

GENOLA

May 9.—Miss Fella Stumpf, who visited friends and relatives at Little Falls the past few weeks, returned home Wednesday.

Miss M. Heith and Mr. Kohs and Mr. Crozer were Thursday afternoon callers.

Henry Solinger motored to Bowlus Tuesday.

William Poster motored to Bowlus last Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Solinger and children motored to Platte Thursday for a few days' visit.

Martin Christen from Albany was a business caller Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Leese and children from Minneapolis motored up here Saturday to spend Sunday visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Hans Meyer, who is employed at Bowlus, came home Saturday to spend Sunday with home folks.

Paul Posh went to Little Falls Saturday and spent Sunday with his family.

Jake Kinzer from Buckman was a Saturday caller here.

John Poster stopped here Friday on his way to Little Falls.

Raymond Poster from Buckman was a visitor here on Sunday.

The Genola and Agram boys had another practice game Sunday afternoon. They'll soon be able to show us a real ball game, as practice makes perfect.

Misses Maggie and Mary Meyer and Loretta and Juleta Faust and Messrs. Nick Hans and Peter Meyer and Joe and Henry Faust and Peter Sahr motored to Bowlus Sunday afternoon to visit friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Brown motored down from Onamia Sunday afternoon and visited at J. P. Faust's residence.

Miss Theresa Faust accompanied them home and will spend a week visiting.

The Farmers' Shipping Association shipped stock to South St. Paul Monday.

Mrs. Benfield from Pierz visited her sister, Mrs. Mike Leese, Sunday afternoon.

L. H. Klemz, representing the Duluth Creamery and Produce Co., transacted business in this vicinity Monday.

Margaret Zenger and Ed. Poster motored to Buckman Sunday evening and attended the raffling of a Hope Chest at St. Michael's hall.

CUSHING

May 9.—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hawkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Sjogren came up Tuesday from Minneapolis, for a short visit with friends and relatives here.

Misses Betty and Gladys Lundwall, who are attending school at Little Falls, spent the week-end at their home here.

C. A. Anderson purchased a tractor last week from the local dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Nygaard and family spent Sunday afternoon visiting friends and relatives at Little Falls.

Leonard Nordlund and Albin Anderson took in the movies at Little Falls Saturday evening.

Miss Lena Larson, who has been visiting at the F. G. Carlson place here the past couple weeks, left Monday for her home at Clitherall.

F. C. Dutton bought a touring car at Little Falls recently.

Misses Anna Mathewson and May Hinote of Randall visited with Mrs. E. A. Nygaard Sunday evening.

A meeting will be held in the Lutheran church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of talking over the matter of making some improvements on the church building, all those interested please be present.

Henry Garrison sold his truck to a party at Lincoln Monday.

Everybody is busy planting corn and potatoes, making garden and caring for little chicks.

Leonard Nordlund and Elmer Nygaard loaded a car of wood the first of the week.

Rural route No. 2 from this place will be made a daily route May 20th. Up to this time it has been tri-weekly.

Miss Pansy Friend spent the week-end at her home at Little Falls.

Gladys Gustafson of Minneapolis is employed at I. Anderson's place.

Oscar and Bertram Kleman have rented Albert Jaeger's place, and Mr. Jaeger is in poor health and therefore is unable to do any farming.

LASTRUP

May 9.—The local baseball team played their first game of the season at Sullivan on Sunday. The results of the game were 11 to 17 in favor of Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodman and children went to New Richmond Saturday to attend the wedding of Mrs. Goodman's brother.

A large number of people attended the spelling contest between Pulaski and Lastrup schools at Pulaski on Wednesday evening. The following pupils of Lastrup school won the honors: Dolores Ortman, 1st; Cedonia Fineman, 2nd; and Mary Fineman, 3rd.

The pupils of Pulaski showed good skill in their spelling and made a good showing. The dance given afterwards was enjoyed by all.

Cornelia, Alex and Ben Virnig, Laura and Cedonia Fineman and Marguerite Lyman motored to Pierz Sunday afternoon.

Florence Krejci spent Saturday and Sunday in Little Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kummert and family of Pierz were Lastrup callers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Byers and family of Little Falls spent Sunday visiting friends in Lastrup.

Cornelia and Herbert Virnig visited at the P. X. Buesseler home Sunday evening.

A number of friends of John Fischer gathered at his home on Tuesday evening and helped him celebrate his birthday.

