

The Tomahawk.

WHITE EARTH, MINN

A WEEK'S RECORD

All the News of the Past Seven Days Condensed.

HOME AND FOREIGN ITEMS

News of the Industrial Field, Personal and Political Items, Happenings at Home and Abroad.

THE NEWS FROM ALL THE WORLD

DOMESTIC.

John M. Ross, past grand master of the Delaware odd fellows, committed suicide by shooting at Wyoming, Del.

Twelve bodies of flood victims have been recovered at Clifton, Ariz., but the death list generally is placed at 31.

Kansas City, Kan., is still sorely in need of aid for its flood sufferers. A second urgent appeal to the country at large has been issued by the relief committee of that city.

Bradstreet's weekly review reports iron production the greatest ever recorded, with prices firm. Other trades are reasonably quiet. Gross railroad earnings for May were 12 per cent. over 1902. Crop damage reports are exaggerated.

At Sneedville, Tenn., Lewis Bolin, aged 60, was murdered by his 13-year-old stepdaughter, who sank the blade of an ax deep into his skull. Bolin was chastising a stepson when the boy called to his sister for help.

The Exchange grain elevator in the East Bottoms, Kansas City, Mo., was burned, destroying 40,000 bushels of wheat and entailing a loss of $70,000.

William C. Hook, of Leavenworth, Kan., has been selected to succeed Judge Caldwell, who recently resigned the circuit judgeship of the Eighth district.

The flood at East St. Louis continues to spread over suburban districts, and an appeal for aid is made.

Jerome L. Barker, assistant postmaster at Stevens Point, Wis., has been lodged in jail on complaint of a post office inspector. He is charged with embezzling $650 from the office.

Official reports received by State Employment Agent Gerow from Kansas counties show that the injury done the Kansas wheat crop by the flood is not nearly so serious as at first reported.

The percentage of the baseball clubs in the National league for the week ended on the 14th were: New York, .708; Chicago, .667; Pittsburgh, .687; Brooklyn, .511; Cincinnati, .435; Boston, .404; Philadelphia, .304; St. Louis, .288.

The entire business portion of Hustler, Wis., was burned.

Shamrock III, Sir Thomas Lipton's third challenger for the American cup, arrived in New York.

Aid for flood sufferers is asked by Kansas City (Kan.) committee. Homes of 7,000 persons were destroyed.

The interstate commerce commission will appeal to the United States supreme court to order the coal carrying roads to produce contracts with mining companies.

Employees of the Pennsylvania railroad numbering 3,500 have asked for a working day of eight hours.

F. A. Hopsun (colored) was hanged at Wise Court House, Ky., for murder, and William Cooker (colored) met a like fate at Clayton, Ala.

The percentages of the baseball clubs in the American league for the week ended on the 14th were: Boston, .622; Philadelphia, .609; Cleveland, .548; St. Louis, .538; Chicago, .500; Detroit, .455; New York, .452; Washington, .273.

It is stated that the president has decided that the Panama canal route will be secured, and the Colombian congress has received intimations that no trifling will be tolerated.

Feudists burned the hotel of Capt. B. J. Ewen, chief witness for the state in the Jett-White case at Jackson, Ky.

Reports from nearly every section indicate that the United States is in the midst of a great building boom, and that the construction work under way is unprecedented in amount.

Chicago, St. Louis and other western cities are said to be threatened with a meat famine which will largely increase prices as a result of the recent floods.

The American flag's one hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary was celebrated in churches in Chicago.

Alvord Cooley, of New York, has been appointed civil service commissioner, to succeed James R. Garfield.

Judge Holdom fined 16 strikers in Chicago for violating an injunction, and declared that if anyone was forced to sign a contract against his will it was slavery.

A plot of striking waiters in Chicago to shut off the city's water supply was foiled, and prediction was made that the trouble would soon be over.

The Northeastern Sangerbund of America opened its twentieth triennial sangerfest at Baltimore, Md., with 5,000 singers present.

The one hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary of the birthday of the Stars and Stripes was celebrated in New York city.

