

The United States Government Food Administrator Says:

"Baking Powder Breads of corn and other coarse flours are recommended"

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Makes delicious muffins, cakes and coarse flour breads

CORN MEAL MUFFINS

3/4 cup corn meal
1 1/4 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 level teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons shortening

Mix thoroughly dry ingredients; add milk and melted shortening and beat well. Bake in greased muffin tins in hot oven about 20 minutes.

NUT BREAD

3 cups graham flour
5 level teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1 1/2 cups milk and water
1/2 cup sugar or corn syrup
1 cup chopped nuts (not too fine) or 1 cup raisins, washed and floured

Mix together flour, baking powder and salt; add milk and water, sugar or corn syrup and nuts or raisins. Put into greased loaf pan, allow to stand 30 minutes in warm place. Bake in moderate oven 40 to 45 minutes.

LUCE LINE STOCKHOLDERS WANT MONEY BACK

According to the Long Prairie Leader of last Friday the people in that vicinity who subscribed for stock in the proposed Luce line, have asked that the company return their money. The guarantee of par value on shares expired this week. A committee from Long Prairie was sent down to visit the Luce officials.

Luce line stock was also sold in this county and it will be three years some time this winter since people in the vicinity of Pierz and in Buckman bought stock in this concern, which was to build a line up into that territory.
