

FOUND DEAD IN YARD BY NEIGHBORS

JOHN SCHULTE VICTIM OF A STROKE OF APOPLEXY—WAS HOME ALONE

John Schulte, 50 years old, a brother of Mrs. Matt Krause of Ninth street southeast, was found in the yard a short distance from the house Monday morning by neighbors. Death was caused by a stroke of apoplexy, according to Coroner O. J. Brown, who was called to make an examination. Mr. Schulte was staying at the Krause home alone, Mrs. Krause and daughter, Mrs. Ann Eimers, having gone to Parkston, S. D., for a visit with relatives. He came here for the funeral of Mr. Krause about three months ago and rode his home with his sister since. He had been feeling well until Sunday, when he was ailing and was advised by a neighbor to consult a doctor, but which he did not do, not considering it anything serious. Apparently he was stricken when going to the pump after water Sunday evening as the body was found near the pump, about twenty feet from the house. Mrs. Krause and daughter were notified of the death of Mr. Schulte and they arrived home Tuesday evening. The funeral will be held this morning from Sacred Heart church, Fr. Altendorf officiating. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

MANY TIMES CLOSE TO DEATH

Cowboy Must Have Had Creepy Feeling When He Realized What He Had Escaped.

The best story of horses' jumps which comes to mind is that of a cowboy. He was taking steers to Leadville and had camped for the night on Bear river near its junction with the Little Snake. In the middle of the night something occurred to stampede the cattle. The cowboy mounted his broncho and rode hither and thither on the flank of the herd until their fright had died away. Four or five times the rider felt his horse give tremendous leaps and with daybreak this covered the cause. The cattle had climbed to a level plateau which is intersected by a canyon four miles long and from 1,500 to 2,000 feet deep. Its walls incline toward each other at the top, where the distance is fifteen to twenty feet. In riding, the man had kept his steers circling about this plateau. A dozen of them he found had fallen down the canyon and been killed. Hoofmarks showed him that the great jumps made by his horses were occasioned by the animal's clearing the canyon each time it came to the talking-off spot.

Property of the Eugene Pilon estate was on Tuesday turned over to Mrs. Geo. F. Vachon of St. Paul, temporary administratrix, by F. X. Heroux, who had possession of same and who was named in the will of the decedent as administrator. Mr. Heroux failed to turn over the property, which included a safety deposit box, keys, etc., after Probate Judge Kemp declined to admit the will to probate. The judge on Monday issued an order demanding that F. X. Heroux show cause why he should not turn over this property, and the order was served by Sheriff Felix. Mr. Heroux would not turn the property over to the sheriff and it was necessary to get Mrs. Vachon to come here and take custody of same.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krottschinski of Swan River, pioneer residents of that township, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon at the old homestead which is now occupied by their son William and family. Both Mr. and Mrs. Krottschinski, although well along in years, are in good health and their many friends who attended the celebration extended them best wishes for many more years of health and happiness. A bed which Mr. and Mrs. Krottschinski received as a wedding gift fifty years ago and which in late years had been in the possession of their son, was presented to them on this occasion.

"Joy Niter Supreme"

That Jess Pugh is coming to star for Joy Nite on the Little Falls C hautauqua, which opens June 24 is causing rejoicing among local folks who remember his "Muel" story and "Snuff-stricken Reader" of several years ago. Jess will have Al Baker, Youniza and Billy Pryor, three joy wizards to help his company end Chautauqua in a big laugh riot.

SWANVILLE MAN WAS NOT CONNECTED WITH BURGLARY

Long Prairie Leader (17)—Ralph LaMont of Bruce calls the attention of the Leader to the fact that the item in our last issue to the effect that he had been implicated in robbing a store at Martin, N. D., is not true. It seems that the young men who did rob the store had previously taken Ralph's car. The car was identified and taken in charge by the sheriff. Being his car, it was assumed that he was connected with the robbery and the papers at Bal-four published that fact. We secured our information from one of these papers. We regret that this injustice was done Ralph and hasten to make correction.

HE MUST HAVE SHOT SNIPES IN THE ARMY

Three punctures on an eleven mile trip was the delightful experience of a traveling salesman who drove from Little Falls to Royalton Friday. All three punctures were caused by roofing tacks. He took the tacks along as "souvenirs."

Miss Pearl Johnson of Willmar is here visiting her sister, Mrs. V. E. Joslin, for a few weeks.

Clarence Buckman, little son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Buckman, was overcome by heat Saturday afternoon, while at the bathing beach. His condition for a time was bad but he is now over the effects of the same.