The following were Pierz visitors on Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. John Muller, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Atkman, John Fischer, Frances and Amelia Boehmer.

How about that Herald subscription you were going to send in. DO IT NOW.

BUCKMAN

May 9.—Mrs. Elizabeth Vierk and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Vierk of Agram visited with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stepan Sunday afternoon.

Nick H. Mueller transacted business in Pierz Monday.

Fred Herwas hauled grain to Vawter Thursday and Friday.

Frank Kuschel took some rye to Vawter Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Shimmers and children were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stepan Sunday afternoon.

PERCY L. CROSBY

MORRILL

May 8.—Pearl Yatchkosky visited with Caroline Miller over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and daughter Burnette of Little Falls visited at the H. W. Foss home over Sunday.

A play called "The Prairie Rose" was given by eleven of the young people in Ramey and Morrill Saturday night in the Ramey school house.

There was a large crowd and they made $49.50.

The characters were: Prairie Rose.....Myrtle Snyder Dorothy Deane.....Lilah Walbridge Philip Bryant.....James Foss Robert Raymond.....Lyon Crowe Uncle Silas.....Hank Schroeder Ralph, Silas' brother.....Mark Altenhofen Archie Featherhead.....Edward Pressler Synce Raymond.....Jean Quilen Mose, the servant.....Boscoe Hyde Aunt Eliza.....Florence Brown Wild Bill.....Harold Olson

All acted their parts fine. They will give the same play in Hillman Monday evening and have a dance after the play.

Pearl Yatchkosky went to St. Cloud Monday to stay all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss and Harry and Merle were Little Falls visitors Tuesday.

School ended in the Young district Thursday. Glen Montz was teacher. They had a picnic dinner and games and races in the afternoon, also a fine program.

Frank Wassel from Alberta drove up to Frank Yatchkosky's Monday to get Frank to hang wall paper for him.

Wm. Sandrock is going into the dairy business again. He bought one cow from John Keifer and one from H. W. Foss, and a separator from Frank Hortsch. He says he is going to give his renters something to do.

Adeline Voigt has gone to St. Cloud and South Dakota to visit. Her cousin is cooking for Rev. Fromelt, while she is gone.

A ball game was played in Morrill Sunday. The North Star boys won 4 to 3.

Chas. Gilman hurt his leg Thursday, while he was plowing with a sulky. The plow struck a rock and threw him between the wheel and plow. He thought his leg was broken, but he was taken to the doctor and the cords were torn loose. He will not be able to walk for a month.

Caroline Yatchkosky is working for Mrs. Arnie Bauer this week.

During the storm Wednesday night, the lightning struck the Chas. Winder house and tore some of the plaster off. It ran under the porch and killed the dog.

Rev. Montz will hold services at the school house in District 56 again next Sunday.

Several people from Morrill attended the show in Buckman Sunday night.

UPSALA

Upsala News-Tribune, May (5):—Mrs. Edith Nelson, (nee Rydholm) was born at Upsala, Minn., June 9, 1899, and passed away at the Norwegian Lutheran Hospital of Minneapolis on the 29th of April, 1922, at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 20 days.

Edith grew to womanhood in the home of her parents. She was married to Mr. J. O. Nelson June 7, 1919. After their marriage, they made their home in Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive with the husband to mourn her passing. She is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm, three sisters and four brothers and many other relatives and many friends. One sister has preceded her to the better land.

Mrs. Nelson was of a quiet disposition and a congenial friend to all who made her acquaintance.

Mrs. Nelson's funeral took place on Tuesday of this week from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm and from the Mission church, which was thronged with sympathizing friends.

Words of consolation were spoken by Rev. H. Hultman and a song was rendered by Miss Mabel Fagerman. The floral tribute was especially large.

Interment was made in the Mission cemetery.

PERCY L. CROSBY

MORRILL

May 8.—Pearl Yatchkosky visited with Caroline Miller over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and daughter Burnette of Little Falls visited at the H. W. Foss home over Sunday.

A play called "The Prairie Rose" was given by eleven of the young people in Ramey and Morrill Saturday night in the Ramey school house.

There was a large crowd and they made $49.50.

