Ohio Democracy.
The Democracy—no, not Democracy, the Ohio treason abettors, whose association disgraces the name Democracy, met in convention at Columbus, on the 11th inst. Over four hundred delegates were present; they made nominations for State officers, made speeches, and passed resolutions; but in all the proceedings of that great convention, assuming the name of Democracy, claiming to be the party of the Union, there is not a word uttered against the enemies of the Union, now in rebellion, seeking to overthrow the Government—not a word uttered in favor of the Union, not tending to aid in its preservation, save the single assertion that they were in favor of the Union, and the Constitution, while every act of their meeting belied the assertion.

They nominated a ticket; but search the black record for criminals of the blackest dye—those who have, if possible out-witted the devil himself in the blackness of their deep crimes, and see if a blacker list of villains can be found, in or out of the penitentiary, than that nominated by the Ohio Democracy. There is Valandigham nominated for Governor. He is the man, who boasts that he has never yet, either by vote or otherwise, assisted in putting down this rebellion, and declares he never will. He, like the evil one spoken of in the Holy Book who goeth about, seeking an opportunity to incite the people to rebellion, against the law of his country, is by this Ohio Democracy, nominated for the Chief officer in the State. We will not comment on the balance of the ticket, they are a stripe of the first. Geo. E. Pogo was nominated for Lieutenant Governor, Wm. Hubbard for Auditor, H. S. Knapp for Treasurer, P. Van Trump, for Supreme Judge, and J. H. Heaton for Commissioner of Public Works. To apply the title 'Democracy' to a race of beings whose every act of their lives is, to be all the time honored, and ardently cherished principles of Democracy, is like dignifying an old rum shop with the title 'Grocery.'

We make no predictions, for we do not know the politics of Ohio; but if the seventy thousand of her noble, patriotic, Union loving sons, who are now in the army, were at home, we would venture to predict a speedy discomfiture of this band of rebel leaders.

PERSONAL.—We were very agreeably surprised Sunday, at seeing J. V. Farwell Esq. of Chicago, in the M. E. Sunday School at this place. Mr. Farwell is a noble specimen of a man. He is a perfect gentleman in all respects, where kindness of heart, developing itself in all the outer life, goes to make up a gentleman. He is a thorough going, wide-awake, business man, and at the same time a devout, humble, constant and consistent Christian. He is Superintendent of two Sunday Schools in Chicago; one is a school of Bridewell convicts, the other is on the north side—a select school selected by himself, from among that den of thieves, cut-throats, and murderers, that infest Kenzie street and its adjuncts.

Mr. Farwell is a member of the firm of Cooley, Farwell & Co., wholesale Dry Goods dealers, No 42, 44 and 46, Wabash Avenue, Chicago. They do an enormous business. They carry a stock of from one million to one and a half million dollars worth of goods. Their sales for the present season amount to one hundred thousand dollars per month.

While in Chicago recently, we called upon them, and were shown over the establishment, by Mr. Farwell himself. The whole building is warmed by steam, from a furnace so detached from the building as to be in the very slightest degree dangerous. In the basement story is the shipping room. To make it more convenient, the whole space under the pavement, on two sides has been excavated, and fitted up on purpose for a packing room. On the first floor, are the heavy goods, piled stack upon stack, so much so, that, but for the perfect order that prevails there, a stranger would be in as much danger of being lost in the labyrinth of wealth, as he would be in the city of Constantinople. On the second floor was displayed the prints and dress goods. We thought we had seen goods before, but never until we saw them before us, behind us, on every side of us, and all about us, on that occasion, did we realize the magnitude of that business. On the 3d floor are the Yankee notions, in endless array. The 4th and 5th stories were used for storage.

If a person could not purchase goods there, where would he have to go to do so? Nothing pertaining to that line of trade can be called for, that is not produced. We are glad to learn, that some of our merchants trade at Cooley, Farwell & Co's, for they are worthy men, and keep a splendid stock.

