A SACRED CONCERT

AT PINE GROVE PARK NEXT SUNDAY BY LITTLE FALLS BAND.

Next Sunday afternoon, July 4, the Little Falls Band, under J. E. Rasicot, will give the first sacred concert of the season at Pine Grove Park. A fine program has been arranged for this first sacred concert, which everyone should hear.

The quality of the music produced by Tanner, and Bye attempted to make average and the director, Mr. Rasicot, as well as each individual player, deserves credit. The weekly concert given Thursday evening of last week at the downtown bandstand was first class. "Golden Crescent Overture," by H. C. Miller, "Old Settlers on Parade," by O. W. Dalbey, and "Serenade—The Old Church Organ," by W. P. Chambers, were especially pleasing. The last named may be given again next Sunday, several requests for its repetition having been made.

Following is the program for next Sunday's concert at the park.

2. Medley—"Gospel Hymns"....

INSANE MAN PICKED UP HERE—THOUGHT THIS WAS CHICAGO.

A man named Charles Whitney was picked up on one of the downtown streets Monday, by Sheriff Felix, after he had been notified by a resident of the West side that the man had called at his place and acted queerly. He had inquired as to where Long avenue was located. He left his grip at this place. The sheriff took the man to custody and in the man's coat pocket he found a letter addressed to Mrs. Chas. Whitney, 747 Long avenue, Chicago, Ill. The sheriff wired this party and immediately received word that the man was her husband and that her son would come here at once to get him. The son arrived on the afternoon train Tuesday and returned home with his father that evening.

SPORTSMEN'S CLUB TO MEET TONIGHT

President Totten of the Morrison County Sportsmen's club has called a meeting of the club for tonight at the city hall, at 8:30 o'clock. Several matters will be taken up, including the election of delegates to the state convention to be held at Lake Washington in LeSueur county July 15, 16 and 17. A report will be made by the committee on trap shooting. All members are urged to attend.

LANGER LEADS ON EARLY RETURNS.

In the republican primaries held Wednesday Langer was leading Fraser, Non-partisan, by 11,600 in 476 precincts out of 2,064. The Langer adherents feel confident of success, but the Non-partisans say that when the country vote is heard from their ticket will be an easy winner.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.

Miss Eliza Batzer, county superintendent of schools, announces that teachers' examinations for common school certificates will be held in the Little Falls and Royalton high schools on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, July 26, 27 and 28.

Misses Helen and Phyllis Lipinski are expected home from Minneapolis tomorrow for a visit with their parents until after Monday.

W. L. Cary and L. F. Cary have disposed of their interests in the banks at Menasha and Dorset. They expect to take a trip over the Great Lakes, after which they will go west to look over several propositions.

The All Stars of this city will journey to Ft. Ripley Sunday for a return game with the team there. The locals won from the Ft. Ripley team two weeks ago, 6 to 4. Herb Newman will pitch for the All Stars.

Rev. H. J. Buckingham was at Sauk Rapids Wednesday, where he officiated at the wedding of Miss Persis Lonsdale and Mr. Frank V. Artig. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. Lonsdale of Sauk Rapids, formerly of Royalton.

Hereafter baseball fans will have to confine themselves to the grandstand and bleachers at baseball games, as a result of a ruling made by the management of the club. This is necessitated because of the fact that the fans have abused the privilege and undesirable advertising has resulted. The rule will be strictly enforced.

Clyde Kline, famous club wielder who played with Crosby last year, will be seen in action with the local team tonight, as well as in the Monday games with Brainerd. He will play in the outfield. Another big hitter has been dated up for the Sunday and Monday games. He is Pete Morris of Minneapolis, who has been one of Brainerd's best hitters this summer. He will play in the infield.

BASEBALL TONIGHT

LOCALS VS. STAPLES AT FAIR GROUNDS—AT BRAINERD SUNDAY—HERE MONDAY

At the fair grounds, this evening, beginning at 6:15 p. m. sharp, the local baseball team will clash with the Staples aggregation. The management of the local nine looks for a stiff battle with the railroaders as they are coming down here loaded up with some extra good men, including an outside pitcher of fame.