The characters were: Prairie Rose.....Myrtle Snyder Dorothy Deane.....Lilah Walbridge Philip Bryant.....James Foss Robert Raymond.....Lyon Crowe Uncle Silas.....Hank Schroeder Ralph, Silas' brother.....Mark Altenhofen Archie Featherhead.....Edward Pressler Synce Raymond.....Jean Quilen Mose, the servant.....Boscoe Hyde Aunt Eliza.....Florence Brown Wild Bill.....Harold Olson

All acted their parts fine. They will give the same play in Hillman Monday evening and have a dance after the play.

Pearl Yatchkosky went to St. Cloud Monday to stay all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss and Harry and Merle were Little Falls visitors Tuesday.

School ended in the Young district Thursday. Glen Montz was teacher. They had a picnic dinner and games and races in the afternoon, also a fine program.

Frank Wassel from Alberta drove up to Frank Yatchkosky's Monday to get Frank to hang wall paper for him.

Wm. Sandrock is going into the dairy business again. He bought one cow from John Keifer and one from H. W. Foss, and a separator from Frank Hortsch. He says he is going to give his renters something to do.

Adeline Voigt has gone to St. Cloud and South Dakota to visit. Her cousin is cooking for Rev. Fromelt, while she is gone.

A ball game was played in Morrill Sunday. The North Star boys won 4 to 3.

Chas. Gilman hurt his leg Thursday, while he was plowing with a sulky. The plow struck a rock and threw him between the wheel and plow. He thought his leg was broken, but he was taken to the doctor and the cords were torn loose. He will not be able to walk for a month.

Caroline Yatchkosky is working for Mrs. Arnie Bauer this week.

During the storm Wednesday night, the lightning struck the Chas. Winder house and tore some of the plaster off. It ran under the porch and killed the dog.

Rev. Montz will hold services at the school house in District 56 again next Sunday.

Several people from Morrill attended the show in Buckman Sunday night.

UPSALA

Upsala News-Tribune, May (5):—Mrs. Edith Nelson, (nee Rydholm) was born at Upsala, Minn., June 9, 1899, and passed away at the Norwegian Lutheran Hospital of Minneapolis on the 29th of April, 1922, at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 20 days.

Edith grew to womanhood in the home of her parents. She was married to Mr. J. O. Nelson June 7, 1919. After their marriage, they made their home in Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive with the husband to mourn her passing. She is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm, three sisters and four brothers and many other relatives and many friends. One sister has preceded her to the better land.

Mrs. Nelson was of a quiet disposition and a congenial friend to all who made her acquaintance.

Mrs. Nelson's funeral took place on Tuesday of this week from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm and from the Mission church, which was thronged with sympathizing friends.

Words of consolation were spoken by Rev. H. Hultman and a song was rendered by Miss Mabel Fagerman. The floral tribute was especially large.

Interment was made in the Mission cemetery.

PERCY L. CROSBY

MORRILL

May 8.—Pearl Yatchkosky visited with Caroline Miller over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and daughter Burnette of Little Falls visited at the H. W. Foss home over Sunday.

A play called "The Prairie Rose" was given by eleven of the young people in Ramey and Morrill Saturday night in the Ramey school house.

There was a large crowd and they made $49.50.

The characters were: Prairie Rose.....Myrtle Snyder Dorothy Deane.....Lilah Walbridge Philip Bryant.....James Foss Robert Raymond.....Lyon Crowe Uncle Silas.....Hank Schroeder Ralph, Silas' brother.....Mark Altenhofen Archie Featherhead.....Edward Pressler Synce Raymond.....Jean Quilen Mose, the servant.....Boscoe Hyde Aunt Eliza.....Florence Brown Wild Bill.....Harold Olson

All acted their parts fine. They will give the same play in Hillman Monday evening and have a dance after the play.

Pearl Yatchkosky went to St. Cloud Monday to stay all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss and Harry and Merle were Little Falls visitors Tuesday.

School ended in the Young district Thursday. Glen Montz was teacher. They had a picnic dinner and games and races in the afternoon, also a fine program.

Frank Wassel from Alberta drove up to Frank Yatchkosky's Monday to get Frank to hang wall paper for him.

Wm. Sandrock is going into the dairy business again. He bought one cow from John Keifer and one from H. W. Foss, and a separator from Frank Hortsch. He says he is going to give his renters something to do.

Adeline Voigt has gone to St. Cloud and South Dakota to visit. Her cousin is cooking for Rev. Fromelt, while she is gone.

A ball game was played in Morrill Sunday. The North Star boys won 4 to 3.

