MAY — Market generally weak. Prices $1 lower at New York and St. Louis. Other markets practically unchanged. Receipts have fallen off. Reports of country loadings light. Receipts principally of only medium quality. Good hay selling at rather wide discounts. Quoted September 9: No. 1 timothy, New York $25. Chicago $19.

DAIRY PRODUCTS—Better market firm for the week. Hot weather has continued to cut down production and has reduced percentage of fancy grades in current arrivals. Storage goods beginning to move in a small way. Closing prices 92 score butter: New York 39 1/4c, Chicago 39c. Cheese markets steady with only fair volume of trading. Buyers continue to hold off more or less at present prices. Cheese prices at Wisconsin primary markets Sept. 9: Twins 20c; Daisies 20 1/2c; Double daisies 19 1/2c; Young Americas 19 1/2c; Longhorns 20 1/2c; Square prints 21c.

LIVESTOCK AND MEATS—The trend of hog prices was upward for the week, advance ranging from 15 to 35c per 100 lbs. Cattle prices on the other hand declined slightly; beef steers weak to 10c lower, fat cows 10c lower to 10c higher while fat heifers averaged about steady; feeder steers and veal calves remained practically steady. The sheep and lamb market showed slight changes, fat lambs advanced 5c to 50c; feeding lambs and yearlings steady while fat ewes were weak to 50c lower for the week. On Sept. 11, hogs on the Chicago market opened slow, around steady, closed steady to strong with Saturday's average. Beef steers and yearlings fully steady, other grades unevenly 10 to 55c lower, butcher cows and heifers steady to weak; bulls largely 15c higher, veal calves 25c to 50c lower, stockers and feeders weak to 25c lower. Sept. 11 Chicago prices, hogs, top, $9.65, bulk of sales $8.80 to 9.50; medium and good beef steers $7.70 to 10.40; butcher cows and heifers $4.75 to 9.25; feeder steers $3.65 to 8.10; light and medium weight veal calves $11 to 12.25; fat lambs $12.25 to 13.25; feeding lambs $11.50 to 12.75; yearlings $8.50 to 11; fat ewes $3 to 6.75. Stocker and feeder shipments from 13 important markets during the week ending Sept. 1, were cattle and calves 126,294; hogs 4,148; sheep 86,539. Eastern wholesale fresh meat markets showed considerable irregularity. Beef 50c to $1 higher, lambs steady, veal and fresh pork loins $1 lower to $1 higher and mutton $1 lower to $3 higher per 100 pounds.

On Sept. 11 beef ranged from 50c to $2 higher, veal generally $1 to $2 higher on better grades with common veal weak to $1 lower. Minneapolis Closing Cash Prices. Ford Said to Have Bought Coal. Cincinnati, O.—According to a telegram given out here by Ernest F. Heasley, president of the American Expore and Inland Coal company, with offices in this city, an agreement has been entered into with representatives of Henry Ford of Detroit, by which a sufficient amount of coal will be forwarded to the manufacturing plants of the Ford company to obviate the shutdown that was scheduled for September 16.

Corn Little Injured by Frost. Des Moines, Iowa—Quite heavy frosts occurred in many parts of Iowa according to weather bureau reports received here, but indications are that it caused little or no damage to the corn crop.

Ford Bans Drink for Employees. Detroit—The 70,000 men employed by the Ford Motor company here were under orders from Henry Ford to leave all forms of liquor, wine and beer alone at all times, under penalty of losing their jobs.

The R. E. Perkins plumbing shop in the Cota building on First street northeast was visited by fire of unknown origin Thursday evening of last week, causing about $175 damage to the contents and damaging the building quite badly. The fire alarm gong at the city hall was out of order and consequently the fire truck crew did not get word of the fire at once but they had the fire extinguished in a short time. Mr. Perkins was in Minneapolis at the time and knew nothing of the fire until he reached here the following day. He does not expect to reopen his shop here.
