The residence occupied by S. F. Staples had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Saturday last. A spark or coal flew from the open fire-place in the bedroom onto the bed, several feet distant, and the clothes were ignited and when discovered were all ablaze. The fire was put out with some difficulty, and had its discovery occurred a few moments later, it would have been beyond control.

O. L. Clyde is sole agent in this locality for Anderson's celebrated "Gold Lion" whiskey, manufactured at Louis-portion. Now is the time to make your spring selections and save money.

Last Sunday evening Rev. O. O. Rondell preached at the Congregational church on the text: "What is man, that Thou art mindful of him." The remarks were somewhat in the form of a lecture, and were very interesting, mostly being devoted to the first clause. It was treated from Biblical and scientific standpoints. The discourse will be concluded next Sunday evening and the last portion of the text will be the subject of the remarks.

Instantaneous photography worked successfully by C. C. Neal. Babies' in all parts of the county.

Oliver chilled plows and repairs at J. W. BERG'S.

Logan & Miles are moving the machinery of their Royalton mill to Rich-Prairie on the Skunk river, where they have a large number of logs hung up.
The mill will probably be located there permanently, and new and larger machinery bought for the Royalton mill.
We understand that they intend to build a first class saw mill at the latter place next spring, and have machinery for planing and matching lumber and making lath and shingles.

The "Hartley Guards," a new brand of