Chas. Gilman hurt his leg Thursday, while he was plowing with a sulky. The plow struck a rock and threw him between the wheel and plow. He thought his leg was broken, but he was taken to the doctor and the cords were torn loose. He will not be able to walk for a month.

Caroline Yatchkosky is working for Mrs. Arnie Bauer this week.

During the storm Wednesday night, the lightning struck the Chas. Winder house and tore some of the plaster off. It ran under the porch and killed the dog.

Rev. Montz will hold services at the school house in District 56 again next Sunday.

Several people from Morrill attended the show in Buckman Sunday night.

UPSALA

Upsala News-Tribune, May (5):—Mrs. Edith Nelson, (nee Rydholm) was born at Upsala, Minn., June 9, 1899, and passed away at the Norwegian Lutheran Hospital of Minneapolis on the 29th of April, 1922, at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 20 days.

Edith grew to womanhood in the home of her parents. She was married to Mr. J. O. Nelson June 7, 1919. After their marriage, they made their home in Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive with the husband to mourn her passing. She is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm, three sisters and four brothers and many other relatives and many friends. One sister has preceded her to the better land.

Mrs. Nelson was of a quiet disposition and a congenial friend to all who made her acquaintance.

Mrs. Nelson's funeral took place on Tuesday of this week from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm and from the Mission church, which was thronged with sympathizing friends.

Words of consolation were spoken by Rev. H. Hultman and a song was rendered by Miss Mabel Fagerman. The floral tribute was especially large.

Interment was made in the Mission cemetery.

PERCY L. CROSBY

MORRILL

May 8.—Pearl Yatchkosky visited with Caroline Miller over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and daughter Burnette of Little Falls visited at the H. W. Foss home over Sunday.

A play called "The Prairie Rose" was given by eleven of the young people in Ramey and Morrill Saturday night in the Ramey school house.

There was a large crowd and they made $49.50.

The characters were: Prairie Rose.....Myrtle Snyder Dorothy Deane.....Lilah Walbridge Philip Bryant.....James Foss Robert Raymond.....Lyon Crowe Uncle Silas.....Hank Schroeder Ralph, Silas' brother.....Mark Altenhofen Archie Featherhead.....Edward Pressler Synce Raymond.....Jean Quilen Mose, the servant.....Boscoe Hyde Aunt Eliza.....Florence Brown Wild Bill.....Harold Olson

All acted their parts fine. They will give the same play in Hillman Monday evening and have a dance after the play.

Pearl Yatchkosky went to St. Cloud Monday to stay all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss and Harry and Merle were Little Falls visitors Tuesday.

School ended in the Young district Thursday. Glen Montz was teacher. They had a picnic dinner and games and races in the afternoon, also a fine program.

Frank Wassel from Alberta drove up to Frank Yatchkosky's Monday to get Frank to hang wall paper for him.

Wm. Sandrock is going into the dairy business again. He bought one cow from John Keifer and one from H. W. Foss, and a separator from Frank Hortsch. He says he is going to give his renters something to do.

Adeline Voigt has gone to St. Cloud and South Dakota to visit. Her cousin is cooking for Rev. Fromelt, while she is gone.

A ball game was played in Morrill Sunday. The North Star boys won 4 to 3.

Chas. Gilman hurt his leg Thursday, while he was plowing with a sulky. The plow struck a rock and threw him between the wheel and plow. He thought his leg was broken, but he was taken to the doctor and the cords were torn loose. He will not be able to walk for a month.

Caroline Yatchkosky is working for Mrs. Arnie Bauer this week.

During the storm Wednesday night, the lightning struck the Chas. Winder house and tore some of the plaster off. It ran under the porch and killed the dog.

Rev. Montz will hold services at the school house in District 56 again next Sunday.

Several people from Morrill attended the show in Buckman Sunday night.

UPSALA

Upsala News-Tribune, May (5):—Mrs. Edith Nelson, (nee Rydholm) was born at Upsala, Minn., June 9, 1899, and passed away at the Norwegian Lutheran Hospital of Minneapolis on the 29th of April, 1922, at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 20 days.

