

SOLONS FOR WARNER

SIXTH DISTRICT STATE REPRESENTATIVES GET BEHIND AITKIN MAN FOR SPEAKER

C. H. Warner, representative from Aitkin county, was endorsed for speaker of the house by members from the Sixth congressional district, at a meeting held at the Board of Commerce rooms in Little Falls Friday afternoon.

Support was offered to Mark Woolley of Park Rapids for one of the elective offices apportioned to the sixth district should he care to accept. Oscar Arneson, who has been chief clerk of the house for a number of years, was given the conference endorsement.

The meeting was presided over by C. W. Bouck of Royalton, who had called the meeting. F. C. McGivern was secretary.

The steering committee is composed of C. W. Bouck of Royalton and John B. Pattison of St. Cloud and E. R. Hinds of Park Rapids.

Those present were Daniel DeLury, Walker, Wm. S. Enger, Big Lake; F. C. McGivern, Staples; E. R. Hinds, Park Rapids; John B. Pattison, St. Cloud; W. H. Johnson, Sebeka; C. H. Warner, Aitkin; A. E. Rako, Bemidji; C. W. Bouck, Royalton.

At 6 o'clock the representatives were entertained by members of the Board of Commerce at the Buckman at dinner, short talks being made by Mayor Berghelm, J. W. Stephenson, president of the board of Commerce and Representatives Pattison, Warner and Bouck.

Mayor Berghelm mentioned a number of matters that it was very likely the representatives would have to act on at the coming session and while not asking for anything particularly, he hoped that should our agricultural fair bill, which was handled by Messrs. Brown and Bouck in the house last session, but reached the senate too late for action, come up again, it would receive proper recognition.

The sad news was received Saturday morning of the death of Sergeant Harry Swanson in France. Sergeant Swanson, son of J. Swanson, was killed here, was killed in action September 29, in one of the great fights. He was loved and respected by many friends and all who knew him.

The news was a blow to everyone in spite of the knowledge of the noble cause for which he gave his life. It seems almost impossible that he, who was so sunny dispositioned and kind to all, should not return when the other boys come home.

He lived in this vicinity many years, entering the service from Riverside, Mont., where he then lived. He leaves to mourn his loss his father, C. J. Swanson, one sister, Mrs. Ernest Schutt of Riverside, Mont., and one brother, Marshall, of Canada, besides many friends.

Richard Borgstrom of this vicinity and Miss Della Hershey of Little Falls, surprised the friends Saturday by the announcement of their marriage. The wedding took place at Brainerd on Friday.

The happy couple are now residing on the farm recently purchased by Mr. Borgstrom and formerly occupied by Mr. Johns. Much happiness is wished for them by their many friends.

THE ENERGY EXPENDED IN SEEING

It surprises many people to learn that a great amount of energy is consumed in seeing—but it's so. And where errors of vision are present, the energy consumed is so great that other portions of the body are robbed of their supply. Then the trouble begins—trouble which will end only when proper glasses are worn.
