Helen, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. McNair, fell off the porch at her home Wednesday evening and broke her arm. A physician was called and set the arm and the little one is resting easy this morning.

The Sherburne, N. Y., News says: Rev. Wm. Moore, of Little Falls, Minn., has been spending his vacation here with his former people, to the enjoyment not only of the friends with whom he has stayed, but also of the whole community. A week ago Sunday he preached in the Congregational Church to a crowded house, and last Sabbath he administered the communion in the same church, receiving into membership four persons.

It is said that there was no need of the deputy game warden from Royalton going so far from home in order to find people breaking the law relative to shooting chickens. It is a well known fact that parties were shooting chickens between Royalton and the place where the Little Falls men were caught Sunday. There is no excuse for anyone breaking the game laws, but it might be well to catch some of the fellows nearer home. It will be dangerous business for anyone who goes out chicken hunting in this vicinity before Sept. 1st.

Editor McKinney, of the Sauk Rapids Sentinel, says that the statement in Tuesday's Journal-Press to the effect that a change had been made in the Sentinel management, was partially incorrect. He will remain in charge of the Sentinel until this week's issue is gotten out. He will sever his connection entirely with the paper with this week.—St. Cloud Journal Press.

The Giant and the Small Man.

It came to pass in the reign of Grover, the Democrat, that there lived in a city on the banks of the river Mississippi, two men of the same name. But while their names were similar there was a great difference in the men, one being a giant in stature while the other was no larger than the ordinary man of that time. And it came to pass that upon a certain Sabbath day, the giant went up into the temple to worship and he of the same name took his gun and with a companion went out upon the plains round about the city in search of game. The game not yet being ripe, the hunter was set upon by an officer of the ruler and dragged before the Cadi, who caused him to contribute quite liberally toward the support of the government.

Upon the following day he went out upon the streets of the city and when his friends came to weep with him, he said, "Why weep, ye? It is not I who transgressed the laws and was taken before the Cadi, but he of the giant stature," and they made merry when they saw the giant approaching.

Now it came to pass when the big man got onto the little game that he was sorely vexed, and lamented the fact that another so unlike him only in name should live in the same city, and he made a vow to get square with the other fellow. The BETS are that the giant will do it.

There Was Crooked Work.

A Long Prairie special under date of August 14th says: As predicted in a former dispatch the legal battle growing out of the arrests for alleged tampering with the ballot box, by judges of election, at a special election held at the village of Burtrum, July 27, was a hotly contested one. Of the three judges of election for whom warrants were sworn out only Edward B. Hawly and W. E. Barrows were found, the other, S. S. Sibley, having departed for parts unknown. The case was called before Justice J. F. Locke at Pillsbury, August 6, continued to August 8, at Long Prairie, and there the justice reserved his decision for three days for a more thorough examination of evidence. It is known that the justice bound the defendants over, the bond being merely nominal, for their appearance to the district court.

No one, not even the justice, believes the parties tried to be guilty, but there unquestionably was crooked work by some one, and the recognition is regarded as simply keeping the net open until the guilty party or parties are captured.

The prosecution may prove to be the biggest kind of a boomerang.

Mark Kobe, of Royalton, does want the Democratic nomination for sheriff. Wednesday evening a little ripple of his campaign extended from the south and east part of the county and struck the 1st ward of the city, but did not make much headway against the raging billows of Houde's campaign in his home precinct. The ripples and billows were not all sparkling water, you may be assured, and the waves and currents were decked with foam or beads, and were of light or dark coloring, according to the choice of the happy indulgers. It was about the first little demonstration of the fall campaign, and was more spontaneous than prearranged. It demonstrated, however, that Houde and his friends would have a solid and reliable delegation of four from his own ward or there would be a royal battle. The delegation is to be conceded to Houde, or his battle flag will be unfurled, and the braves will go on the war path. Anybody that is hunting for a scrap can get it in the 1st ward by being a candidate for delegate and not pledging himself to the sheriff. Will there be an open effort to down Houde in his own ward? Well, he will be at the caucus to see how things come out. None of that much talked of policy of "standing by Houde if he gets the 'French delegates'" will go. He wants his own ward solid, and proposes to go right after it. If there are any delicate people this doesn't suit; why it won't suit them—that's all. Whether the dish is sauer kraut or pea-soup, he wants to put in the seasoning.

