LAKE VIEW ACADEMY

INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION.

Sank Centre, Minn.

The above school will enter on its tenth year and resume business on Wednesday, Sept. 1, 1887. A full corps of able professors. The commercial department is under the able management of an experienced manager, an expert penman and book-keeper of many years' experience. Instructions in commercial law, book-keeping, notes, mortgages, etc., will be given by one of Sank Centre's ablest lawyers. The member we have to classes. Five months work in this school is equivalent to eight months in a school working in the class system. The academy is located one mile from the village. It is a Home School. Small boys receive special care.

Mr. and Mrs. Siel arrived in this place yesterday and will soon begin housekeeping in the McMannis house in the eastern part of the village. Mr. Siel is employed in the law office of C. A. Lindbergh, Esq.

Royalton parties claim that a wagon bridge will soon be built across the Mississippi river west of that town, the money to pay for it to come from bonds to be voted by the towns of Bellevue, Two Rivers and Elm Dale. It is evident that such a bridge would accommodate a great many people, and we hope it will be built immediately.

Evangelist services will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church beginning Wednesday evening, July 13. Several Ministers from the adjacent charges will be present. The Rev. A. V. Knepper of Shannon, Ill., district Evangelist, will arrive July 16 and take charge of the meeting. Services will be held at 10:30 a. m., 2:30 p. m., and at 8 p. m. All Christian people are cordially invited to attend and participate in the exercises.

The musicians of Little Falls have decided to organize a new band and a successful meeting for this purpose was held last evening. The name of the new organization will be the Little Falls Union band, and the following officers were elected:

President—M. M. Richardson.
Vice President—G. A. Fortier.
Secretary—S. Stoll.
Treasurer—W. A. Butler.
Soprano—Joseph Jansen.
A committee of three, consisting of O. L. Clyde, S. P. Brick and W. A. Butler were elected to prepare by laws. The band starts out with bright prospects, and the following is a nearly complete list of members, but it will be added to: W. A. Butler, M. M. Richardson, Joseph Jansen, J. J. Bassier, J. N. Cole, O. L. Clyde, S. P. Brick, H. Seizes, S. Stoll, Dr. Foster, F. A. Richardson, W. R. Cole, S. E. Staples, Casper Schmidt, E. Gessner. We wish the organization unlimited success, and predict that Little Falls will soon have one of the best bands in this part of the state.

Elk River Star News: A community may be as divided as it chooses on political questions, but when it comes to matters of local interests, it should present a united front.

S. Stoll made a noble fight for the county bonds in Pierz against overwhelming odds, and secured as many votes as could be expected under the circumstances. He showed himself to be a staunch friend to Little Falls when help was needed, and we hope that partisan politics will never blind our people to this fact. Stand by the man who helped us.

Swanville's 4th of July celebration was a magnificent success, over 500 people coming in from the surrounding country to join with the people of the village in observing Independence day. A large number of the citizens and the correct band from Long Prairie attended. Speeches were made in the bower by Hon. Wm. E. Lee and E. B. Wood, Esq. of Long Prairie and D. C. Van Camp of Sank Centre. Several varieties of sports, including glass ball shooting base ball, were indulged in. In the afternoon and evening a part of the large crowd enjoyed the time in dancing. A splendid display of fireworks was given in the evening. Swanville did well in entertaining her guests.

One of the roaring farces of the bond campaign was "Prof. W. Micky" Welch's (as the Banner calls him) efforts in Buckman. He worked in that town for nearly two weeks, claiming all the time that it would give a large majority for the bonds. And Welch even now claims glory for the way he influenced the voters of that town. We would not blame Buckman people much if they hadn't given Little Falls a vote, after being inflicted with Welch for 10 days.

A Rock Island, Ill., paper gives the following notice of the marriage of the lady who was formerly Mrs. T. C. Kinzie of this place:

Mr. Harry Foland, conductor on the C. E. & D., was married by Rev. I. W. Road last night to Miss Myrtle Barstow, of Royalton, Minn. The bridal couple received many fine presents, among others a silver butter-dish from Miss C. L. Patterson and Mr. Kimball, and a purse filled with silver from the groom's brother. Mr. and Mrs. Foland will not take a bridal trip, but settle down to housekeeping in this city. Mr. Foland went out on his run to Savannah to-day as usual.