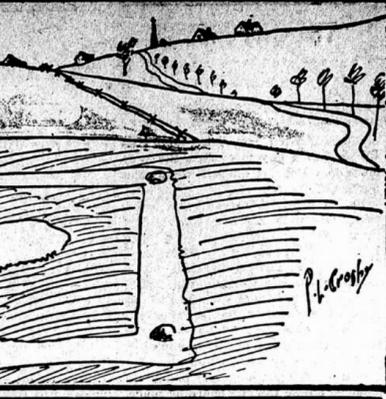

Edith grew to womanhood in the home of her parents. She was married to Mr. J. O. Nelson June 7, 1919. After their marriage, they made their home in Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive with the husband to mourn her passing. She is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm, three sisters and four brothers and many other relatives and many friends. One sister has preceded her to the better land.

Mrs. Nelson was of a quiet disposition and a congenial friend to all who made her acquaintance.

Mrs. Nelson's funeral took place on Tuesday of this week from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm and from the Mission church, which was thronged with sympathizing friends.

Words of consolation were spoken by Rev. H. Hultman and a song was rendered by Miss Mabel Fagerman. The floral tribute was especially large.

Interment was made in the Mission cemetery.

PERCY L. CROSBY

MORRILL

May 8.—Pearl Yatchkosky visited with Caroline Miller over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlson and daughter Burnette of Little Falls visited at the H. W. Foss home over Sunday.

A play called "The Prairie Rose" was given by eleven of the young people in Ramey and Morrill Saturday night in the Ramey school house.

There was a large crowd and they made $49.50.

The characters were: Prairie Rose.....Myrtle Snyder Dorothy Deane.....Lilah Walbridge Philip Bryant.....James Foss Robert Raymond.....Lyon Crowe Uncle Silas.....Hank Schroeder Ralph, Silas' brother.....Mark Altenhofen Archie Featherhead.....Edward Pressler Synce Raymond.....Jean Quilen Mose, the servant.....Boscoe Hyde Aunt Eliza.....Florence Brown Wild Bill.....Harold Olson

All acted their parts fine. They will give the same play in Hillman Monday evening and have a dance after the play.

Pearl Yatchkosky went to St. Cloud Monday to stay all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foss and Harry and Merle were Little Falls visitors Tuesday.

School ended in the Young district Thursday. Glen Montz was teacher. They had a picnic dinner and games and races in the afternoon, also a fine program.

Frank Wassel from Alberta drove up to Frank Yatchkosky's Monday to get Frank to hang wall paper for him.

Wm. Sandrock is going into the dairy business again. He bought one cow from John Keifer and one from H. W. Foss, and a separator from Frank Hortsch. He says he is going to give his renters something to do.

Adeline Voigt has gone to St. Cloud and South Dakota to visit. Her cousin is cooking for Rev. Fromelt, while she is gone.

A ball game was played in Morrill Sunday. The North Star boys won 4 to 3.

Chas. Gilman hurt his leg Thursday, while he was plowing with a sulky. The plow struck a rock and threw him between the wheel and plow. He thought his leg was broken, but he was taken to the doctor and the cords were torn loose. He will not be able to walk for a month.

Caroline Yatchkosky is working for Mrs. Arnie Bauer this week.

During the storm Wednesday night, the lightning struck the Chas. Winder house and tore some of the plaster off. It ran under the porch and killed the dog.

Rev. Montz will hold services at the school house in District 56 again next Sunday.

Several people from Morrill attended the show in Buckman Sunday night.

UPSALA

Upsala News-Tribune, May (5):—Mrs. Edith Nelson, (nee Rydholm) was born at Upsala, Minn., June 9, 1899, and passed away at the Norwegian Lutheran Hospital of Minneapolis on the 29th of April, 1922, at the age of 22 years, 10 months and 20 days.

Edith grew to womanhood in the home of her parents. She was married to Mr. J. O. Nelson June 7, 1919. After their marriage, they made their home in Minneapolis. Two children were born to this union, both of whom survive with the husband to mourn her passing. She is also mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm, three sisters and four brothers and many other relatives and many friends. One sister has preceded her to the better land.

Mrs. Nelson was of a quiet disposition and a congenial friend to all who made her acquaintance.

Mrs. Nelson's funeral took place on Tuesday of this week from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Rydholm and from the Mission church, which was thronged with sympathizing friends.

Words of consolation were spoken by Rev. H. Hultman and a song was rendered by Miss Mabel Fagerman. The floral tribute was especially large.

Interment was made in the Mission cemetery.

Bad Weather or Good Weather Blue Ribbon Service Shoes

A pair of these 100 per cent Leather will feel mighty good on your feet. Come in and see them; also inspect our high grade dress shoes for every member of the family.

