Records Made by Minn. Holstein Men. Minnesota now has three 1,000 pound Holsteins, according to official testing records certified by W. E. Petersen, state superintendent of official testing at University Farm.

Making the highest record reported to Mr. Petersen for some time, Sidelobe Walker Ramona Payne, owned by W. W. Walker, Austin, produced 884.27 pounds of butterfat or 1,105.3 pounds of butter in one year.

Honora Korndyke Hengerveld, owned by the Minnesota Holstein company, Austin, made a record of 823.8 pounds of fat or 1,029.7 pounds of butter.

With a total output of 822.6 pounds of fat, equivalent to 1,028.2 pounds of butter, Alexander of Pleasant View 2nd, owned by William Schmidt, St. Peter, is now in the 1,000-pound class by a safe margin.

Youngsters Hold Fair When Oldsters Fall

Club boys and girls are doing big things the year around, and especially during the Minnesota fair season. In Washington county, which hasn't had a county exposition by grownups for several years, the boys and girls staged a county club fair all their own. Lake county had three club fairs in as many cities. Every one of the 40 county shows coming before the State Fair will have special club programs and many have designated special club days. At "the big show" on the State Fair grounds, 550 hustling youngsters from all counties in the state will compete for honors. One hundred club boys and girls from the famed Red river valley are coming in a special chartered car. According to T. A. Erickson, state club leader, there will be 8 speed, 4 cake and 8 sewing demonstration teams, 35 general livestock and 35 dairy cattle judging teams, 12 poultry demonstration teams, 8 dairy demonstration teams, one rabbit team, 2 corn teams, 7 potato teams, and 35 canning teams. In addition, more than 50 clubs will put on individual club exhibits.

Guests of State Fair Can Study Egg Grading

Every State Fair visitor will have the opportunity of grading eggs in a novel "personal" grading booth to be conducted by the poultry extension service of the university. "Minnesota poultry keepers must grade their eggs for highest prices," says N. E. Chapman, poultry specialist. On the New York market carefully graded eggs are bringing three times the average Minnesota prices. Upon the completion of their grading "lesson", visitors will be given postcards containing concise grading information to mail to their home addresses from convenient mailing boxes in the booth. Daily quotations from every county in the state will be displayed to show the difference between local prices on ungraded eggs and eastern market prices for a well graded product.

Windmill Coming Back As Cheap Source Of Power

No, the time honored windmill is not doomed to the scrap heap. Instead it will soon be regarded as the farmer's cheapest source of electric power, says E. A. Stewart, associate professor of agriculture physics at University Farm, St. Paul. The university has ordered wind electric plants of all known types for use in a test project to determine the efficiency of the windmill as a source of electric power. "Wind electric plants are a success," says Professor Stewart. "Inexpensiveness of operation and maintenance and the small amount of time and attention required are their outstanding advantages."

NEW BUS LINE STARTS NEXT MONDAY

Extension of the bus line service of the Jefferson Highway Transportation Company through Little Falls to Brainerd will take place next Monday, when the first through bus will be run from Brainerd to Minneapolis and return. This company now operates eight buses between St. Cloud and Minneapolis.

E. L. Bryant, president of the company, and N. L. Rogers, secretary, were in Little Falls yesterday in connection with this matter. They stated that the down bus will leave Brainerd at 8:30 a. m. and arrive in Little Falls at about 9:45. It will reach Minneapolis at about 1:15. The return will be made late in the afternoon.

To begin with the company will use a 14-passenger open type White bus. This will be replaced later with 26 passenger Blue and White limousines equipped with special White chassis. A definite schedule will be given out later.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Marriage licenses were issued this week by J. A. Anderson and Berthe Seiler; Hugh Reidy of Koochiching county and Helen L. Reger and to Geo. A. Stevens and Marion E. Lewis.

Two gates on the west wing of the dam here will be closed this fall. One of the gates was completely torn out by the ice last spring and the other was badly damaged. Three gates at the east end of the dam, which are faced with timber, will also be refaced, with steel.

