DUNK BOTTS, Regular Correspondent
(George Bingham)

The Deputy Constable has gone to the Gimlet creek section to look after a law violator. He is disguised as an armored tank, as he put a stove eye in his shirt bosom and went by the Hog Ford still house.

Cricket Hicks has written to the Question Column to learn if it makes any difference if a person moves his feet while having a bust picture made. Atlas Peck says next to starting a balky mule, the hardest thing to stop is a wild rumor.

It now costs twice as much to send a post card greeting to a friend, and we should meet the expense by doubling the value of their friendship.

Cricket Hicks believes a tramp has Dock Hocks was shopping at Rye Straw Saturday. His mule trotted fast all the way home, as Dock had on board a sack of corn.

more time to do nothing than anybody. The Rye Straw storekeeper, who has been a bachelor for a long time, told a man the other day that the women folks still dressed up when they came to the store, even if they did not expect to anybody except him.

One word of explanation in large letters is worth a column of detail when you haven't got your specs.

Sile Kildew peeped into a cistern Sunday morning and saw himself. He says looking into a cistern is a sight cheaper than having a picture made.

The house occupied by the Hog Ford preacher has been too small for him and his family for some time, and on last Friday night the congregation went silently to his home and built a nice shed room and front porch while he and family slept.

The high cost of extravagance is the cause of some of the high cost of living, according to the Dog Hill preacher.

Slim Piemens has come to the conclusion that it is high time he was getting down to business and settling down and has taken a seat in the shade at the postoffice.

The girls on the magazine covers have taken off their excess winter garb and made a spring drive for a front line position on the news stands.

Yam Simms accompanied the Widow of the Calf Ribs neighborhood to the Rye Straw store Tuesday to assist her home with a spoon of threat, but she could not find any thread to suit her.

Mrs. Poke Easley relates to us a remarkable incident, and we believe we have never heard of another case just like it. She says a short time ago she set one of her hens on twelve eggs, and when she came off she had fourteen chickens.

Frisby Hancock has resigned as a member of the Excelsior Fiddling Band and now uses his bass fiddle to call his cows and hogs.

The Tickville Brass Band has a new piece of music and while they are learning to play it the public is requested to listen when they hear it.

Having combined our real estate business, we are better prepared to handle your farm lands and city property that you have for sale or rent. We have buyers for 40, 80 and 160-acre farms, and will give you the best of service.

"Setting up work" puts him in fine condition. And what an appetite—and how good the little chew of Real Gravelly goes!

It's Easy to Send Him a pouch of Real GRAVELLY Chewing Plug

That's the tobacco for him—Real Gravelly Chewing Plug—condensed quality—the most tobacco satisfaction in the smallest space, ready to give him the solid comfort of tobacco wherever he happens to be.

Give any man a pouch of Real Gravelly Plug, and he will tell you that's the kind to send. Send the best! Ordinary plug is false economy. It costs less per week to chew Real Gravelly, because a small chew of it lasts a long while.

If you smoke a pipe, slice Gravelly with your knife and add a little to your smoking tobacco. It will give flavor—improve your smoke.

SEND YOUR FRIEND IN THE U. S. SERVICE A POUCH OF GRAVELLY
Dealers all around here carry it in 10c. pouches. A 3c. stamp will put it into his hands in any Training Camp or Section of the U. S. A. Even "over there" a 3c. stamp will take it to him. Your dealer will supply envelope and give you official directions how to address it.

OUTLINES THE WORK

FARM BUREAU AGENT WILL BE BUSY WITH MANY FARM PROJECTS

At a meeting of the Farm Bureau work for the coming year was outlined as follows:

The Farm Bureau organization aims to establish teamwork for agricultural improvement by uniting the efforts of the nation, state and county.

The county agent movement in the northern and western states has developed within the past five years from 4 agents to more than 800 and all but four of Minnesota's 86 counties have made provision for the employment of county agents.

Each community in Morrison county will be inventoried so that the farmers can determine for themselves the things that they feel ought to be done. Some of the projects that will receive consideration are:

- Farmers clubs will be given assistance.
- Alfalfa and clover demonstrations will be carried on.
- Potato demonstrations; seed selection, disease control and standardization.
- Grain improvement; seed selection and disease control.
- Co-operation in organization of livestock breeders' associations.
- Organization of cow testing associations.
- Farm accounting.
- Organization of boys and girls club work.

Committees of farmers in the county will be appointed to head the work for each project in order to actively promote its improvement. In this way the farm bureau will bring together the combined wisdom of the very best farmers in the county, giving to the farmer a full voice in the things that ought to be undertaken in each community.

If six hundred members are secured in our county the federal government will pay the entire salary of an assistant county agent, thereby giving the county the best service. It is to be hoped that every loyal American interested in team work in food production will come out and boost for the farm bureau.

FORMED WAR SAVINGS SOCIETY
The County Officers' War Savings Society of Morrison county was formed Monday afternoon with Frank Renick as president, R. M. Barnes secretary and Miss Cecelia Adams treasurer. Meetings will be held the second Monday of each month in the county commissioners' room.

The loyalty meeting at Freedmen on Saturday evening, which was addressed by Deputy State Auditor Chase and C. Rosenmeier, was a fine gathering. Beside a collection of $61 for the Red Cross patrons of the creamery pledged themselves to give one per cent of their cream checks each month to the Red Cross.

M. B. A. CELEBRATES 21ST ANNIVERSARY
Thursday evening of last week the M. B. A., besides dedicating a service flag, celebrated the 21st anniversary of the institution of the order. Addresses were made by S. C. Vasaly and Theodore Bradley. There was also music and cards indulged in. Members who belong to the army are: Lloyd Anderson, Leslie J. Berke, Warren Lakin and Fioda Fournier.

Good Appearance!

IT IS SAID that clothes do not make the man. That may be true to some extent, but it is a proven fact that there are times in a man's life when appearance either makes or breaks him for life. When you meet a stranger he will judge you by your appearance and not by your wealth or popularity.

Our Hart, Schaffner & Marx, and David Adler collegian clothes, with McKibben or Lanpher hat or cap, O'Donnell or J. P. Smith shoes and a Earl & Wilson shirt, a Deiche's tie will make you look and feel like a millionaire, then you will enjoy that confident feeling that your appearance will not deter your progress toward the top of the ladder of success.