THOSE in power have erred, will again err, but because a pilot occasionally misses the points of the compass, shall we scuttle the ship?—E. M. Rice.

Those of the South have frequently said that they will listen to no compromise short of a recognition of their independence; this being true, a Peace Democrat is a disunionist, for the South will have no peace short of disunion, unless compelled by force of arms to abandon her present position.—J. M. Rice.

SPECIAL TO THE VOLUNTEER.

HARRISBURG, June 14.

Dispatches received to day from operations at Chambersburg and Hagerstown give information that rebel cavalry arrived at Perryville and Martinsburg about noon, and at latter place there has been hard fighting. Melroy was contesting their advance. Communication is destroyed between Winchester and Martinsburg. Reynolds has been driven by a large force of rebels from Perryville to Banker Hill. The enemy is also at Winchester. All Lee's army is moving. News from Muddy Branch and Nolans Ferry indicate that warm work has begun there. The capital and principal cities and towns of Pennsylvania are in absolute danger. A committee has gone to Washington to urge on the President such modifications of plans as will suit the views of the people. Indications are that capitalists will advance the money to pay the military, trusting to the government for repayment.

TRIUNE, June 14.
(Herald's special.)—A new army denominated the Reserve Corps, has been created, called the department of the Cumberland, and placed under command of Major Gen. Gordon M. Granger, with its present headquarters at Triune, to be composed of three divisions, commanded by Brig Gen's J. D. Morgan, R. S. Granger, and A. Baird. A strong force of the enemy estimated at 10,000 under Forest and Col. Cruise, are still hovering about our front.

New York, June 15.
The Times says editorially that information reached this city yesterday from Washington, that Lee's army, 90,000 strong, was on this side of the Rappahannock, marching northward, and Hooker's army was hastening forth to prevent the rebels advance. Lee before the close of last week crossed by ferds above Fredericksburg, and was apparently pushing for Orange and Alexandria railroad.

By Friday Hooker's whole army was on the northward march, following that day a line between Warrentown and Catlet's station.

All our commissary stores have been embarked from Aquia Creek. Lee has been joined by large detachments from North Carolina, the Black Water, and all his cavalry has been massed on the North Fork of the Rappahannock.

Longstreet's corps lately at Culpepper has doubtless been joined to Lee.

Hooker's force cannot be inferior to Lee's, and our army has recently been heavily reinforced from Nausenmond, Peninsula, and elsewhere.

No official or semi-official indications of these movements have been received, from Washington and the Times says these accounts we have obtained from other sources, but there seems to be agreement that our army and that of the rebels, are both on the move, and so closely together they can hardly avoid a collision soon.

WASHINGTON, June 15.
The President has issued a proclamation stating that the rebels are in Western Virginia, Eastern Pennsylvania, and Ohio, and calls into service 100,000 men from the following states: 50,000 from Pennsylvania, 30,000 from Ohio, 20,000 from Maryland, 10,000 from Western Virginia, to be mustered into the United States service forth with, and serve for twelve months from date of mustering in, unless sooner discharged.

The Governor of Pennsylvania has issued a proclamation saying the State being threatened with invasion and the President has issued his proclamation for 50,000 from Pennsylvania—I now appeal to all citizens of Pennsylvania willing to defend their homes, to rush to their might in this perilous issue, which is one of preservation or destruction. That it is the purpose of the enemy to invade our borders with all the strength he can command, is apparent. I therefore call upon all capable of bearing arms, to enroll themselves and to give aid to efforts to be set forth for the salvation of our common country.

CINCINNATI, June 15.
Special from Indianapolis says: The military sent to Rush County has returned. Gen. Mansfield arrested a number of suspicious persons and required them to give bonds for future good behavior. A company of troops left for Fulton County Saturday night, where the Enrolling Commissioner's papers were seized and destroyed by a mob. Seventeen citizens of Johnston County were found massed together in the woods, armed with rifles and revolvers, and arrested and brought to Indianapolis.