The flood at East St. Louis, Ill. is receding. The known dead from drowning since the flood began number 11.

The post office department investigation is now being directed by President Roosevelt.

The village of Heppner, Ore., was nearly destroyed by a cloudburst and 500 persons were probably drowned. A wall of water 20 feet high swept the gulch where the village is located.

The report of the interstate commerce commission for the fiscal year shows that the total number of casualties to persons on account of railway accidents for the year was 73,250, including 8,538 killed and 64,662 injured.

President Roosevelt replied to the B'nai B'rith society's plea on the Kishineff massacre by expressing horror at atrocities reported, but declared his belief that Russia would punish those responsible and prevent repetition.

The amount of three and four per cent. bonds so far received at the treasury department for exchange into two per cent. consols is $72,006,350.

President Roosevelt was the guest of honor at the grand concert of the Northeastern Saengerfest association at Baltimore.

Fred Mink, the murderer of Newton Harris and Sarah Mink, surrendered to the Pittsfield (Ill.) sheriff and a militia company escorted him to jail to prevent lynching.

President Roosevelt received the new Chinese ambassador, Sir Cheung Liang-Chen, and was presented with gifts from the king of Italy and the president of France by the envoys of those nations.

A. J. Cassatt and other officials of the North Jersey Street Railway company will be tried at Newark for manslaughter as the result of an accident that killed several children.

Charles F. McFarlane, superintendent of the Anti-Policy society, was murdered at New York by William Spencer, against whom he was about to testify.

The government's weekly crop report shows vegetation east of the Rockies hindered by cold, but cultivation rapidly progressing; New England drought relieved; corn unusually late; winter wheat harvest under way.

New gifts to the University of Chicago, aggregating $621,155, were announced at the convocation.

The collapse of the approach to the bridge at Eau Claire, Wis., dropped 200 carnival sightseers to the river. Scores were hurt.

Miners and operators reached an understanding at Scranton and there will be no strike in the anthracite field.

The Chicago restaurant and hotel employees' strike will be submitted to arbitration.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt have arranged to leave the white house for Oyster Bay on June 27, where they will spend the summer.

Postmaster General Payne has decided to prosecute ex-Congressman Edmund H. Driggs, of New York, on a charge of bribery.

Lisbon, O., celebrated its centennial anniversary.

Later reports from Heppner, Ore., indicate that at least 300 persons lost their lives in the flood. The bodies of many of the victims have been recovered.

One million acres of government land has been thrown open to settlement along the line of the Santa Fe railroad from Nogales to Majave, in California.

Rev. John R. Chadwick, chaplain in the United States navy, has tendered his resignation to President Roosevelt.

Henry Shayhorn, aged 52, shot and killed his wife, aged 42, in Philadelphia, and then killed himself.

An insurance company with a capital of $100,000,000 is being formed by the National Association of Manufacturers to protect its members from loss arising from strikes.

President Roosevelt in an address at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville declared that all who receive university education are debtors to the state and can make recompense only by service to their fellowmen.

The post office department has completed arrangements with the government of Peru for an exchange of money orders with this country.

Four men were killed at a grading camp near Cheyenne, Wyo., by the fall of a trestle.

Three election judges in the Eighteenth ward, Chicago, were found guilty of permitting illegal voting and sentenced to three months each in jail.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Gen. Alexander McDowell McCook, U. S. A., retired, died of paralysis at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Craighead, in Dayton, O.

Maj. W. H. Gibbes, who is said to have fired the first shot of the civil war, upon Fort Sumter, is dead at Columbia, S. C.

John F. McKinley, member of the Thirty-eighth and Forty-second congresses, died in Piqua, O., aged 76 years.

FOREIGN.

Bandits in the province of Cebu, P. I., raided several towns and the government was planning a campaign of suppression.

Prince Peter Karageorgevitch was decided on for king of Serbia by senators and deputies at the Belgrade conference.

Santos-Dumont sailed to the Long-champs race course by airship from Paris, alighting easily on the ground without assistance.

The dowager empress received in Peking Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, commander in chief of the United States Asiatic fleet, and his staff.