At a meeting of the W. C. O. F. Thursday evening of last week, Mrs. R. R. Reilly, (Marie Randall), was given a pleasant surprise. She was presented with a beautiful silver tea set.

At Clinton, Ia., on Wednesday of last week Miss Irene Ott of Davenport, Ia., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ott of Green Prairie, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl Schwartz of Moline, Ill.

A team owned by M. C. Noyes of Green Prairie ran away Saturday afternoon as the result of being frightened by something, and caused considerable damage. They ran down the alley from Broadway at the Muske & Johnson store corner and across First avenue southeast. The heavy wagon struck the porch on the old Dana Brown place across the street, damaging the porch and the wagon and breaking the leg of one horse. The injured animal had to be killed.

American Legion Corner

On June 14th, the Legion National Executive Committee, meeting in Indianapolis, elected John G. Emery as Legion National Commander. Commander Emery held the office of National Vice-Commander at home was in Grand Rapids, Michigan. He was wounded in the Meuse-Argonne offensive. His home is in Little Falls, Conn. was elected Legion National Vice-Commander in his place. In his first statement National Commander Emery said:

"The circumstances under which I assume the office of National Commander weigh my heart with grief. My most ardent desire would have been to continue as an humble lieutenant in the service of that great leader who was taken from us by an inexplicable act of God. My one aspiration is to bear those responsibilities as he would have borne them for the greater glory of our country."

"If I were to state in a few words what I believe to be the greatest service the American Legion has rendered our country, I would say that it has been the carrying-out by the Legion of the mandate of its constitution, which has instilled in the hearts of former service men and women a sense of duty and obligation to the community, state and nation. It is the determination of the Legion to emphasize always more vividly to each citizen his personal obligation of service to his country."

"The American Legion will continue its fight for the wounded and disabled until every man who gave his health and strength in the service of his country is adequately and generously provided for. The claims of these men have precedence over all other considerations of the American Legion. When they have been cared for, the Legion will address its full energies to the task of helping these financially disabled by reason of military or naval service."

"The Legion five-fold adjusted compensation bill now before Congress represents the payment of a just and acknowledged obligation, the country owes to those who have served it. It is a debt acknowledged by the people wherever the matter has been subject to popular vote. It is a debt the American Legion, with every resource at its command, will work to have repaid by action of the present Congress. It is vital to our security that the Government show that in return for individual loyalty it stands willing to accord individual justice to those who have served it."

State Commander A. H. Vernon has issued all Legion posts the official call for the Third Annual Minnesota Legion Convention at Winona, August 1, 2, 3, 1921. Each post may send two delegates and to alternate and one additional delegate and alternate for each 100 paid-up members or major fraction thereof. Reduced railroad rates are being secured and Winona citizens will go the limit to furnish the delegates the time of their lives.

As a tribute to the memory of the late Commander Galbraith and to fulfill his last wish, every Minnesota Legionnaire will lay a friendly hand upon the shoulder of a buddy on July Fourth and "sigh him up" according to an appeal issued to all Legionnaires of the state by the Department Commander, A. H. Vernon of Little Falls. This "every member of get a member" drive will be launched all over the nation July 4th, in accordance with plans issued by Commander Galbraith before his death. Incidentally, July Fourth is the birthday anniversary of the new national commander, John G. Emery of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Captain George Mallon, one of Pershing's 100 heroes and candidate for Lt. Governor of Minnesota at the last election, who has just returned from Kansas, states, "You have heard the statements that the American Legion started the shoulder of a buddy on July Fourth in Kansas. Those statements were true. The men who created the disturbance were thus stirred by interests who wrapped themselves in a cloak of 'loyalty.'"

CHILDREN WILL ENJOY CIRCUS

All the kiddies will not be in the crowds of youngsters that will flock out to the show grounds Friday, July 1st, to see the Rhoda Royal Circus put up" said Ed. L. Conroy, advance press man. And they won't be the only ones at the performance Mr. Royal will give for children of Little Falls. "Let's love you, go, behind the scenes of the big circus tents, chaperoned by circus 'daddies' and petted by fond circus mothers there will be a small cry of kiddies, kiddies who throw summeraults, and like clowns without hax trying. Kiddies who were arguatively speaking, born with the circus and would have been peevish had they been born anywhere else. And it is because of this element of youth and joy that gear with the springtime of life that the Rhoda Royal Circus is oftimes called the Circus of Childhood, for this circus boasts of a heart of all youth."

We are ready for the Bridal Season with a superb stock of Wedding Rings, Silverware and other Gifts for the Bride and Bridesmaid.

"NOW-A-DAYS" says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind. He finds it costless, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
