

SWANVILLE
 April 6.—Parties from Albany, who purchased the Roff Bros. meat market, will take possession this week. They have purchased the building occupied by the meat market from John Stro-mann.
 Parties were in town last week looking up a location for a pickling factory. If the farmers will pledge 150 acres to be planted to cucumbers, the factory will be opened.
 Miss Minnie Lehrke of East Swanville, who has been at Claire, N. D., to attend the funeral of Wm. Zeroll, returned home on Monday. The young man's funeral was held on the day he was to have been married to Miss Lehrke. He was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Osakis, while on his way to this place. He died two days after the accident in a hospital at Osakis.

 J. J. McRae, Jr., is having a number of improvements made on his residence property.
 Albert Dennin, who has been visiting relatives here, returned Wednesday to Duluth, where he is employed.
 Mrs. J. J. McRae, Sr. and Mrs. O. A. Rhoda, who have been visiting relatives at Duluth, returned home Monday. Christ Molde and daughter, Miss Georgia Molde, of East Swanville, were callers in town Wednesday.

 Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gessel of East Swanville were callers here on Monday. The school faculty gave Miss Pauline Calhoun a pleasant surprise at her home on Thursday evening in honor of her birthday anniversary.
 N. E. Blair has purchased the Joe Tatro residence in the southern part of town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schneider of East Swanville were callers in town Wednesday.
 Mrs. Joe Maloney and daughter Molde, who have been visiting here at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stith, returned to their home at Little Falls, S. D. Thursday. Mrs. J. D. Stith accompanied them to Little Falls.

 Mrs. Ida Young returned Saturday from a business trip to Walker, Lewellyn and Carroll Sanford and John Ahlers left Thursday for Duluth, where they will be employed.
 Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Lenox have moved into a house on the Girkin farm, where they will reside until school is out, when they will move to Bellingham, Wash.
 Clyde Raff left Monday for the northern part of the state, where he will be employed with the bridge carpenters.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis, former residents of this place, who have spent the winter in California, arrived here Monday and are visiting at the Alex Hall home.
 The congregations of St. Peter's Lutheran churches of this place and Cudrum gave their pastor, Rev. Theo. Guknecht, a pleasant surprise on Wednesday evening in honor of his birthday anniversary. The party was held at the high school gymnasium and was attended by about 150 guests. A musical program was given by the young people. At the close of a delightful evening, refreshments were served. The guest of honor was presented with a sum of money.

 Mrs. E. C. Maxwell went to the Twin Cities Saturday to see her brother, Delbert Smith.
 Mrs. O. H. Kolbe and Mrs. H. W. Kaun will entertain the ladies' aid of St. Peter's Lutheran church on Friday afternoon at the home of the former.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Stith and sons, who have been visiting in California, are expected to return home next week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Richard Randles returned to Downing, Wis., Tuesday, after a visit with Mrs. Randles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Battles.

Archie Blake, in a letter to his parents here, states that he underwent an operation for adhesions at the government hospital at Ft. Bayard, N. M., March 22. He says that he is getting along nicely.
 Rev. W. L. Hass, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church of this city, is at Elizabeth this week attending the southern Park Region local conference of the German Lutheran church. He will return today.

PROSPERITY SWEEPING OVER THE NATION

The J. C. Penney Company's 312 Department Stores add the strength of their vast stocks of Dependable Merchandise at Lowest Prices to this National Effort to bring Peace, Comfort, Happiness and Prosperity to the people of this Miracle-Land of America

The J. C. PENNEY COMPANY'S 312 Department Stores Easily Accomplish Prosperity in their respective communities through Savings which grow out of elimination of waste of every sort

Our Nation-wide Institution, serving millions of people, saves for them—through its economic conservative methods....

- the loss of bad accounts —collection expenses —middlemen's profits (because of buying, largely, direct from manufacturers)
- buying for cash —selling for cash —and last but not least the J. C. Penney Company stores are content with very small profits

Such Service brings the Savings that are really the Foundation of Prosperity. Coupled with Fair Dealing and the inherent desire to serve—such savings have built this Nation-Wide Institution; and every community served by one of our 312 Department Stores, is materially benefited because these savings are passed on to patrons in Standard Quality Merchandise at the Lowest Price.