A Noted Minstrel. M. T. Skiff, formerly business manager for W. J. Scanlan, the Irish Comedian, suffered with rheumatism for years without relief until he bought a bottle of Dr. Drummmond's Lightning Remedy. Two bottles made a well man of him. There are a thousand remedies for rheumatism but none have received the unsolicited testimonials from prominent people as shown by Drummmond's Lightning Remedy. When a cure is wanted send $5 to the Drummmond Medicine Co., 48 Maiden Lane, New York, and they will ship to your express address two large bottles of the remedy—enough for one month's treatment. Agents wanted.

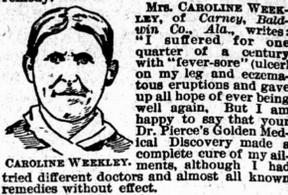

For instance, Mrs. Charles Rogers, of Bay City, Mich., accidentally spilled scalding water over her little boy. She promptly applied DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, giving instant relief. It's a wonderfully good salve for burns, bruises, sores, and a sure cure for piles. L. D. Brown.

Lawn Social. The Young People's society of the Congregational church will give a tissue paper lawn social at the residence of Mrs. F. W. Lyon, on Thursday evening next, Aug. 17. An interesting musical and literary program will be given and a crazy supper will be served during the evening. All are invited.

Minneapolis Lumberman: The White River Lumber company, the plant and thirty million feet of lumber of which was burned at Mason, Wis., recently by forest fires, informs The Lumberman that it can not as yet state definitely its loss. The amount of insurance was $310,750 and the loss was considerable in excess of this. The White River Lumber company is what is commonly called a Weyerhaeuser concern, that is, Weyerhaeuser & Denckman of Rock Island owned one quarter interest in it. C. Lamb & Son also owned a quarter interest and D. Joyce and Mr. John Humbird, the manager, each a like interest.

BIDS WANTED

School Building. The clerk of the undersigned school board will receive sealed bids for the construction of a brick veneered school house in District No. 45, town of Swan River, Morrison county, Minn. Building to be 22x36 feet, and information as to the specifications and plans can be obtained from the members of the board. Bids will be opened at a meeting of the board at the old school house on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 18, 1894, at 2 o'clock. The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Barbara Artinowski, the girl who had her trial Wednesday on the charge of larceny, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail and is now serving out the sentence. She went out to her home with the constable to bring back the stolen property, but returned without it, claiming that she was unable to find the articles. It turns out now that she had been carrying on her petty thieving for several months and in some cases, when accused of stealing things, confessed and returned the articles. The things taken were not of great value and the parties from whom they were taken did not think it worth while to prosecute her. In all probability after she has served her time for stealing from Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. Olson and Mrs. Artman will have her arrested for stealing from them.

"Any Port in a Storm."

That's a good mixim, but it will not work as a rule in the purchase of a remedy for rheumatism. Any of the cheap nostrums will not effect a cure—in fact none of them will. Get Dr. Drummmond's Lightning remedy, and a speedy cure is certain. One bottle is worth a hundred of anything else, and for that reason it is the cheapest when a cure is wanted. The two bottles sent to any address by express upon receipt of $5. Drummmond Medicine Co., 48 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to offer our thanks to all those who by their presence and generosity, contributed to make our so-called last Thursday, a success, but we wish to thank particularly the Transcript and band and the ladies and gentlemen who took part in the musical program for their valuable aid.

THE LADIES OF THE FRENCH CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepard, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by L. D. Brown.

A Card.

We take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends who assisted us during our recent time of trial, and to the other friends who presented so many beautiful flowers and other testimonials of their sympathy at the funeral of our daughter.

Respectfully, MR. AND MRS. A. B. JOHNSON.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pain across forehead and above the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

All the talk in the world will not convince you so quickly as one trial of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for scalds, burns, bruises, skin affections and piles. L. D. BROWN.