There is to be a shake-up in the batting order of the Little Falls team, according to the manager, and some new players will also be seen in action tonight. The club is determined to get up a winning team and desires that the fans here lend their moral support by boosting for the team.

Sunday the local boys journey to Brainerd where they will tackle Freddie Cook's aggregation. Freddie was down here last Monday evening and sized up the Little Falls bunch and he is going to give them a run for the money.

Monday the Brainerd team comes down here for two games with the locals, one at 10:45 Monday morning and one in the afternoon at 3:45, in connection with the Independence Day celebration here. A record attendance is predicted for these games.

Little Elizabeth Wollersheim fell Wednesday while playing and sustained a badly sprained right elbow.

The Farmers club of Pines, Hillman, will hold a big meeting next Wednesday evening. Mayor Berghem of Little Falls has been invited to speak at the meeting and he has accepted the invitation.

CHAUTAUQUA ENDS

CLOSING PROGRAM LAST EVENING—OFFERINGS WERE GOOD—BACK NEXT YEAR

Once more the chautauqua, with its great array of talent, has come and gone, leaving with us a greater sense of duty toward our country and community; a greater appreciation of music in its various forms; healthier in mind and happier. So well pleased were all with the Redpath-Vawter Company's program this year, as a whole, that it was the unanimous sentiment that it return again in 1921 and the required number of guarantors were secured without difficulty.

Yesterday was the last day of the chautauqua, the Stone-Platt-Bragers Trio furnishing the prelude for the evening program and Ada Ward giving a lecture on "You Americans." The musical prelude was a most delightful one, consisting of monologues and sketches by Miss Platt, banjo playing by Vernon Stone and accordion playing and singing by Achille Bragers, famous accordionist from Belgium. The lecture by Ada Ward was interesting and amusing, this Englishwoman telling in her own way her observations of America, its people and their characteristic ways.

Yesterday morning Cotton Moe, Kentucky humorist and poet, called "The Mark Twain of Kentucky," gave a lecture on "The Great American Home." This was not a lecture but a poetic interpretation, something distinctly novel to the people here.

The chautauqua was not only for grown-ups, as might be inferred from the number of lectures and high-class musical programs. Every morning there was the junior chautauqua, with a competent director in charge, and the children were treated to oodles of fun, besides rehearsing for the big pageant, "The County Fair," which was presented by the children yesterday afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon's offering was to prelude by the Premium Artists, a company of nine singers and musicians, followed by a lecture by Cong. Phil P. Campbell of Kansas on "What of the Republic?" Congressman Campbell has been a leader in congress since 1903 and has served as chairman of the rules committee, as well as having an extensive experience on various commissions to foreign countries. His treatise on the above named subject indicated deep study of the problems of this country and remedial needs.

The Premium Artists gave a full program Wednesday evening, consisting of vocal sextette numbers and solos, violin, flute and piano selections. The chautauqua opened Friday afternoon with a program of vocal and instrumental music by the Columbia Players, a company of six bright and jolly musicians who were very good. After this the children's work was organized.

Friday evening the Columbia Players gave a prelude which was thoroughly enjoyed. This was followed by the presentation in a monologue of the fascinating comedy, "Turn to the Right," by Edwin M. Whitney. This number alone was considered worth the price of the season ticket by many. Mr. Whitney is one of America's leading theatrical and musical men and his wonderful impersonating ability was demonstrated in this play, in which thirteen different characters were portrayed.

Saturday afternoon Dorothy Cole and company gave a pleasing prelude and they also gave the evening prelude. Dorothy Cole is a splendid reader and her readings, most of them humorous, brought rounds of applause from the audience. Altha Hefelbow, pianist, was very good, as was Victor Spedler, violinist. The last named is a young French lad of about eighteen and he is indeed a wonder.

