WIN TRIP TO FAIR

LITTLE FALLS GIRL AND SWANVILLE GIRL PRIZE WINNERS IN BREAD CONTEST.

Miss Dona Stoll of Swanville won first prize in Class A bread baking contest conducted at the Little Falls high school Friday and Miss Cecille Drollack of Little Falls won first prize in Class B. These two girls will get a free trip to the state fair this fall, where they will participate in the state contest.

Miss Susan Hough conducted the contests. First she held local contests in the various communities and the two winners of each of these contests were here for the county contest Friday. Miss Alberta Gustafson of the university farm school acted as judge at the county contest.

The insurance office of Signor & Schallert has been repainted and redecorated.

Henry Kipply of Pierz was operated upon for appendicitis at St. Gabriel's hospital Friday.

E. H. Klake of Minneapolis has taken a position as barber at the Fearing & Kidder shop.

The junior band, of which J. E. Basicot is director, is continually increasing in size and it now has fifty-five members. This band will make its first appearance on July Fourth, when it will participate in the celebration.

State Road No. 8, which runs east from the river road in Belle Prairie, will be fixed up this summer. This road is subject to very heavy traffic as it is traveled by big trucks from the Little Falls Black Granite Company hauling granite to the finishing shops in Little Falls.

John Armstrong and Jim Harder of the local salaried team and Peter Newman played with Menagha against Nevis, at Menagha, Sunday. Menagha won, 16 to 4. Ed Taber, Ray Berger and Steve Besemer played with Ft. Ripley against the Brainerd Speedwells Sunday, at Ft. Ripley. The game ended in a tie, 3 to 3 in the eleventh inning.

H. C. Hotelling, editor of the Mapleton Enterprise and field secretary of the National Editorial Association, was in Little Falls a few hours between trains Saturday, enroute to Grey Eagle to attend the funeral of Mrs. C. W. Wilke, who was killed in the storm last week. Mr. Hotelling returned last week from the east, where he attended the annual convention and trip of the National Editorial Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Anderson are here from Groveland, Fla., and have invested in a ten-acre tract of land just west of the city, as the result of reading an advertisement in a Chicago paper, which they picked up in Toledo, Ohio, of land for sale here. They formerly lived in North Dakota and from there moved to Florida. They got tired of the southern climate and came north in quest of a new location. Stopping at Toledo to look over the farm prospects there Mrs. Anderson picked up the Chicago paper and read the advertisement of a local real estate man. She showed her husband the advertisement and they came here at once.

ELKS LODGE INITIATES FIFTY-THREE.

A class of fifty-three candidates was initiated by the Little Falls Elks lodge last Friday evening. The candidates and a large number of members paraded the main-streets early in the evening, led by the city band. The degree work was put on in the Elks hall, music for same being furnished by the well-known Elks quartette from St. Cloud. After the initiation the members were treated to a show at the Lowell which included two pictures and vaudeville. A big feed at the hall concluded the program. Fully two hundred Elks, in addition to the candidates, were present. Elks from Sauk Centre, Long Prairie, St. Cloud, and other places, were here for the initiation.

Another big class will be taken in by the lodge this fall.
