

KNIGHTS IN LINE

Fifteen Thousand Pythians of the Uniform Rank Parade in Washington.

THE SIGHT A BRILLIANT ONE.

Procession Reviewed by President Cleveland—Convention Doings.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The feature of the Pythian encampment was the grand parade of the uniform rank. Fifteen thousand knights were in line, marching by state brigades, and the procession was more than two hours passing the presidential reviewing stand. Pennsylvania avenue was crowded with more than 100,000 people, a large proportion of them visitors from out of the city.

The president reviewed the procession from a small stand erected on the curbing just in front of the White House. A few minutes after 4 o'clock he emerged from the executive mansion in company with Colonel Klaw, chief of staff, representing the Knights of Pythias, and Colonel Wilson, United States Engineer. The president's appearance was by a crowd of several thousand people assembled about the entrance to the White House. He walked slowly to the western gate and thence along the sidewalk, which had been enclosed by ropes to the stand. As he stood up the great crowd broke into cheers and hand-clapping, which continued for several minutes, while the object of this attention removed his hat and bowed his acknowledgments. Then ensued a rather disagreeable wait for the procession, which was late. The president seated himself and waited patiently for 25 minutes before the head of the line appeared. Then he arose and as the Knights swept past, he acknowledged the salutations of the commanding officers by bowing. Ranks were formed in the camp around Washington monument, whence at 4 o'clock the body started.

Their Line of March was through the white lot, past the executive mansion and down Pennsylvania avenue to the Peace monument, in front of the Capitol, whence the body was countermarched up the avenue to the treasury department.

The scene was a brilliant one, looking down the mile stretch of the avenue, with double lines of marching men, buildings covered with bunting and spectators at all the windows and packing the open spaces and improvised stands.

Major General Carnahan reviewed the line near the treasury department on its return march and the review was not ended until after 7 p. m. In the evening the United States Marine band gave a concert in convention hall.

CONVENTION DOINGS.

Report of Supreme Officers Read in Supreme Lodge Session.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Preparations for the grand parade of the uniform rank engrossed the attention of Pythians. Thousands of visitors were attracted to the tented camp by the exhibition drills of several divisions.

The convalescence of the supreme lodge was called to order by Supreme Chancellor W. W. Blackwell, in Builders Exchange hall at 10 o'clock. Great secrecy was observed, and the entrances were carefully guarded. The supreme officers wore crepe badges on their arms as a token of respect to the late Past Supreme Chancellor Shaw of Wisconsin.

The roll call was answered by delegates from nearly every state, and Supreme Chancellor Blackwell and Supreme Keeper of Records and Seal R. L. C. White read their biennial reports, which showed the prosperous condition of the order and recommended further changes in laws.

The Pythian sisterhood organization is holding a business meeting at the Grand Army hall. There were several excursions and a concert by the National Marine band.

Harrison Won't Be Reappointed.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—William Scott Harrison, brother of ex-President Harrison, will not be reappointed collector of the port at Kansas City. President Cleveland named him for this position early in this administration and the senate rejected him through the efforts of Senators Cockrell and Vest. Now Cockrell, Vest and Harrison have reached an amicable understanding, but the president declines to appoint Harrison again.

Heavy Custom Receipts.
NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Receipts at the custom house for Tuesday foot up larger than for the whole of the preceding year. This is the result of the change in the tariff law. Seven thousand withdrawals were entered, but all of the papers could not be handled by the force of clerks, and not more than one-quarter of them were paid. The receipts amounted to $512,344.

Gibbons Will Visit Rome.
BALTIMORE, Aug. 29.—Cardinal Gibbons, it was authoritatively announced at the archiepiscopal residence, will go to Europe in the fall. He will visit Rome and expects to remain abroad some months. It will be his first visit across the Atlantic since the red hat was conferred upon him in 1887.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—A Paris dispatch says Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt has under consideration the advisability of instituting proceedings for a divorce.

WAS A TAME AFFAIR.

