of people from Pierz, Buh and Buckman on July 15. Theodore Thielen of Buh, F. X. Virning of Pierz and John Poster of Buckman went down to St. Paul to attend a peace meeting which was held there July 21. J. J. Brummer was an early Saturday morning caller here last week. Corn is beginning to grow too now days. It measures nearly four feet. The Pierz ball team journeyed to Little Falls Sunday for a clean game of ball. It was certainly a good game, but the Pierz fellers were a little bit out of practice and thereby were beaten by a score of 3 to 5, in favor of Little Falls. The Shaker medicine and vaudeville show, which showed in Pierz last week, left Thursday for Buckman, where they will have a ten days' run. Mr. Van Loon of the county seat was out here last week "rodding" some buildings.