Hon. W. E. Wenner gave an inspiring lecture on "A Square Deal for Jack," Saturday afternoon. His lecture dealt with boys' problems, as well as girls, on which he is an authority. In the evening Ralph B. Dennis, former American vice-consul to Russia, gave a very interesting talk on "Russia or America, Which?" Mr. Dennis spent eighteen months in Russia during the World war and had opportunity to make many observations as to that country and its people. He also spoke on the problems confronting America, presenting his views of the right way to Americanize foreigners, etc.

Sunday afternoon the Criterion Male Quartet gave a musical prelude and Rev. Wood, pulpit orator, gave an interesting and forceful address. Rev. Wood was substituted for Dr. Robert Johnston of Canada, who was forced to cancel all engagements on account of a paralytic stroke. A short vesper service followed Rev. Wood's address.

Of the musical programs, the one Sunday evening by the Criterion Quartet, was perhaps the best of the entire chautauqua. This quartet is one of the foremost of the country and has appeared in all the large cities, as well as having sung for scores of records for the Edison company. Their program Sunday evening was a varied and pleasing one, ranging from popular to the most classical quartet, duet and solo numbers. They were called upon for repeated encores, responding liberally.

A rare treat was afforded the chautauqua goers Monday morning in the lecture "In Other Men's Shoes," by Oney Fred Sweet, feature and short story writer for the Chicago Tribune. He told of his varied experiences while scouting around the country for three years, during which time he had held 100 different jobs or positions. He said his first job was clerk in a county court house, selling marriage licenses, which he chose with the hope that he would find an interesting romance to write up. He discovered after a time

VASALY RECEPTION

CHAS. E. VASALY, RETIRING FROM BOARD OF CONTROL, GIVEN FINE TRIBUTE

Chas. E. Vasaly of Little Falls, who resigned from the state board of control after eleven years service, to accept the superintendency of the St. Cloud reformatory, which duties he took up yesterday, was given a public reception at the state capital on Friday evening of last week.

Rev. H. C. Swearingen, who is a member of the state board of parole of which Mr. Vasaly was chairman, was the chairman of the program committee. The reception was held in the rotunda of the capitol, in the reception line being Rev. and Mrs. Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgson, Mrs. Ueland, Mr. and Mrs. Vasaly and three children, Misses Frances and Laura and Charles, Jr., and a number of others, the reception line being directly in front of a large bank of flowers, an orchestra playing during the reception.

After the reception the party repaired to the senate chamber, which proved all too small for those who wished to hear the program.

Rev. Swearingen was master of ceremonies, others making talks being Former Judge T. D. O'Brien, Miss Margaret Wells, Messrs. R. W. Wheelock, W. L. Mayo, C. J. Swenson, Dr. Kilbourne of St. Peter, Dr. Dubois of Sauk Centre, Otto W. Davis and Frank J. Bruno of the Minnesota Commission on social legislation.

The speakers gave great praise to the work of Mr. Vasaly during his tenure on the board, and regretted his resignation very much, but were pleased to know that he would continue in the service of the state.

The speakers pointed out that the occasion was a most unusual one, it being the only time that they could recollect where a state official was given a public reception on leaving office, but they hoped that many more would do so to serve the state, that there would be many repetitions of the same kind. Many resolutions from societies were also presented.

Twenty-two Twin city and state organizations were represented on the general committee. It was a fine tribute to Mr. Vasaly as a man and a state official and we are sure Little Falls feels a pride in having one of her citizens so honored.

MARRIED IN ST. CLOUD.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press of Friday contained an account of the marriage of Miss Ruth Jernberg of that city to Mr. Arthur Larson of Little Falls, which took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herman Palm, Thursday morning of last week. Rev. A. E. Belstrom performed the ceremony. Mrs. Larson is a normal graduate and taught at Brainerd several terms. Mr. Larson is assistant engineer in the office of J. E. Viner, county engineer. He came here from Elbow Lake, where he was engaged in similar work.

