WHEAT MARKET GAINS

Slight Advance Recorded for Week; Demand Slow.

Dry and Blighting Weather Continues in Spring Wheat Area—Visible Corn Supply Decreased 20,000 Bus. by Late Reports.

U. S. Bureau of Markets, Washington, D. C., for week ended July 11, 1921. GRAIN: Prices uncertain and easily influenced during the week with trade and sentiment rather mixed. The greatest weakness was shown on the 6th, account hedging sales and local pressure, but market recovered on the sixth influenced by crop and weather reports. The week ended with prices unsettled. Crop news continues bullish. Country selling wheat freely. Resale prices American wheat in United Kingdom officially quoted much below Argentina; nevertheless, export demand very slow. Visible supply wheat 6,881,000 bu., an increase of 320,000 bu. for the week. Dry, hot weather prevails over corn belt. Corn assailing in practically all sections. Visible supply corn 22,196,000 bu., a decrease of 2,108,000 bu. for week. Chicago cash market No. 2 red winter wheat $1.18; No. 2 hard $1.19; No. 1 mixed corn 59c; No. 3 yellow corn 58c; No. 3 white oats 34c. Compared with July 5th prices, Chicago July wheat closed 1/4c higher at $1.19; July corn 2 1/2c higher at 61 1/2c. Minneapolis July wheat up 6c at $1.21 1/2. Chicago September wheat up 3/4c at $1.18 1/2; September corn up 1c at 59 1/2c. Minneapolis September wheat up 4c at $1.23 1/2; Kansas City September wheat up 6 1/2c at $1.40 1/2.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES: Lighter potato receipts in eastern markets early in the week advanced prices of Virginia eastern shore Irish Cobblers to a range of $2.75-4.75, highest prices prevailing in New York at $4.50-4.75. Unusually heavy receipts in New York on Saturday dropped prices $1 per bbl. Texas tomatoes slow and weak in Chicago at 75c-81 per 4-basket carrier. HAY: Receipts extremely light. No. 1 timothy quoted, Chicago $25; Kansas City new $15; No. 1 alfalfa Kansas City $19.50. No. 1 prairie Minneapolis $15.

FEED: Market quiet but steady. Lower prices attracted buyers and the demand improved slightly. DAIRY PRODUCTS: Butter markets firm; higher price levels reached during the week being sustained. Markets supported by lighter production, poor average quality and consumptive demand, and moderate into-storage movement. Preliminary storage report covering entire United States for July 1 released today shows stocks 63,750,000 pounds compared with 52,360,000 pounds last year, and 90,158,000 pounds in 1919. Closing prices 92 score: New York 39c; Chicago 38c; Philadelphia 39c; Boston 40c.

Cheese markets firm and trading has been active partly on account of fairly heavy buying by exporters. Prices at Wisconsin primary markets average: Twins 14c; Daisies 15 1/2c; Double Daisies 15 1/2c; Longhorns 16 1/2c; Young Americas 16 1/2c.

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS: Practically all classes and grades of livestock at Chicago show net advances over price of a week ago. Hogs up 35-70c; beef steers 10-25c; butcher cows and heifers 25-50c. Veal calves advanced 75c-1.25 per 100 lbs. Fat lambs and fat ewes gained 25-75c. Feeding lambs were about a quarter and yearlings 25-50c higher. July 11 Chicago prices: Hogs, top $10.15; bulk of sales $9.10-10.10; medium good beef steers $7.25-8.65; butcher cows and heifers $4.85-5.50; feeder steers $7.50; light and medium weight veal calves $8.25-10.75; fat lambs $9-11.75; feeding lambs $5.25.

Eastern wholesale fresh meat prices advanced. Lamb up $2.5; pork loins 50c-42; beef $1-1.50; veal and mutton generally $1 per 100 lbs.

DEMPSEY DRAWS COLOR LINE

Says He Believes Public Doesn't Want Him to Box Blacks. Omaha—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion pugilist, who passed through here on his way to Salt Lake City, in a statement denied that he is willing to fight Jack Johnson, "or any other Negro fighter." "I will never fight a colored man," Dempsey said. "There is nothing to this talk of me meeting Jack Johnson. I am confident the public don't want this fight and while I will govern myself to a large extent according to the public wishes, I can't see my way clear to fight Johnson or any other colored man."

J. H. DETOUR BELOW ST. CLOUD COMPLETED

According to the St. Cloud Journal-Press, the Jefferson Highway detour between that city and Salida station is now ready. This detour will be used while the paving is being done on the regular route.

Work will soon be commenced on the construction of a detour from St. Cloud to Royalton. This detour will follow a route between the main highway and the Mississippi river between Sauk Rapids and Rice.

A. D. Harrison is at the Hall hospital for medical treatment this week. Mrs. E. J. Carlson and son Howard went to Alexandria Monday for a visit with Mrs. Carlson's parents.

Mrs. A. L. Riley of St. Cloud, mother of Mrs. L. O. L. Ryan of this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury and possible death Sunday evening, when a big Packard car in which Mr. and Mrs. Riley were riding, went over a 12-foot embankment on the Rockville road as the result of the steering mechanism breaking. Fortunately the heavy car sank in the sand on the side of the embankment and did not turn over. It was necessary to call a St. Cloud wrecking outfit to lift the car back on the road.

Pimentos Not Canned in Oil. The Department of Agriculture says that it is a mistaken idea that oil is added in canning pimentos. They say that pimentos contain sufficient natural oil which is sufficient for the purpose. The real Spanish pimentos are invariably canned in their own juices.

"Miss Nancy." This term is generally supposed to have originated in connection with Anna Oldfield, an actress of the Eighteenth century. Her vanity was so colossal that on her deathbed she requested that her remains be laid in state dressed in "very fine Brussels lace headress, a Holland skirt, with tucker and double ruffles, new kid gloves, etc."

The After Years. The early months of marriage bring with them a new experience of life, in which there are excitement and change of outlook, wonderful ambitions, and new codes and habits for the man and woman. The emotional life reaches the extremes of feeling—happiness and despair, hope and disappointment, mingle in confusion.

"Gone to the Dogs." The ancient Romans called the vice in dice "canis," the Latin word for dog. To them three axes was to lose the pot in their gaming, whence came the saying "gone to the dogs" as a synonym for ruin or bad luck. The expression "dirty dog" means one morally filthy; one defiled with mere skin dirt is called a "dirty pig." Our literature is sprinkled with reference to the dog, many of them highly complimentary.

Simple and Convincing. Film actresses work hard. They may not have late nights, but they have early mornings and they are often up while other folks are turning over in bed for another nap. "What do you do in your leisure?" a cinema actress was asked. "Nothing," she replied. "How sensible," was the rejoinder. "It isn't sense, it's necessity. I never do anything in my leisure, because I never have any leisure to do it in."