At St. Thomas, Ont., the Elgin Loan and Savings company closed its doors with liabilities of $469,686.

Social democrats gained 15 seats in the German reichstag, showing a remarkable increase in strength throughout the empire.

Prince Peter Karageorgevitch has been elected king of Serbia by the parliament at Belgrade at the dictation of King Alexander's murderers.

A railway line owned by an American syndicate headed by Senator Dewey is reported to have been confiscated by the government of Honduras.

Peter Suay and his wife and two children were drowned at Montreal by the upsetting of a boat.

Cholera has again appeared among the United States troops in the Philippines.

John Redmond's amendment to the Irish land bill abolishing the minimum price at which landlords may sell was defeated in the British house of commons.

The newly elected King Peter, of Serbia, is likely to rule in name only, with military leaders as real dictators. The Mexican government broke all records in arbitrations by depositing $1,420,682 on account of the Pius fund award with Ambassador Clayton.

LATER.

James T. Metcalf, chief of the money order division of the post office department, has been summarily dismissed for alleged irregularities.

The Kansas legislature will meet in special session June 24 to provide for damages done by the recent flood.

The president has appointed Henry F. Greene, of Duluth, as civil service commissioner, to succeed James R. Garfield.

Charles J. Glidden and wife left Boston on an automobile trip to Christiana, Norway.

Reichstag elections in Germany resulted in great gains by socialists, who are expected to have 80 seats in the new body.

Seven thousand flood victims in Alexander county, Ill., are homeless and short of food. Supplies have been ordered by Acting Gov. McKinzie.

Reports from Heppner, Ore., indicate that the number of lives lost in the flood will not exceed 200.

The whaling ship Gjoa, with Capt. Amundsen's magnetic north pole expedition on board, sailed from Christiana, Norway.

Bishop J. C. Hartzell, of the Methodist Episcopal church, sailed from New York on his seventh tour of inspection of the African mission field.

Chauncey Dewey, Clyde Wilson and W. J. McBride were held without bail at St. Francis, Kan., for the murder of the Berry family.

Miss Jean Ankrom, formerly of Waynesboro, Pa., the only woman school supervisor in Porto Rico, was thrown from a carriage in a runaway accident at Ponce and killed.

A procession of Jewish workmen was attacked by police and cossacks at Lodz, Russian Poland, and ten Jews were killed and hundreds wounded.

The Chicago restaurant and hotel strike has come to an end.

Ten thousand employes of the George A. Fuller Construction company were thrown out of work in New York city by order of the company, thus making the lockout in the building trades complete.

The flag has been raised on the building of the new department of commerce and labor in Washington.

Assured of the good will and support of the czar of Russia, the emperor of Austria and his brother-in-law, the king of Italy, King Peter proclaimed his acceptance of the Serbian throne under the motto "For the sacred cross and cherished liberty."

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

Harry Vardon, of London, won the open golf world's championship at Prestwick, Scotland.

China issued a decree authorizing the construction of the Shanghai-Nankin railroad by a British and Chinese corporation.

The next annual congress of the National Physical Association of the United States will be held in Louisville, October 3-8.

New Haven, Conn., bids fair to be a hatless town because of a new Yale fad. Hundreds of students are going about without hats.

Jessie Morrison has begun serving her 25 years' sentence at the state penitentiary at Lansing, Kan., for the murder of Mrs. Olin Castle.

In the little town of Kufstein, Austria, a statue of Joseph Madersperger, the inventor of the first sewing machine, has been unveiled.

The great pauper Anaconda (2:01%) has been sold by J. H. Bronson, of New Haven, Conn., to C. E. Knox, of Johnstown, N. Y., for $10,000.

The general synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Baltimore adopted measures to raise $1,000,000 within the next five years for general educational work.

Rev. George C. Lormer, pastor of the Madison Avenue Baptist church of New York, surprised his friends by refusing a call to Boston at a reported salary of $20,000.

Supreme Recorder M. W. Sackett reported to the supreme lodge, Ancient Order of United Workmen, at St. Paul, that the membership at the close of 1902 was 451,510.