One hundred and Sixty East Tennessee Conscripts, recruited from among rebel prisoners at Camp Morton, for the 5th cavalry, left Indianapolis on Saturday, to join the regiment at Lexington.

MEMPHIS, June 13.
The steamer Hiawatha, from below having dates to the 10th. The situation at Vicksburg was unchanged, except that the raucous are daily contracted. The late rains improving the condition of the army. About 6,000 of Kirby Smith's force is reported to have come up the Washita river, and are making a demonstration on the Louisiana side of the river.

Our troops at Milliken's Bend, have been reinforced.

Johnson is still receiving reinforcements from the East, and is preparing to move for ward.

New York, June 16.

The Baltimore American of Monday says the most reliable information we have been able to obtain, is to the following effect:

An attack was made on Saturday morning on a small force of our men, at Perryville under Gen. McReynolds, of which the first Maryland Battery formed a part. They fell back before superior numbers and joined Gen. Milroy at Winchester; after a sharp engagement, of which results are unknown, at the same time Winchester was attacked in front from the south by a force reported to be under the command of Gen. Ewell, successor to Stonewall Jackson.

The exact whereabouts of Gen. Lee are supposed to be near or at Thoroughfare Gap.

GENERAL DISPATCHES.

New York, June 6.

At a meeting of editors held to-day Horace Greeley, of the Tribune, J. S. Brooks, of the Express, Wm. C. Prime, of the Journal of Commerce, and various others being present. Resolutions were adopted to the effect that we recognize and affirm the duty of fidelity to the Constitution, Government and laws of our country, that treason and rebellion are crimes.

That while we emphatically disclaim and deny any right as inherent in journalists to incite, advocate, abet, uphold, or justify treason or rebellion, we respectfully but firmly assert the right of the Press to criticize freely and fearlessly the acts of those charged with the administration of the Government and of their civil and military subordinates, and that any limitations of this right, created by the necessities of war, should be confined to localities where hostilities exist or are imminently threatened.

WASHINGTON, June 9.

An official dispatch from Rosecrans, received here to-day, dated Murfreesboro 9th, says last evening a dispatch from Col. J. B. Baird, commanding the post at Franklin, Tenn., was received as follows:

"Two men came into camp about dark dressed in our uniforms, with horse equipments to correspond, say they were Col. Auton, inspector general, and Maj. Dunlap, assistant, having an order from you to inspect our troops, and their conduct was so singular, and taken prisoner. James H. Arnold, in side, slight; Charles L. Dresser in leg, severely; Fred Eling, in lead slight; John Magness, in shoulder, severely.

Col. Baird asked if there were any such persons in the army, and if so their description.

replied at once that they were probably spies, and directed him to order a court, and if they proved to be spies to execute them immediately, which was done, and they were tried and condemned to be hung, and the sentence was carried into execution before ten o'clock this morning.

On being discovered they confessed they were officers in the rebel army, one a Colonel named Lawrence W. Orton, the other one claims to be a first cousin to Robert Lee, and is said to have been chief of artillery on Gen. Grant's staff, and formerly to have been on Gen. Scott's staff, of the 21 regular cavalry.

New York, June 13, 1863.

Advices from New Orleans state that Sherman is better and probably his life will be saved, though he will be lame for life.

CINCINNATI, June 13.
The Union red has a dispatch from Indianapolis yesterday, stating that the murdered of Marshal Stevens have been arrested and brought here. A company of cavalry has been sent to Jefferson county, Indiana, to aid the enrollment.

MEMPHIS, June 12.

The Missouriian of the 4th gives details of a fight at Fort Hudson stating that Kirby Smith drove Banks' forces in confusion, the latter leaving the dead and wounded on the field, and Smith was still pursuing Banks on the 5th.

WASHINGTON, June 13.
[Special to Post.]—The enemy has made no demonstration at Culpepper, though it is certain they are in heavy force. Their designs will probably be disclosed in a day or two.

A delegation of Unionists from Louisiana had an interview with the President to-day in reference to re-organizing that State in the Union according to the plan proposed in the correspondence of the Union Association of New Orleans, with Military Governor Shepley.

