

BIG CATTLE RUNS

PRICES SHOWED MODERATE DECLINE—SOME GRADES STEADY—VEALS UP

(United States Bureau of Markets and Minnesota Department of Agriculture)

Monday's Opening
Cattle: With a new one-day record of 23,800 cattle on hand, market opened slow, with practically all kinds of both killing cattle and stockers and feeders unevenly 25 cents or more lower. Veals opened on a steady to weak basis, best selling at $12.75.

Hogs: Receipts, 9,500. Market strong to 15c higher. Range $11.50 to $12.35. Bulk, $12.10 to $12.20. Top pigs $12.25. Sheep: Receipts 20,000. Weak to 25c lower. Top native lambs $10.50. Top ewes, $5.00.

South St. Paul, Minn., November 15, 1920.—Record smashing receipts of cattle featured last week's trade at South St. Paul. The former banner day, November 24, 1919 when 25,333 cattle were received, was eclipsed on Monday last week when 25,657 head arrived, and the week's marketings at 55,767 head shattered the former yard record for one week by more than 4,000 head. With this great influx of cattle locally, and liberal receipts at other points, marketing channels were temporarily clogged, causing uneven declines in cattle prices up to mid-week ranging from 25 to 75c. By Thursday, the congestion was cleared by the demand for cattle on shipping account, which continued on Friday, and enabled salesmen to retrieve a good share of the early week losses.

The bulk of the common and medium grades of beef steers sold at the finish from $6.50 to $9.00, with best steers in the week's trade, some North Dakota rangers of good grade here Friday at $11.25. Butcher cows and heifers closed mostly from $4.50 to $7.00, with best butcher heifers, some Montana handweights at $9.35. Price range for canners at the close was $2.75 to $3.25, with average above the even money mark. Canner cows are going largely from $3.50 to $4.25, with boigns bulls at $4.00 to $5.75 being unchanged for the week. Best veals advanced 25c, closing top being $12.75. Best stockers and feeders recovered the 25c loss sustained early and closed about steady with a week ago, while medium and common grades showed a loss of around 25 to 50c for the week's session.

Hog receipts increased and bulk at $12.00 to $12.15 Saturday stood $1.00 to $1.25 lower than a week ago. Best lambs around $10.75 closed, fully 50c lower and ewes at $5.00 to $5.25, 25 to 50c lower for the week.

St. Cloud Times (15) A delightful dancing party was given at the home of Miss Eleanor Theobald on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Gladys Riley and her fiance, Luel Ryan, of Little Falls, whose marriage takes place on November 25. The home was beautifully decorated in yellow and white chrysanthemums. Dainty refreshments were served later in the evening.

Paul Noe was rather cheery last Saturday afternoon as he rode from the court house to the Broadway bridge in a wheelbarrow piloted by Chas. Van Hercke. Paul, a dyed-in-the-wool republican, has been betting with Van Hercke on the presidential election outcome several times, and this time he won. Perched on the wheelbarrow and holding the American standard high in the air he was a sight to behold. And VanHercke was no less prominent as he was arrayed in a uniform which was simply stunning. The parade was witnessed by many folks and attracted much attention.

The Mothers' club of the Central school met at the school house Friday afternoon, a large number of women attending. A talk on "education" was given by Supt. Bergquist. In his talk, he stated that children gain their education not only in the school, but in the home, the church, the shop, etc., and through reading magazines, newspapers, books, etc. He emphasized the importance of proper supervision of the activities of the children by the parents before and after school hours. A report on the state educational convention was given by Mrs. L. D. Brown, president of the school board. Several pleasing musical numbers were given by the school children. Refreshments were served by Mesdames L. D. Brown, S. C. Vasaly, E. F. Shaw, A. F. Koslosky and H. E. Biddinger.

TO SAVE MUSKRATS

GOVERNOR ORDERS CLOSED SEASON ON FUR-BEARING ANIMALS

Governor Burnquist yesterday issued an order declaring a closed season for muskrats. No muskrats shall be taken, killed or had in possession in any number in Minnesota after December 1. The order shall remain in force until the last of April, 1921.

There is grave danger that the muskrat will be totally exterminated in Minnesota unless it is protected, according to Carlos Avery, state game and fish commissioner who recommended that the governor issue such an order as the above after receiving answer to questionnaires sent to fur dealers, trappers and farmers in the state in which the answers were 10 to 1 in favor of a closed season for muskrat.

The Sand Sisters have rented the store room in the Kiewel building, occupied by the Burton shoe store and will move their millinery store there as soon as the place is vacated by the present occupant.

A miscellaneous shower was given at the Coyle Cafe Friday evening for Miss Lillian Klosecky of Plensburg, whose marriage to Albert LaFond will take place Nov. 22. The bride-to-be received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mrs. H. Januszewski and sons Mike and Alfred left Saturday for Minneapolis, where they will reside in the future. The family has lived in Morrison county for many years, first on a farm in Swan River. They moved to Little Falls about thirteen years ago.

Following the meeting of the Eastern Star Monday evening a pleasant program was given, consisting of a duet by Mary and Louise Brown, readings by Genevieve Peterson readings by Lora Magee and recitations by Helen Weber. Following the program cards were played. A fine lunch concluded the evening's entertainment.

NO INDICTMENTS IN LIQUOR CASES

The federal grand jury in session at Fergus Falls failed to return indictments against Max Hamernick of Ouldrum and Frank Pach of Browerville, charged with violations of the prohibition laws, according to L. W. Carson, agent, who made the arrests. Hamernick was charged with transporting liquor and Pach was charged with the illicit manufacture of liquor.

An Overland car owned by Hamernick was confiscated by the agent at the time of the arrest and although the grand jury found no bill against him, he will be unable to regain possession of the car except through a civil court action, according to Mr. Carson. The same is true of any property confiscated. Mr. Carson went to Duluth this week to present evidence to the federal grand jury in session there in connection with several other arrests made in this vicinity for the illicit manufacture and transportation of contraband liquor.

The Professional Five Hundred Club was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hall, Sr., Tuesday evening.

On her way home from the school in Randall of which she is principal, she slipped and fell, fracturing the leg at the ankle.

Mrs. Eliza Davis and Mrs. J. A. Gaylord of Richville, who were called to Little Falls by the injury of Mrs. Davis' son, J. E. Davis, returned to their home Saturday. Mr. Davis was seriously injured when a car in which he was riding was hit by a train on a crossing near Darling. He is now getting along satisfactorily and will recover.