Close of the Second Session of the House Devoid of Interest.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—The close of the second session of the house of representatives for the Fifty-third congress was the tamest in years. It was absolutely devoid of interesting features. Although the galleries were crowded there were not more than 75 of the 356 members on the floor. The usual committee was appointed to wait on the president and inform him that congress was ready to adjourn. A resolution to print copies of a comparison of the new tariff bill with the Wilson bill and the McKinley law encountered the enmity of Mr. Johnson of Ohio, who did not think the comparison (prepared under the direction of Senator Gorman) revealed all the facts and a deadlock ensued which forced a recess until just before 2 o'clock and after an unsuccessful attempt to pass several local bills by unanimous consent the speaker declared congress adjourned sine die.

Both Branches Quit.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 29.—Both houses of congress adjourned sine die at 2 p. m. in pursuance of the resolution adopted Friday. There were no unusual incidents.

The usual form of notifying the president that congress was ready to adjourn and the receipt of the statement of the president that he had no further communication to make, were observed and then promptly at the hour set Vice President Stevenson in the senate and Speaker Crisp in the house declared the congress adjourned without day.

BUTLER'S DEFEAT CERTAIN.

Tillman Endorsed at the Primary Elections for United States Senator.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 29.—Returns from all over the state indicate that only about a two-thirds vote was polled in the primary election. The anti-Tillmanites generally refrained from voting. Tillman carries every county with the exception of Charleston, Richland and Sumter and probably one other. The legislature will be overwhelmingly for Tillman for United States senator, insuring Senator Butler's defeat. The conservatives will likely run an independent ticket at the general election in November and that will be Butler's only hope of capturing the legislature. The election was generally quiet.

Wool Didn't Tumble.

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—The new free wool clause of the tariff bill when it went into effect did not have the least effect on the wool market, dealers having been anticipating free wool ever since the beginning of the long tariff discussion, and prices were gradually adjusted in anticipation of the change weeks before. Foreign wools are about half a cent firmer on an increased inquiry. Domestic wools showed no change within a week.

THREE DEAD, MANY INJURED.

Police Arrest Half the Neighborhood and Carry Off the Injured.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—A desperate fight, which necessitated the turning in of a riot alarm and the calling out of three patrol wagons filled with police, occurred late last night in front of 4117 Ashland avenue. One man was instantly killed, two were fatally hurt and four men and one woman seriously injured. The dead and injured are Herbert Ray, neck broken with paving stone and stabbed in right breast; William Dunworth, left eye knocked out, skull fractured; Phillip McGrath, skull fractured; James Dunworth, right arm broken in three places; Patrick Cassidy, left arm badly cut; John Ring, head cut; Michael Donahan, head cut; Mrs. Lizzie Dunworth, right arm terribly cut.

How the Trouble Originated.

At 4117 Ashland avenue Mrs. James Cook has a saloon on the first floor and the Dunworth family reside on the second floor. The Dunworths had a lodger named John Marshall, who was too deliberate in paying his rent to suit them. On Sunday Cassidy, a brother of Mrs. Dunworth, attempted to collect the rent by force and was badly beaten by Marshall. Later Cassidy and Marshall resumed their fight, and the latter, who had with him several friends, chased Cassidy into the street. The fight was warming up nicely when John Dacey, a friend of Cassidy, came along. He had a revolver and tried to shoot Marshall, but his weapon would not work. Mrs. Dunworth then came to the rescue of Dacey and Cassidy with some paving stones. Just at this time Ray and Donahan came along in a buggy. Just how they nobody knows, but they were in it as soon as they saw it. A paving stone hurled by Mrs. Dunworth struck Ray at the base of the brain and broke his neck. He also received a stab that would have proved fatal had the paving stone been less effective.

By this time a dozen men were in the fight on each side and fists, knives, revolvers, clubs and stones were all in active operation. A call was sent for the police and just as they began to arrive a strange man, with Donahan's assistance, put the body of Ray into the buggy and drove away. After going several blocks they discovered that Ray was dead, threw the body into the street and drove away. The police arrested half the neighborhood and carted the wounded to the hospital.