FOREIGN NEWS.

New York, June 12.

The steamer Corica from Havana of the 6th, and Nassau of the 8th, has arrived. Reliable intelligence of the occupation of Puebla has reached Havana. After a furious attack on Fort Tortos Huaca, the city was given up by the Mexicans, being without food and ammunition, having eaten even all the artillery mules and cavalry horses.

Ortega on the 16th, offered to surrender on condition that the soldiers be allowed to carry their banners and the officers their side arms, and all march to Mexico and report to the Supreme Government, and these were granted, except the latter, Gen. Forey ordering them to go to Orizaba and there stay until the close of the war.

Juarez has removed Gen. Commonfort from the command of the Mexican army of the center, for failing to succor Puebla, and Lizarza is put in his place. He would at once take command at the capital, and make every disposition for its defense.

Juarez also issued a proclamation announcing the great disaster in the surrender of Puebla, and stating that the capital will not only be defended to the last extremity, but all places would be defended with vigor and that the nation will wage war without ceasing and under all sacrifices, against the odious army which is profaning its soil.

Veracruz advises report the escape of Gen. Ortega's Llave Mendoza and eight more principal chiefs, over 300 minor officers and 2,000 prisoners from the French convey en route to Orizaba.

The steamship Mississippi, from New Orleans, has arrived.

Special dispatches to the New Orleans Era of the 9th, from Southwest Pass June 5th and 6th, say that a vessel had arrived from Vera Cruz, and that her officers report that the Mexicans have retreated from before Puebla. It is also said the French ar-

ON HOSPITAL BOAT NEAR HAVEN REEF, May 23rd, 1863.

Editors of the St. Paul Press: The editorial report of the part taken by the Fourth Minnesota in the Vicksburg campaign, has been made out, and will be forwarded to Adjutant General Malmborg as soon as possible. In the meantime I am enabled to send North direct, and I therefore enclose the above list, trusting that its early publication may relieve the suspense of our friends at home.

Col. Sanborn, commanding our brigade, came out unhurt, as did Capt. Martin and Lieut. Donaldson, who are on his staff.

The Fifth Minnesota Infantry, and the First Minnesota Battery, were in several of the engagements, but I cannot learn their losses.

Respectfully,
WILLIAM T. KITTRIDGE,
Adj't. 4th Minn. Infantry.

"Barnum's Self-Sewer."

It is now eight months since we first spoke of this invention as having received the highest commendation from the sewing machine men, and others who had used it. The "Florence" Company, after having sold them in their offices for nine months, now apply them to ALL their machines, included in the prices; (they are also sold at the other offices) and advertise them as follows: "To avoid the strain on the eye, heat, posture, and application and fitting care hereof necessary on a large proportion of the work done on sewing machines, we now furnish each machine with 'Barnum's Self-Sewer' which guides the work itself, and is of incalculable value, especially to inexperienced operators."

It will give employment to a great many persons in selling them, male and female. It is so light, an assortment for all machines may be carried without interference with any other business. Retail, with directions, $1.50; wholesale, $9.00 per dozen. Sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of name of machine and price.—Chicago Tribune.

INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmers' Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants amounting to no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would then consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings. It will be far wiser in the farmer to turn his attention to the destruction of rats than of small birds.

(Certainly it will. Whoever engages in shooting small birds is a cruel man; whoever aids in exterminating rats is a benefactor. We should like some of our correspondents to give us the benefit of their experience in successfully driving out these pests. We need something besides dogs, cats, and traps for this business.—Eds. Scientific American.

We can give our experience in a very few words. "COTYNE'S" Rat Exterminator is the simplest, safest, cheapest, and surest remedy; the most perfect Rat-baiting meeting we have ever attended. Every rat that can get it properly prepared according to directions, will eat it, and every one that eats it will die, generally at some place as distant as possible from where the medicine was taken.—Lyle Shaw (Nick) Miner.