Peter Kingen of this city was badly bruised about the head and face Sunday morning when his team ran away and he was thrown from the rig. The accident occurred in an alley between Third and Fourth streets southeast. James John sustained a scalp wound when he attempted to stop the horses and was struck on the head by the wagon tongue. Two stitches had to be taken to close the wound.

Squirrels are causing trouble on the high tension lines of the Little Falls Water Power Company. Twice within the last few weeks conductors have been burned out and an investigation resulted in the finding of the charred bodies of squirrels nearby. The only reason for the presence of the squirrels near the tops of the poles, it is figured, is that they are seeking holes in old dead trees for winter quarters and mistake the poles for trees.

C. H. Sample, general organizer for the paper mill workers' brotherhood, was in Little Falls Wednesday evening and addressed a small gathering of men at the I. O. O. F. hall. He urged them to support the Farmer-Labor candidates for the state offices. In his talk he commented on the wages paid here, saying that the local plants are paying the smallest wages of any in four states which he visited. He announced that another meeting would be held in the near future for the purpose of bringing about more labor organizations here.

Joke on Householder.

A prominent Cleveland, reports the Plain Dealer, of that city, was awakened in the night by mysterious noises from the lower floor and going down found a fellow filling his pockets with the silver on the sideboard.

The Cleveland man leaped on the burglar and speedily reduced him to the "got enough" stage. Then he let the man up and asked him what he meant by adopting such a disreputable profession. The fellow pleaded his youth and drink and bad company, and claimed it was his very first offense.

Whereupon, the householder, after exacting a promise from the prowler that he would give up his nefarious calling, opened the door and let him go.

"Perhaps that part of the adventure was all right," said the Cleveland man, "but, confound the fellow, I forgot all about making him take my silver out of his pockets."

And for years that story clung to him.

Hugging Bargains for Protection.

The other morning when a heavy shower came up there was rather an amazing sight downtown. About every other one was bearing a hat box and she carried it in front of her across her bosom, in sort of chest protector fashion. "What does all that mean?" asked a Mere Man, as he stood waiting for a car.

"It's a millinery sale," replied a woman near him. "I mean, there is a big millinery sale downtown today, and about every other woman who came shopping bought a bargain hat. Now they are afraid they'll get their bargains wet, and holding them up to their chests like that is the only way they are sure of keeping them directly under their umbrellas."—Springfield Union.

Strange Thing.

PANDOLFO MAY TAKE FURTHER LEGAL ACTION

Chicago, Aug. 23.—Further legal action in the defense of Samuel C. Pandolfo, former president of the Pan Motor company of St. Cloud, Minn., may be taken in the course of a week. Attorney Bernhart Frank, counsel for Pandolfo, whose conviction for using the mails to defraud in the sale of stock in his company was affirmed by the U. S. circuit court of appeals on Monday. The attorney said today that he had not decided definitely what the next step in the defense procedure would be.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Sentence of Samuel C. Pandolfo, formerly head of the Pan Motor company of St. Cloud, Minn., to ten years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $4,000 on conviction of a charge of using the mails to defraud, was affirmed today by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Offices at St. Cloud

The Pan Motor company had headquarters at St. Cloud, Minn., and the government prosecution in United States district court more than a year ago was based on the sale of stock through the mails.

It was charged that Pandolfo represented that the company had assets of $2,000,000 and that automobiles actually were being built and sold. More than $1,000,000 was alleged to have been realized by stock sales throughout the country.

Witnesses from many cities appeared against Pandolfo and the trial lasted several weeks. A jury found Pandolfo guilty but an appeal was taken.

Few Models Turned Out

It was alleged by the government that the company was not actually building and selling automobiles although there was evidence that a few models had been turned out.

The company's circulars mailed virtually from coast to coast represented that the automobiles were being held at $1,450 each.

Lloyd Kay and family figured in an automobile accident Tuesday evening which fortunately did not result seriously but which might have been disastrous. While motoring home from Duluth the right front wheels of the car gave way on the Pierz road about three miles east of this city and the car went into the ditch and overturned. They were not traveling fast at the time and no one was injured.