The lord mayor of London, himself a Jew, is said to have received assurances from high authority that there will be no repetition of the Kishineff massacre in Russia.

A New York banker says values of stocks shrunk over a billion dollars during liquidation in Wall street, and that the immense declines have caused scarcely a ripple on the national surface.

Prof. W. H. H. Hart, of Howard university, and one of the most advanced negro philanthropists, says education is the only solution to the negro problem. He does not blame the south for all the troubles, and says it will take a long time to get results.

ASSASSINS MUST SUFFER

Official Note Issued by Russian Says Regicides Will Have to Be Punished.

SAYS ESCAPE WOULD BE DANGEROUS.

New King Peter Is Officially Recognized and His Accession Welcomed—Criticism of Emperor Francis Joseph Suppressed—King Attends Russian Church.

St. Petersburg, June 19.—An official note was published in the Gazette Thursday recognizing Prince Peter Karageorgevitch as king of Serbia, and welcoming his accession. In brief, the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassins of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and expresses the conviction that he will know how to severely punish the regicides, whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Serbian nation or army. The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquillity of Serbia to leave the crime unpunished.

King Attends Te Deum Service. Geneva, Switzerland, June 19.—King Peter attended a te deum service Thursday at the Russian church, in honor of his election to the throne

WILL ADJUST DIFFERENCES.

Board of Conciliation, Appointed by Miners and Coal Operators, to Meet June 25.

Scranton, Pa., June 19.—The board of conciliation which will adjust the differences between the mine workers and the coal operators will meet in the offices of the Lehigh Valley Coal company in Wilkesbarre on June 25.

Notices to this effect were sent out Thursday by R. C. Luther, superintendent of the Reading Coal company, after a conference by telephone with E. W. Warriner, of Wilkesbarre, and W. L. Connell, of Scranton, and the other representatives of the operators on the board. President Nichols, of district No. 1, had not received official notification of the call up to noon. The other representatives of the miners are District Presidents John Fahy, of Shamokin, and William Detrey, of Hazleton. President Nichols, when told of the call for the meeting, seemed to be pleased with the promptness with which the operators' representatives had acted.

DEADLY LYDDITE EXPLOSION.

Bursting Shell Kills Fourteen and Injures Many Others at English Arsenal.

London, June 19.—Fourteen men were killed and 13 injured by an explosion in the lyddite factory at the Woolwich arsenal Thursday morning. Several of the victims were literally blown to pieces. The building was of Serbia. He was loudly cheered. The Serbian military mission has arrived here.

YOU BET THERE IS.

"There's Many a Slip 'Twixt the Cup and the Lip"-ton.

Criticism Is Suppressed. Belgrade, Serbia, June 19.—The telegram of Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria to King Peter has not been published here, because of the emperor's strictures on the murders of King Alexander and Queen Draga. Later in the day a leaflet giving the text of Emperor Francis Joseph's telegram to King Peter was circulated but the strictures were so slurred in the translation that they were almost incomprehensible. The telegram, however, was otherwise so sympathetic that it was accepted here as being eminently satisfactory.

It appears that immediately after the assassinations the conspirators sounded the cabinets at St. Petersburg and Vienna, and received assurances of their approval of the election of Prince Peter. The latter's eldest sister, Polixene Preschern, the divorced wife of an Austrian landowner, who has been living for years in reduced circumstances near Vienna, has announced her intention of returning to Serbia. King Peter is not expected to arrive here before June 24 or 25.

Earthquake Reports Confirmed. London, June 19.—The British consular reports on the recent earthquakes in the vilayet of Van confirm previous advices that 23 villages were affected and some were completely destroyed. Seven hundred and eighty-five lives are known to have been lost, and it is feared that all the killed in the outlying districts have not yet been enumerated.

Cave-In Injures Many. New York, June 19.—The third floor of a building at 49 Bowery occupied as a box factory caved in Thursday burying some 30 young women in the debris of plaster and timbers. Several were seriously injured. The girls were at work on the second floor.

Steamer Floated. St. John's, N. F., June 19.—After being five days on the rocks at Cod Roy the Allan line steamer Norwegian from Montreal for Glasgow, with a general cargo and cattle, was floated Wednesday night. She sustained only slight damage.