RESULT OF THE DISPENSARY LAW.

Constable and Citizen Killed in a Battle at Blackville, S. C.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 29.—At 2:30 p. m. a bloody tragedy was enacted at Blackville whereby Solomon Brown and John Gribben, a dispensary constable, were killed. The double killing was the result of an old feud between Gribben and the influential Brown. Mr. Gribben went to the depot and opened a case of dry goods consigned to Solomon Brown, ostensibly for the purpose of seizing contraband whisky. Simon Brown, the father of Solomon, met Gribben on the street later and reproached him for opening his package, accusing him of persecution. The quarrel waxed warm and Brown was joined by his sons, Solomon, Isadore and Herman. Gribben offered to fight any one of them, and Isadore, 29 years old, accepted the challenge.

Gribben struck at him, but the blow was parried and Brown knocked Gribben down. At this juncture pistols were drawn and six or seven shots were fired in quick succession. Gribben was shot through the left shoulder and near the heart. He staggered into a store, firing at the same time, at the Browns. A bullet struck Solomon Brown, who fell half way to the ground. Gribben continued his firing and one bullet penetrated Solomon Brown's head, killing him instantly. Another bullet penetrated his heart. When Gribben's pistol was emptied he walked through the store to the back yard, where he fell and died in 10 minutes.

INTERFERES WITH NAVIGATION.

Smoke From Forest Fires Hangs Over Lake Superior—Driving Loggers In.

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 29.—Word has been received from Hibbing that very extensive forest fires were driving into town the logging and mining operators near there. A crew of over 100 men arrived there from one logging camp on the Wright & Davis operations, their camps having been burned, and as well over 1,500,000 feet of logs that had been skidded and were ready to be hauled to the river. The fires are burning fiercely in old choppings, and if the winds should change would do great damage in timber yet uninjured or to the town. Hibbing, though a village of one year, has a fairly good water system. The smoke from fires in this vicinity and Northern Michigan have been so dense here that fog signals have been blown continuously for a week, and navigation at this end of Lake Superior is very much hindered.

THE CZAR'S HEALTH.

Russia's Ruler Said to Be a Very Sick Man.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 29.—The health of the czar is causing general anxiety in Russia. There is no longer any doubt that his majesty is threatened with grave kidney troubles. It has been apparent for some time to those who have seen the czar in public that he is a sick man. He has grown thin, his complexion is pale and of a bad color and he has the air of a man who is greatly fatigued. This was commonly remarked among the spectators at the recent launching of the armored cruiser Admiral Senyave. It is semi-officially stated that the sole reason for countermanding the order for the army maneuvers at Smolensk is the health of the emperor.

The warrant was issued by United States Commissioner Hinsdale, who also issued warrants for the arrest of President Dennis Mullins of the police board; Hamilton Armstrong, chief of police, and Kate Dwyer, matron at police headquarters. The charge is opening the mail and also for conspiracy under statutes Nos. 3,892 and 5,440, the penalty for which is a fine of not over $10,000 or two years imprisonment or both. Shortly after the warrants were issued all the parties named were arrested and taken before Commissioner Hinsdale.

Governor Waite created a scene in the commissioner's rooms. He was highly indignant and when Deputy United States District Attorney Rhodes stepped toward him with extended hand the governor met him with a cold stare. Governor Waite pleaded not guilty, claiming he had not opened the letter, but that its contents had been read to him.

The hearing of the case was set for next Thursday and it was suggested that bail be fixed at $5,000. The prisoner sprang from his chair, paced the floor in front of the commissioner, and exclaimed: "I am the governor of this state and these proceedings are had to interfere with me in the administration of my office. I will not give bail. You may send me to jail, but I will not give bail."

Finally the commissioner accepted Governor Waite's personal recognizance to appear for trial in the sum of $100.

The beleaguering forces were overwhelming in numbers, and fell upon the sortie party, fairly annihilating it. This news spreads consternation in many circles, as it is the second serious disaster the French have met with in the vicinity of Timbuctoo since that important Soudanese town was occupied by them early in the present year.
