Jack Sherry, western heavyweight champion wrestler, downed Oscar Larson, the terrible Swede of St. Paul, in two straight falls in a match staged at the Hertha theatre here Tuesday evening. About 75 people witnessed the match.

Sherry got the first fall in about twenty-five minutes and the second in about 15 minutes. Larson, who is fifteen pounds lighter than Sherry, was no match for him and from the standpoint of a real contest, the match was somewhat of a disappointment, although it was considered a good exhibition of holds, etc.

The preliminary, a 4-round boxing match between Sailor Burns of Milwaukee and Battling Strayer of Toledo, was slow and uninteresting. The ability of Burns at boxing is well known but none of it was displayed in this meet, probably because it was not necessary.

Sherry, the wrestler, is slated to meet both Sawdy and Dumke at the armory in St. Cloud tomorrow night. He proposes to throw both men in an hour.