Prominent New Yorker Dead. New York, June 19.—Hiram S. Armstrong, prominent for many years in the clothing trade of New York, and widely known in masonic circles, is dead from heart failure. He retired from active business several years ago.

completely wrecked. The roof was blown off and the interior collapsed.

The explosion is attributed to the bursting of a shell. There were many pathetic scenes about the gates of the great arsenal, where thousands of relatives of the employes besieged the officials for information.

Six additional men are missing, and it is believed they were blown to pieces.

Revolutionary Plot Nipped. New York, June 19.—In connection with arrests a few days ago, in Peru, of numerous politicians, a Herald dispatch from Lima says: The government has nipped in the bud a plot to seize the government by means of falsified documents to be incorporated by congress. It was the purpose to annul the election of Candamo and proclaim another president. Dissolution of congress by force, and perhaps by fighting in the streets, would have followed. The prisoners were released and sent home with a warning to remain there.

Returns Verdict of Manslaughter. Peoria, Ill., June 19.—After being out about eight hours, the jury in the Leary murder trial Thursday returned a verdict finding Henry Roers guilty of manslaughter and acquitting Edmund Monk. The men on trial are Belgians, and while celebrating New Year's eve got into a fight with James Leary, of Omaha, who was so badly beaten over the head with some blunt instrument that he died the next day.

Court-Martial Ordered. Manila, June 19.—A court-martial has been ordered for the trial of First Lieut. Hamilton Foley, of the Fifth cavalry, on the charge of embezzling soldiers' pay, irregularities in the pay accounts, improperly contracting debts and deceiving his superiors. The lieutenant was on board the transport Thomas, bound for home, but he was detained by order of Maj. Gen. Davis.

Oil Company Bankrupt. Cleveland, O., June 19.—The Adams & Sarber Oil company Thursday filed voluntary bankruptcy proceedings in the United States court here. The assets are placed at $170,000; liabilities, $331,000. The company operated extensively in oil lands and controlled many large tracts of property and oil wells in Ohio, West Virginia and other states.

Well-Known Writer Dead. Philadelphia, June 19.—John Paul Bocoek, well known as a writer of fiction and travel, is dead at Wayne. He came here from Richmond, Va., where his family were prominent in political and social circles.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains.

"Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is sapping away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me. I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—Mrs. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.—$5000 forfeit: If original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cannot be equalled by any other medicine in the world.

"FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN." Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear.

BABY'S FUTURE

Something for Mothers to Think About

Lives of Suffering and Sorrow Averted

And Happiness and Prosperity Assured by Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills. When All Else Fails.

Every child born into the world with an inherited or early developed tendency to distressing, disfiguring humors of the skin, scalp and blood, becomes an object of the most tender solicitude, not only because of its suffering, but because of the dreadful fear that the disfiguration is to be lifelong and mar its future happiness and prosperity. Hence, it becomes the duty of mothers of such afflicted children to acquaint themselves with the best, the purest and most effective treatment available, viz., The Cuticura Treatment.

Warm baths with Cuticura Soap, to cleanse the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment, to allay itching, irritation and inflammation, and soothe and heal, and mild doses of Cuticura Resolvent, to cool the blood in the most serious cases, are all that can be desired for the speedy relief and permanent cure of skin-tortured infants and children, and the comfort of worn-out parents.

Millions of women use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands, for annoying irritations and weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25c. per box. Cuticura Ointment, 25c. per tin. Sold by druggists, and by mail from the Cuticura Dispensary, 157 Columbus Ave., New York, N. Y.

U.M.C.

cartridges and shot shells are made in the largest and best equipped ammunition factory in the world.

AMMUNITION

of U. M. C. make is now accepted by shooters as "the worlds standard" for it shoots well in any gun.

Your dealer sells it. The Union Metallic Cartridge Co. Bridgeport, Conn.

A. N. K.-G 1974

PISO'S CURE FOR CURS WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Tastes Good. Use in time. Sold by druggists. CONSUMPTION