The board of public works held its final meeting Tuesday evening and checked up on unfinished work and prepared a report to be submitted to the council at its next meeting. Geo. Kiewel, L. O. Wessel and W. O. Beattie constituted the board. This department was done away with by the new charter.

that this was not the place to find it. Among the other lines of work he tried out were balloon salesman with the Ringling circus; railroad fireman; grand opera singer; steeple-jack; detective; night watchman in a cemetery; dog catcher; gypsy; farm hand; movie actor; beggar; actor; etc. His talk was very amusing and was considered one of the best talks of the week.

Monday afternoon—evening the well known Weber Band gave two full programs. Classical, old favorite and popular selections were given and all were thoroughly enjoyed. A feature of the evening program was the "Grand Military Fantasia," by Rollinson, a descriptive selection of reminiscences of the "Boys in Blue." The whistling solos by Miss Lulu McClellan were novel and pleasing and she also proved herself an able pianist. Miss Katherine Hoch, soprano soloist, captivated the audience and was called upon for repeated encores. Miss Hoch has an unusually high and sweet soprano voice and great volume.

Tuesday morning John Marvin Dean gave a lecture on "America's Tomorrow." Mr. Dean is a world traveler and evangelist as well as a student of affairs and his presentation of the subject named indicated a wide knowledge and deep study of the conditions in this country and the solution of the many problems that confront us.

Congressman Henry A. Barnhart entertained the chautauqua folks Tuesday afternoon with a most delightful talk on "Congress in Action." Although perhaps never having studied impersonating, he impersonated some of the more interesting characters in congress to perfection. He gave the audience a very good idea of what transpires in congress.

William J. Keighley and his full New York cast presented the roaring comedy, "Nothing But the Truth," Tuesday evening, to one of the largest crowds of the entire chautauqua week. The play dealt with a bet of $10,000, a twenty-four hour truth-teller and funny situations which kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. Wm. J. Keighley took the leading role, that of Robert Bennett, and Jean Brac took the part of Gwendolyn Balston, his sweetheart. Many local people saw the same play in motion pictures recently but they pronounced the stage play for more amusing.

DOINGS OF COUNCIL

PAVING ORDERED IN FOR SECOND TIME—FIX WEST BROADWAY.

The city council met in adjourned regular session Tuesday evening, all aldermen being present.

The call for a hearing on paving was read, also the petitions and names of petitioners. These papers were ordered filed.

Geo. Schroeder and John Vertin and others felt that paving should be limited to Broadway. Messrs. Love and Wessel favored paving the district as planned originally.

Alderman Brown introduced a resolution ordering the paving done and ordering the clerk to advertise for bids and calling for a final hearing on July 14. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Dr. W. H. K. Moyer presented a petition, asking for extension of the sprinkling district to Sixth avenue south on First street. A resolution was drawn up and passed, ordering the district extended as petitioned for.

DEMS IN CONVENTION

NOMINATIONS MADE—PLATFORM TO BE ACCEPTED BEFORE BALLOTING BEGINS.

Nominations have been made, and it was expected that the draft of the platform would be laid before the national democratic convention late yesterday afternoon. Balloting for candidates will not take place until after the acceptance of the platform.

Bryan is the storm center of the convention, and his espousal of a "bone dry" plank and his plank on the league of nations will be submitted to the open convention, they not being favored by the administration committee, although the vote in the sub-committee was 5 to 4.

Doings of the convention in brief, as given by dispatches at the time of going to press, were as follows: William G. McAdoo placed in nomination. Demonstration of forty-five minutes follows.

Democrats will select former secretary of the treasury on fifth ballot as the party standard bearer, managers predict. Cox favored for vice president. Old line democrats at wits' end to halt McAdoo stampede. Champ Clark, former speaker of house of representatives, brought forward as opposition candidate. Support of Bryan for Clark is sought. Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York boomed for Clark's running mate.

Cox and Palmer also given tremendous ovation when their names were brought before convention. Others placed in nomination were Senator Owen, Senator Hitchcock, Homer S. Cummings, Governor Edwards, Edwin T. Meredith and James W. Gerard.

Subcommittee drafting platform completes work and reports to full committee. Platform ignores wet and dry issues reported to have been laid on the table. Platform declared to sympathize with struggle for Irish "freedom," but sees hope for Erin in league of nations.
